TRIBUTE TO MONROE
BASKETBALL PROGRAM

HON. JOSÉ E. SERRANO

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 9, 2006

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the undefeated national basketball champion Monroe College Lady Mustangs. On Saturday, March 18, the Lady Mustangs (36–0) beat Mohawk Valley Community College (MVCC) 100–70 to become 2006 National Junior College Athletic Association, Division III National Champions. Monroe's men's team, led by Coach Jeff Brustad, also had a successful season, compiling a record of 35–5 and finishing 8th in the national tournament.

There is an old saying: "Everyone has the desire to win, but only champions have the desire to prepare." Under the outstanding leadership of Coach Seth Goodman, the Lady Mustangs worked tirelessly in the off-season to prepare themselves physically and mentally for the season ahead. Their dedication and unrivaled work ethic helped to ensure that their third consecutive appearance in the tournament was a charm.

The Lady Mustangs earned Monroe's first ever national championship in athletics with a tenacious defense and potent offense, a combination that worked for them all season long. Although the tournament was played in front of MVCC's hometown fans in Utica, New York, the Lady Mustangs were not intimidated—they promptly quieted the crowd with stifling defense, holding their opponents to only 2 points for the first seven minutes of the game.

Mr. Speaker, the success that these young ladies enjoyed on the court is not only a reflection of their skills with a basketball, but more importantly, a reflection of their character. To reach the level of competition that they have achieved, one must acquire certain qualities that will not only help in sports but in life as well; qualities such as discipline, patience, and perseverance. While I am excited that they have proved to be champions on the court, I am more excited to know that they have developed the skills necessary for them to become champions in life.

I want to compliment everyone associated with Monroe College Women's and Men's Basketball for the courage and class they exhibited throughout the entire season. Athletics is about much more than winning. It is about learning how to work with others to overcome adversity. The men's and women's basketball programs have shown that they have learned this valuable lesson. I am very proud of Monroe Basketball for the great strides it has made in the pursuit of excellence. May these programs continue to serve as an example of what heights can be reached when you combine patience, hard work, and dedication.

For their strong work ethic and mental toughness on and off the court, I ask my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to the Monroe Lady Mustangs for winning the 2006 NJCAA, Division III National Championship and to congratulate the Monroe Men's team for an impressive run at the national title.

Mr. PORTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Gerald Burkin and Lynn Mayers-Gerry who are American Medical Response "Star of Life" recipients.

The American Medical Response "Star of Life" is a special program. Its sole purpose is to publicly recognize and celebrate the achievements of all people working in the selfless and heroic world of ambulance service providers. The "Star of Life" Program seeks to honor outstanding individuals as a thank you for the service, sacrifice and inspiration they bring to all of us.

Gerald and Lynn are heroes in many ways, they have both served as mentors to new employees and have promoted positive changes in the local health care community. Gerald and Lynn have also risked their own safety in the line of duty. While Gerald, Lynn, and an intern were setting up some warning devices, another vehicle struck Gerald and Lynn and they both sustained serious injuries. Mr. TOM DAVIS of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Marine Captain Brian Letendre, one of the true heroes of today's ongoing war against terrorism, and to recognize his service to our Nation.

Captain Letendre received his degree in Computer Science from Milligan College, where he met his future wife, Autumn Crane. Captain Letendre then attended Basic Officer School and the Infantry Officer's Course in Quantico, VA. After completing these schools, he and Autumn were married. Captain Letendre was then assigned to the First Battalion, Second Marine Regiment, Second Marine Division. He quickly embarked on a six-month deployment to Okinawa, Japan as an infantry platoon commander, and after returning to the United States briefly, was assigned to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba to provide security and guard the terrorist prisoners being held there.

Captain Letendre's battalion was then deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. Captain Letendre was decorated with the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal with a Combat "V" for valor, for his heroic actions during combat operations.

Captain Letendre's wife, Autumn, gave birth to their son Dillon the day before Captain Letendre crossed the line of departure into battle. A year after returning from combat, Captain Letendre was assigned to the Marine Forces Reserve's Inspector and Instructor Staff, 1st Battalion, 25th Marine Regiment, 4th Marine Division, Plainville, Connecticut. He was promoted to the rank of Captain on January 1, 2005.
