Many Members of Congress have joined her family and her friends from around the world gathered today in Atlanta, Georgia. Today we join them as they gather to praise Your holy name and thank You for this custodian of civil rights, witness of courage, and gracious leader. Grant to all Your people consolation and peace.

Lord, reward now all her efforts to give voice to those who suffer from poverty or injustice anywhere on Earth. Bless her efforts to breathe forth into the soul of this Nation equal justice under the law and peaceful harmony among diverse peoples.
