

And indeed, for the millions of Little League fans around the world, the 2006 Little League Championship game will go down as one of the best single games in the history of the event.

TRIBUTE TO STAFF SERGEANT
CHRISTOPHER SWANSON

HON. STENY H. HOYER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2006

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, the tragic death of a young soldier from Anne Arundel County, Maryland, who gave the ultimate measure of sacrifice in the global war on terror, saddens all of us. As we continue to fight this war, the loss of each and every service member is a tragedy.

Anne Arundel County, the state of Maryland, and our Nation lost a great hero when Army Staff Sergeant Christopher Swanson of Rose Haven was killed in Anbar on July 22.

More than 50 of Maryland's bravest have now died in the war in Iraq.

Christopher Swanson was completely dedicated to protecting his fellow troops. He wrote on his personal website, "I would do anything for them even if it means giving my life to save theirs."

Swanson was highly regarded in his family and community. As a teenager, he traveled on mission trips with members of the First Baptist Church in Upper Marlboro, providing the hope of a better life to gang members in West Virginia and Ohio.

He was the captain of his soccer team at Southern High School, where faculty remembered a "happy go-lucky kid that was always lending a hand."

In August of 1999, Sergeant Swanson enlisted in the Army, even as others tried to talk him out of it. He served in Kosovo as a member of the 82nd Airborne Division, and was part of the initial assault on Iraq in March of 2003, the first of three tours.

Sergeant Swanson was awarded two purple hearts, one after being injured by an improvised explosive device just weeks before he was killed. He persevered, telling his brother Kenneth that he would not be sidelined.

Christopher Swanson gave his life for all of us. As his representative in Congress, I am grateful for his patriotism and his sacrifice. The Fifth District of Maryland and all Americans join the Swanson family in mourning the loss of this fine young man, a real hero.

IN LASTING MEMORY OF JUDGE
JOHN W. GOODSON

HON. MIKE ROSS

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2006

Mr. ROSS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Judge John W. Goodson, a true treasure to the community of Texarkana, Arkansas, and to the entire state of Arkansas. Judge Goodson passed away August 18, 2006, in Texarkana, Arkansas, at the age of 80.

John W. Goodson began practicing law in 1951 and was known as a "gentle giant" in the courtroom because of his imposing height, booming voice and tender heart. Throughout his distinguished career as a lawyer and Circuit Judge, John Goodson was a mentor and a friend to many. Some of those he mentored moved on to become international lawyers, elected prosecutors, Circuit Judges, Arkansas Supreme Court Judges and a federal Judge.

Judge Goodson served as the presiding Circuit Judge in courts in Miller, Lafayette, Hempstead and Nevada counties in Southwest Arkansas.

Judge Goodson was a World War II Air Force Veteran, a member of the Arkansas Masonic Lodge, and a board member and former Sunday school teacher at the First United Methodist Church in Texarkana, Arkansas.

Nothing meant more in the life of John W. Goodson than the love he had for his family. This love was evident in all he did, from his active involvement in his church to his role as a community leader.

My condolences go out to his wife, Doris; his daughters Jan Murphy and Mary Jane Briggs; his son John Goodson; and his three granddaughters, Jane Anne Murphy, Wesley Hana Goodson and Mary Claire Briggs. Judge Goodson will be sorely missed in Texarkana and throughout the state of Arkansas.

RECOGNIZING THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF DR. GAYLE HOLLIDAY

HON. EMANUEL CLEAVER

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2006

Mr. CLEAVER. Mr. Speaker, I proudly rise today in recognition of the achievements of Dr. Gayle Holliday, an important resident of the Fifth District of Missouri, which I am honored to represent. This week, Dr. Holliday is to be inducted into the Missouri Walk of Fame during a reception as part of the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation's Annual Legislative Conference, an event held to honor the achievements of African-Americans who have made significant contributions to Missouri. I had the privilege of nominating Gayle for the Congressional Black Caucus Spouses' Celebration of Leadership Unsung Hero Award. While this award carries no monetary prize, it is no less a testament to her devotion to bettering our area. For more than 35 years, Gayle has dedicated her life to the Greater Kansas City community, promoting and improving socio-economic conditions, political empowerment and civil rights of people of color.

