

relation to the Schumer amendment. That will be the first vote of the day.

Immediately following the party luncheons, the Senate will proceed to a vote on the motion to invoke cloture on the bankruptcy reform bill. It is my hope and expectation that cloture will be invoked. Following the vote, we will continue the amending process. There are over 35 amendments still pending, and we will begin working through those amendments tomorrow afternoon. Therefore, additional votes should be expected throughout the afternoon tomorrow.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:45 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:32 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, March 8, 2005, at 9:45 a.m..
