

then the Administrator or such participant may, as a deemed creditor under applicable law, bring a civil action in an appropriate forum against the participant or any other person who is either a party to the transaction (or series of transactions) or the recipient of any asset, property or business of the participant.

(2) RELIEF ALLOWED.—In any action commenced under this section, the Administrator or a participant, as applicable, may seek—

(A) with respect to a transaction (or series of transactions) referred to under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), a declaratory judgment regarding whether such person has become the successor in interest of such participant; or

(B) with respect to a transaction (or series of transactions) referred to under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1)—

(i) a temporary restraining order or a preliminary or permanent injunction; or

(ii) such other relief regarding such transaction (or series of transactions) as the court determines to be necessary to ensure that performance of a participant's payment obligations under this Act is not materially impaired by reason of such transaction (or series of transactions).

(3) APPLICABILITY.—If the Administrator or a participant wishes to challenge a statement made by a participant that a person has not become a successor in interest for purposes of this Act, then this subsection shall be the exclusive means by which the determination of whether such person became a successor in interest of the participant shall be made. This subsection shall not preempt any other rights of any person under applicable Federal or State law.

(4) VENUE.—Any action under this subsection shall be exclusively brought in any appropriate United States district court or, to the extent necessary to obtain complete relief, any other appropriate forum outside of the United States.

(f) REGULATIONS.—The Administrator—

(1) shall promulgate rules to carry out subsection (c), including regulations relating to the form, timing and content of notices; and

(2) may promulgate regulations to effectuate the intent of this section.

(g) PREEMPTION OF SECTION 223(J).—Section 223(j) shall have no force or effect.

NOTICES OF HEARINGS/MEETINGS

SUBCOMMITTEE ON NATIONAL PARKS

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, I would like to announce for the information of the Senate and the public that a hearing has been rescheduled before the Subcommittee on National Parks.
