LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will resume legislative session.

ORDERS FOR THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 2006

Mr. FRIST. I ask unanimous consent when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 9:30 a.m. on Thursday, August 3. I further ask that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and the Senate resume consideration of H.R. 5631, the Department of Defense appropriations bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, today we made some progress on the Defense appropriations bill. Chairman STEVENS and Senator INOUE will be here all day tomorrow with the goal of finishing the bill tomorrow evening. Those serious about offering amendments to the bill should be working with the two managers and talking to them early in the morning.

Moments ago, I filed cloture on the motion to proceed to H.R. 5970, the House-passed bill that includes the death tax reform, the tax relief extenders, and the minimum wage increase. Under the regular order, that vote will occur on Friday morning, unless we reach an agreement to change that timing.

I reiterate to my colleagues that we have some very important votes over the next few days, and Senators should be ready for a busy couple of days. It looks like we will be voting tomorrow night, and I ask all Members to adjust their schedules accordingly.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:06 p.m., adjourned until Thursday, August 3, 2006, at 9:30 a.m.