Dr. Holliday holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, a Masters in Public Administration, and a Ph.D. in Management and Applied Technology. She is the President and Owner of G & H Consulting, LLC, which has been in business for more than 10 years, helping clients in the public, private and non-profit sectors with strategic planning and business plan development. She was recently appointed by Jackson County, Missouri to oversee the minority and women hiring by contractors and subcontractors for the Truman Sports Complex renovation, which is home of the Kansas City Chiefs and the Kansas City Royals. Additionally, under President Bill Clinton, Gayle was selected as one of a small group of individuals to represent the transportation industry on the President's transition team.

Civically, Dr. Holliday serves on twelve boards in the Greater Kansas City Area with varied interests such as healthcare, education, economic development, and diversity in such areas as race, sex, and religion. Through these community activities, Gayle amasses more than 70 hours of community service each month. She is also a member of the church I pastor, St. James United Methodist Church, and finds time to serve as chair of the Pastor Parish Staff Relations Committee. In all of her activities, she demonstrates her dedication and commitment to the greater good of others. Her high energy pace translates directly to the results she is able to obtain for the benefit of all in the Greater Kansas City Area. Regardless of whether she is in the trenches or the boardroom, her poise and thoughtfulness is ever present.

Throughout her life, Dr. Gayle Holliday has exercised a tireless belief in the principle of putting "others" before "self." She has put her principles to practice, and the effects of her efforts can be felt throughout the Kansas City Metropolitan Area.

For those reasons and more, it is indeed an honor and privilege to recognize Dr. Holliday at the Missouri Walk of Fame reception, hosted by myself and fellow Missourian, U.S. Representative WILLIAM LACY CLAY of St. Louis.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in expressing our appreciation to Dr. Gayle Holliday and her endless commitment to serving the residents of the State of Missouri. She is a true role model not just to the African-American community in Missouri, but to the entire African-American community at large. May her success serve as a stepping stone for many other African-Americans eager to be just as successful in their endeavors. While it is but a small acknowledgement for all of the work she has done, it is a heartfelt gesture, taking strength from the myriad lives she has touched in our hometown.

TRIBUTE TO NORTHWEST INDIANA
FEDERATION OF LABOR

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2006

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is my distinct honor to congratulate some of the most devoted and proficient workers in Northwest Indiana. The Northwest Indiana Federation of Labor AFL-CIO will recognize several individuals for their dedication during the 32nd Annual Community Awards Reception to be held at the Duneland Falls Banquet Center in Chesterton, Indiana on Thursday, August 31, 2006. These individuals, in addition to the other Northwest Indiana Federation of Labor members who have served Northwest Indiana so diligently for such a long period of time, are a tribute to the ideal American worker: loyal, dedicated, and hardworking.

At this year's event, several individuals will receive special recognition. Mr. Thomas Conway, United Steelworkers International Union Vice President, is this year's recipient of the President's Award. Mr. Conway is being honored for enhancing the well-being of workers throughout Northwest Indiana by countless contributions which further the philosophy of the Labor Movement.

Mr. James W. Callahan, City of Hammond Building Commissioner, will receive the Service to Labor Award for special recognition in assisting organized labor to improve the quality of life for workers in Northwest Indiana.

On behalf of the Pangere Corporation, Mr. Steve Pangere, President, will be presented with this year's Union Label Award for unselfish devotion to the Labor movement through its promotion in all areas of endeavor.

On behalf of the United Union of Roofers, Waterproofers and Allied Workers Local 26 and Roofers Local 26 Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee Apprentice Program, Mr. Jeff Lussow, Business Manager, and Mr. Keith Vitkovich, Apprenticeship Coordinator, will accept the Community Service Award for exemplary service to the community and the enhancement of the quality of life for all.

