

her humane and charitable service to the city of Birmingham, AL.

In 1944, Mrs. Hale and her husband, Jimmie Hale, cofounded the Downtown Jimmie Hale Mission in Birmingham. These two individuals founded this mission to help rescue scores of individuals from homelessness and addiction. On November 17, 1944, Jimmie Hale died, leaving his young wife widowed and expecting their first daughter in January of 1945.

The death of her husband left her with nothing, so Mrs. Hale was taken in by a friend, and 2 months later she gave birth to a daughter. Later, Jessie married a man who had been aided by the Jimmie Hale Mission, Joe Downs. Unfortunately, he never overcame his addiction and after 2½ years of marriage and the birth of a daughter, he left the family.

Nevertheless, Jessie Hale Downs remained resolve in her dedication to the Jimmie Hale Mission, and she refused to let her late husband's dream die. Mrs. Downs is gifted with a great sense of leadership and a spirit of love for humanity. She served as the executive director of the Mission for 46 years and even today travels to churches and civic meetings to share the story of the Jimmie Hale Mission and what they have to offer.

Because of her unwavering dedication to the Mission, which began as a lone storefront chapel ministering to the men on the streets of downtown Birmingham, the Mission has now expanded into a six-facility, holistic-approach ministry in central Alabama committed to helping people break the chains of addiction and homelessness.

While Jimmie Hale envisioned the ministry, Jessie Hale Downs saw the Mission to fruition. Now, at the age of 88, Mrs. Downs is the matriarch and heartbeat of the Jimmie Hale Mission. I would like to offer thanks for a life lived to serve the less fortunate. The community of Birmingham and the State of Alabama are better off because Mrs. Jessie Hale Downs has lived among us.●

STANDING SOUTH DAKOTANS

● Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, today I rise to congratulate two outstanding men from South Dakota, Staff Sergeant Eric Borah of New Underwood and Sergeant Daniel Iverson of Madison. Both men have been honored this year for their unwavering dedication to our country.

Eric, a Wheeled Vehicle Mechanic in the South Dakota Army Guard's 235th Military Police Company from Custer, has been named Non-Commissioned Officer of the Year.

Daniel, an Army Bandsman with the South Dakota Army Guard's 147th Army Band from Mitchell, was named Soldier of the year.

Eric and Daniel will be recognized in Washington, DC two of the Outstanding Soldiers and Airmen of the Year for the National Guard. It is with great pleasure that I offer my congratulations to these two men not only for their admirable achievements but also for the great name that they bring to the State of South Dakota.●

HONORING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF MR. MATTH TOEBBEN

● Mr. BUNNING. Mr. President, I pay tribute and congratulate Mr. Matth Toebben of Northern Kentucky, who was recently honored with one of the "Movers and Shakers" awards for the Greater Cincinnati area. Mr. Toebben's life accomplishments and dedication to Commonwealth of Kentucky have given me reason to be proud.

I believe Mr. Toebben to be the embodiment of the American Dream. After immigrating to the United States from Borger, Germany in 1953 with only $10 to his name, he used all of his money to buy a train ticket to Cincinnati. Upon arrival in the area, Mr. Toebben took up not only one job, but two jobs as a carpenter for a Ft. Wright home builder in Northern Kentucky. He worked both night and day saving as much money as he could. This quickly paid off and by 1955, only 2 years after his arrival to the United States, Mr. Toebben started his own business, Toebben Builders and Developers.

The "Movers and Shakers" award of Northern Kentucky is an annual award presented to honor those within the Greater Cincinnati region who stand as an example for all. It is presented by the Kentucky Enquirer, the Sales and Marketing Council of Northern Kentucky, The Home Builders Association of Northern Kentucky and The Kentucky Post.

As a Senator from Kentucky, I commend Mr. Toebben for his hard work and dedication. I hope that he will serve as an inspiration to the citizens of Kentucky.●

MESSAGES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Messages from the President of the United States were communicated to the Senate by Mr. Williams, one of his secretaries.
