

George Washington—Frederick Frelinghuysen. He was born at the First Dutch Reformed Church Parsonage at Somerville, then Raritan, New Jersey, on April 13, 1753. He was sent to Continental Congress in 1775 and was later a United States Senator. He fought at the Battles of Trenton and Monmouth. He is buried in the Weston cemetery, which is maintained by the Chapter.

Through the years, this chapter has been a very hardworking group of ladies who held their meetings first in various members' homes in the Somerville area, later at the Wallace House, and then at the Old Dutch Parsonage. The gavel used by the Chapter was made from a locust tree grown on the grounds of the home of General Frelinghuysen at Millstone, New Jersey.

Restoring the Wallace House was one of the major projects early in the chapter's history. Former members also contributed to the Continental Hall in Washington, D.C., including a chair presented by Senator Frelinghuysen in honor of his mother, Victoria, in 1927. In 1932, a 103 year old painting, painted by Elizabeth Frelinghuysen when she was 13 years old, was presented to the chapter and placed on display in the Wallace House.

Also in 1896, it became known that a real live daughter was to become a member of the chapter: Miss Elizabeth McLroy, daughter of William McLroy, a Soldier of the American Revolution. She lived to be more than 100 years old, but died soon after having been made a member of the Chapter.

In 1932, U.S. Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen made a gift of the Old Dutch Parsonage to the General Frelinghuysen Chapter. The Old Dutch Parsonage was built by the Reverend John Frelinghuysen in 1751, of bricks brought from Holland. The first class of the Theological Seminary of Rutgers University was held in this building. When the railroad was being put through, the Frelinghuysen family saved the parsonage from being demolished by moving it a short distance to its present site. In 1947, the Old Dutch Parsonage was deeded to the State of New Jersey as a historic shrine, as was the Wallace House.

In 1995, The General Frelinghuysen Chapter merged with the Old White House Chapter to become the Old White House-General Frelinghuysen Chapter. Philanthropic works, in addition to caring for the Wallace House and The Old Dutch Parsonage, have included providing scholarships to students of local high schools who have demonstrated knowledge and insight concerning historic events, supporting Native Americans, placing markers along Washington's line of march from Princeton to Morristown (after the Battle of Princeton), and contributions of books to the Somerville Public Library, the Library of Memorial Continental Hall in Washington and to the New Jersey Historical Society.

The objectives of the General Frelinghuysen Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution continue to be: To perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American Independence, and To promote as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge, and To cherish, maintain, and extend the institution of American freedom, to foster true patriotism and love of country, and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of Liberty.

Mr. Speaker, I urge you and my colleagues to join me in congratulating the members of the General Frelinghuysen Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution on the 110th anniversary of the chapter and for their continuing good works.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE LIBERTY CHRISTIAN SCHOOL BOYS TRACK AND FIELD TAPPS STATE TITLE

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 10, 2006

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the superior performance of the Liberty Christian School Warriors' Boys Track and Field team for their second consecutive Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools, TAPPS, State title.

The Warriors totaled 150 points at Hart-Patterson Athletic Complex in Waco, TX easily winning the TAPPS 5A crown over second-place Midland Christian with 82.50.

After the first day's field events, things looked just as dark as the weather forecast for Liberty, as the Warriors trailed Dallas Christian by five points. With the weather holding despite the prediction of thunderstorms in Waco, the Warriors came back strong on the track, and dominated the medal stand, shattering the state record of 3:24.45 in the 4 x 440-yard relay with 3:22.70 and also winning the 4 x 100-meter relay in 43.49 and taking third in the 4 x 200 in 1:31.20.

This victory was a combined effort and would not have been possible if it was not for the incredible sense of teamwork put forth by all athletes.

I extend my sincere congratulations to the principal, coaches, teachers and members of the Liberty Christian School Boys Track and Field Team. The team showed true that value of sportsmanship then victory. I am honored to serve as their U.S. Representative in Congress.

RECOGNIZING NICHOLAS A. SERROQUE FOR ACHIEVING THE RANK OF EAGLE SCOUT

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 10, 2006

Mr. GRAVES. Mr. Speaker I proudly pause to recognize Nicholas A. Serroque, a very special young man who has exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in the Boy Scouts of America and in earning the most prestigious award of Eagle Scout.

Nicholas has been very active with his troop, participating in many Scout activities. Over the many years Nicholas has been involved with scouting, he has not only earned numerous merit badges, but also the respect of his family, peers, and community.

Mr. Speaker, I proudly ask you to join me in commending Nicholas A. Serroque for his accomplishments with the Boy Scouts of America and for his efforts put forth in achieving the highest distinction of Eagle Scout.

IN SPECIAL RECOGNITION OF JAMES D. MCKINNEY ON HIS APPOINTMENT TO ATTEND THE UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY AT WEST POINT

HON. PAUL E. GILLMOR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 10, 2006

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, it is my great pleasure to pay special tribute to an outstanding young man from Ohio's Fifth Congressional District. I am happy to announce that James D. McKinney of Bowling Green, Ohio has been offered an appointment to attend the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York.

James' offer of appointment poises him to attend the United States Military Academy this fall with the incoming cadet class of 2010. Attending one of our nation's military academies is an invaluable experience that offers a world-class education and demands the very best that these young men and women have to offer.

James brings an enormous amount of leadership, service, and dedication to the incoming class of West Point cadets. While attending Bowling Green High School in Bowling Green, Ohio, James attained a grade point average which placed him near the top of his class. While a gifted athlete, James has maintained the highest standards of excellence in his academics, choosing to enroll and excel in Advanced Placement classes throughout high school. James has obtained the rank of Eagle Scout, has been a delegate to Buckeye Boys' State and president of his school's Model United Nations Club.

Outside the classroom, James has distinguished himself as an accomplished student-athlete by actively participating in fencing and cycling. He has also remained active in his community by volunteering to assist his local Meals on Wheels program. Upon completion of high school, James continued his education at Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Virginia. I have no doubt that James will employ the lessons of his student leadership as he excels among the leaders at West Point.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating James D. McKinney on his appointment to the United States Military Academy at West Point. Our service academies offer the finest military training and education available anywhere in the world. I am sure that James will do very well during his career at West Point and I ask my colleagues to join me in wishing him well as he begins his service to the nation.

TRIBUTE TO COLONEL RICHARD SIMCOCK

HON. DUNCAN HUNTER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 10, 2006

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to Colonel Richard Simcock, the United States Marine Corps Liaison Officer to the U.S. House of Representatives. Colonel Simcock has faithfully served in
