

UCLA's defense. Furthermore, the Gators quickly demonstrated that their defense was the more domineering on the court, limiting their opponents' scoring options.

I want to recognize Coach Donovan and his assistant coaches, who have helped lead the Gators to national prominence. This is Coach Donovan's second title game appearance with UF, and with this victory, he becomes the second youngest head coach to win a national championship. I also would like to acknowledge the Gators' starters. Joakim Noah, the Final Four's Most Outstanding Player, led the Gators with 16 points, nine rebounds, three assists, and six blocked shots, a title game record. Taurean Green ran the point nearly to perfection, refusing to allow UCLA's pressure to lead to turnovers. Corey Brewer had great offensive statistics; however, it was his shutdown defense which held UCLA's leading scorer scoreless for most of the game. Al Horford helped control the interior and defend UF's basket, and Lee Humphrey's barrage of three-point jump shots helped put the game out of reach. Additionally, I would like to congratulate the Gators' only senior, Adrian Moss, who finished his college career with a sensational game, posting nine points and six rebounds in only ten minutes of play.

I also want to applaud the rest of the Gator team: Chris Richard, Walter Hodge, David Huertas, Garrett Tyler, Jimmie Sutton, Jack Berry, Brett Swanson, and everyone involved with the Men's basketball program. They are all to be commended for their contributions to the Gators' success.

This young team showed their maturity by playing unselfish basketball. We have seen the results when players are out for the greater good of the team, rather than playing for themselves. This Florida squad epitomizes that philosophy. They shared the ball, always looking for an open teammate rather than seeking personal glory.

I'm tremendously proud of these young men and honored to be an alumnus. It truly is great to be a Florida Gator!

TRIBUTE TO THE CHILD WITHIN,
INC.

HON. DEVIN NUNES

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 4, 2006

Mr. NUNES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Celebrate the Child Within, Inc.—a unique organization in my home district that offers support and encouragement for adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse.

Celebrate the Child Within is dedicated to helping negate the shame of childhood sex abuse, as well as the promotion of healing by recapturing happier childhood times. Those involved with CTCW, Inc. are committed to helping sufferers to focus on the little boy or girl within who endured the assault and survived to adulthood, and to celebrate that survival. The celebrations are done with wholesome, happy activities in order to help this specific group feel more accepted by society and to foster better understanding of themselves and their families.

Each year for the last three years CTCW's Board of Directors has identified a survivor of childhood sexual abuse who achieved excellence in their field of endeavor as an adult. The board has held a celebratory event that involved the community to recognize their success—and to raise awareness about childhood abuse, as well as the potential for recovery.

More people than ever are willing to talk about this ongoing tragedy, which is a significant step in helping rid this problem from our society.

I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Celebrate the Child Within for their much-needed work, and to wish them many more years of success.

FREEDOM FOR ROBERTO DE
JESÚS GUERRA PÉREZ

HON. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 4, 2006

Mr. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak about Roberto de Jesús Guerra Pérez, a political prisoner in totalitarian Cuba.

Mr. Guerra Pérez is an independent journalist and a chronicler of truth amid the lies and deceit of Castro's villainous regime. He writes about the reality of the reprehensible repression inflicted on the Cuban people by the dictatorship. Because of his belief in truth in print, truth for the people of Cuba, and truth to enable the world to better comprehend the daily horrors of totalitarian Cuba, Mr. Guerra Pérez was a target of the tyrannical regime. Make no mistake, brave men and women who seek truth and freedom are the enemies of Castro's totalitarian dictatorship.

According to Reporters Without Borders, Mr. Guerra Pérez was arrested for "disturbing the peace" on July 13, 2005, while staging a fast along with a dozen other opposition activists to protest against the incessant harassment of independent journalists. Over eight and half months later, he is still locked in the totalitarian gulag and still waiting for a trial.

Castro's ruthless machinery of repression does not stop after sentencing innocent Cubans to the totalitarian gulag. In the U.S. Department of State's Country Reports on Human Rights Practices—2005, it is reported:

Prison conditions continued to be harsh and life threatening. Conditions in detention facilities also were harsh. Prison authorities frequently beat, neglected, isolated, and denied medical treatment to detainees and prisoners, particularly those convicted of political crimes or those who persisted in expressing their views . . . Prisoners sometimes were held in "punishment cells," which usually were located in the basement of a prison, with continuous semi-dark conditions, no available water, and only a hole for a toilet.

To protest these grotesque abuses, Mr. Guerra Pérez has conducted four hunger strikes to call international attention to the inhuman treatment in the gulag. In a cry of solidarity for Mr. Guerra Pérez, Reporters Without Borders said, "We are all the more concerned about this hunger strike as he had only called off the preceding one a few days before and he was still very weak. There are no serious grounds for holding him as all he did was describe what life is really like for Cubans. We demand his immediate release."

Mr. Speaker, it is intolerable for Mr. Guerra Pérez to languish in a gulag where he is abused and tortured. It is morally abhorrent that, in the 21st Century, brave men and women like Mr. Guerra Pérez are still locked in repugnant gulags for reporting the truth. My Colleagues, we must demand the immediate and unconditional release of Roberto de Jesús Guerra Pérez and every prisoner of conscience languishing in the totalitarian gulags of the nightmare called the Castro regime.

TRIBUTE TO SERGEANT MAJOR
WILLIE BEASLEY

HON. STEPHANIE TUBBS JONES

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 4, 2006

Mrs. JONES of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, congratulations to Sergeant Major Willie Beasley on his retirement from Collinwood High School in Cleveland, Ohio. Sergeant Major Beasley has served as Assistant Instructor and Military Property Custodian at Collinwood High School for the past 12 years.

Sergeant Major Beasley is a valued member of the faculty at Collinwood High School and has earned the reputation of being an outstanding teacher and mentor to young adults. He is highly regarded in the community for his dedication to the cadets in the Army JROTC program at Collinwood. Through the Army JROTC, over 1200 students have been directed under his tutelage.

Sergeant Major Beasley also served in the 4th Infantry Division in Vietnam where he demonstrated leadership in combat as a platoon sergeant and acting platoon leader. There he distinguished himself earning a Bronze Star Medal, Purple Heart, and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

Sergeant Major Beasley's selfless service, superior achievement and loyal dedication to the youth of the City of Cleveland are immeasurable. On behalf of the nation and the constituents of the 11th Congressional District of Ohio, I thank you for your service and tremendous sacrifices you have made for our country. Congratulations on your retirement and on a job well done.

IN RECOGNITION OF PHIL LARSON,
2006 FRESNO COUNTY FARM BUREAU
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD RECIPIENT

HON. JIM COSTA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 4, 2006

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with my colleagues, Representatives CARDOZA, NUNES and RADANOVICH, to honor Phil Larson of Kerman, California, the recipient of the 2006 Fresno County Farm Bureau "Distinguished Service" Award.

Phil has been a lifelong farmer and Fresno County resident. He began his career as an agricultural chemical sales representative and worked for over 37 years for the Wilbur Ellis Company. While fulfilling this job, he also farmed for his family's vineyard in Kerman; where today, he still farms raisins. The expertise he gained over the years in agriculture earned Phil much respect from members in
