ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair will recognize up to seven Members on each side for 1-minute speeches.

CONGRATULATING APPALACHIAN STATE UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

(Ms. FOXX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing and congratulating the 2005 NCAA Division I-AA Football National Champions, Appalachian State University.

This courageous and athletic group of students, along with their coaches and support staff from Boone, North Carolina, defeated the University of Northern Iowa last night in Chattanooga, Tennessee, by a score of 21-16.

This marks the first time in history that a team from ASU has won a national championship. This championship culminates a tremendous year of Mountaineer football that saw the team finish the season 8-3, winning the Southern Conference championship before winning four playoff games, including last night's national championship game.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud of this football team and their coach, not just for winning a national championship but for the character and teamwork they display.

The Mountaineers have excelled under the leadership of Coach Jerry Moore, the winningest coach in the history of the Southern Conference. He has a talented staff, including Coach Lonnie Galloway, the son-in-law of our colleague from North Carolina, Robin Hayes.

I wish my duties in Washington did not prevent me from being in Chattanooga last night with so many Appalachian students, alumni, and supporters. I would have liked to have seen first hand the crushing defense in the fourth quarter, led by Jason Hunter and Marques Murrell. I wish I could have been there to witness in person the courage of quarterback Richie Williams, who played through a painful ankle injury suffered last week in the semi-final game against Furman.

Please join me in congratulating the Appalachian State University football team. I am proud of my long history with ASU. I am proud to represent this fine university in Congress. Go Mountaineers.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. HAYES). The Chair thanks the gentlewoman.

LIABILITY IMMUNITY FOR BIG PHARMA

(Mr. KUCINICH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KUCINICH. Wake up, America. In addition to giving away the Alaska National Wildlife Refuge to the oil companies, the Defense appropriations bill is rumored to contain a massive holiday gift to the pharmaceutical industry in the form of liability immunity for pandemic vaccines. The liability is not the reason for vaccine shortages, especially in the case of avian flu.

This giveaway will not result in increased vaccine production. Why does Big Pharma want these liability exemptions? Because there is reason to doubt the safety of at least one of these vaccines. Chiron, the same company which allowed contamination of half of last year's flu vaccine supply, is hoping to use MF59 in an avian flu vaccine. MF59 is a compound that contains squalene, which is on the short list of potential causes for the chronic debilitating illnesses experienced by our veterans of the first Persian Gulf war.

At a minimum, this issue must be debated in front of the American people, not slipped in behind closed doors into this large bill. I urge my colleagues to reject this liability immunity.

CONGRATULATING DIVISION I-AA NATIONAL CHAMPION APPALACHIAN STATE MOUNTAINEERS

(Mr. COBLE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COBLE. Mr. Speaker, the frigid unforgiving winds that normally blow across the Blue Ridge Mountains during the months of winter are blowing less brutally and less severely today. For on this day, these winds sweep across the campus of Appalachian State University, home of the National I-AA champions of intercollegiate football.

I attended Appalachian State, Mr. Speaker, and I know I speak for many in the Congress and many congressional staffers as well in conveying hearty congratulations and best wishes to Chancellor Peacock, Coach Moore, and the entire Appalachian community.

Mr. Speaker, I join you in enthusiastically declaring, Go Mountaineers from Appalachian State.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR THE WEALTHY

(Mr. DEFAZIO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, well, the Christmas tree is lit and decorated on the west front of the Capitol; but meanwhile here in the House Chamber, the Republican elves are toiling on the gifts to be put under the tree for the American people.

For the wealthiest, the investors who earn over $300,000 a year, fabulous gifts, huge new extensions of tax cuts. Unfortunately for seniors, working families, and the poor, there is nothing but a box of rhetoric. They even have to forego the usual lump of coal because it is too expensive with the Bush failed energy policy.

Even worse, the tax cut for the wealthiest among us, those who earn over $300,000 a year, will be paid for by cuts in student financial, food and nutrition assistance, school lunches, Medicaid care for poor people. The list kind of goes on and on. Merry Christmas.

WE CAN HAVE BOTH FREEDOM AND SECURITY

(Mr. POE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. POE. Mr. Speaker, history has shown that free peoples are willing to give up civil liberties or freedom in the name of security. Our forefathers knew this, so our Constitution protects us from government taking rights in the name of security.