Mr. Patrick Malott, Sr., United Steelworkers #6787, will receive the George Meany Scout Award, an honor bestowed upon him by the Boy Scouts of America.

Mr. James G. Stemmler, Business Manager for the Iron Workers Local 395, will be honored with the Lifetime Achievement Award. The exceptional service he has provided to the community deserves our admiration and respect. His dedication and commitment demonstrated for his community is representative of the values we cherish in Northwest Indiana.

For the 2006 Business Sector Awards, Mr. John C. Mang is this year's recipient of the President's Award. The years of hard work he has put forth are a true inspiration to all. Mr. Calvin E. Bellamy is this year's recipient of the Retail/Wholesale Sector Award, while Mr. Mike Schaller, President, Schaller and Mandemack Construction, Incorporated, will receive the Building Trades Sector Award. Finally, Mr. Don Potrebic, Lake County Councilman and retired member of the United Steelworkers Local 1014, will be honored with this year's Service/Municipal Sector Award.

Northwest Indiana has a rich history of excellence in its craftsmanship and loyalty by its tradesmen. These individuals are all outstanding examples of these qualities. They have demonstrated their loyalty to both the union and the community through their hard work and self-sacrifice.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you and my distinguished colleagues join me in congratulating these dedicated, honorable, and outstanding citizens, in addition to all of the hardworking union men and women in America. They have shown commitment and courage toward their pursuits, and I am proud to represent them in Washington, DC.

HONORING RICHARD GIMBL

HON. TIMOTHY H. BISHOP

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2006

Mr. BISHOP of New York. Mr. Speaker, I am very proud to rise in honor of an American hero and one of the bravest firemen that Long Island has ever known, Mr. Richard Gimbl, Chief of the Holbrook Fire Department.

It is a tremendous privilege for me to inform the House that Chief Gimbl was recently selected by the great State of New York as its 2006 "Fireman of the Year." This award is the most recent of a long and highly prestigious list of decorations bestowed upon Chief Gimbl throughout a remarkably distinguished career exemplified by valor, sacrifice and selfless dedication to his fellow firemen and on behalf of a grateful community that he served and protected for 36 years.

Mr. Speaker, Chief Gimbl has answered the call time and again. He was dispatched to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands to help with the relief and recovery from the violent hurricanes of the late 1980s. As part of a FEMA relief unit, he responded to the Oklahoma City bombing in 1995. And he was there at Ground Zero on September 11th when the World Trade Center and so many of our bravest firemen fell.

At a time in our Nation's history when the ever-present threat of terrorism and natural disasters continue to imperil our safety and security here at home, we need and are deeply grateful for heroes like Chief Gimbl, who set the bar for a higher standard of commitment and bravery consistently demonstrated by our first responders, and who comfort us each day by the blanket of security they provide at the expense of tremendous sacrifice.

Mr. Speaker, as Chief Gimbl recovers from injuries sustained in the line of duty last year, we join with his family, fellow firefighters at the Holbrook FD, and the entire Long Island community in expressing our sincere best wishes for a full and speedy recovery and to assure each of them that he will remain in our thoughts and prayers.

15TH ANNIVERSARY OF UKRAINE'S INDEPENDENCE

HON. CHRISTOPHER H. SMITH

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2006

Mr. SMITH of New Jersey. Mr. Speaker, August 24th marked the fifteenth anniversary of Ukraine's rebirth as an independent state, finally being freed from the shackles of Soviet misrule that included a reign of terror, cultural suppression and a genocidal famine.

The last fifteen years have witnessed peaks and valleys as the Ukrainian people have struggled to overcome the legacy of communism and Moscow's imperialism. While the process of Ukraine's restoration is still a work in progress, great strides have been made to consolidate that nation as an independent, free and democratic state. The December 1, 1991 referendum on independence, the 1996 Constitution and especially the 2004 Orange Revolution stand as highlights, demonstrating Ukrainian resolve for independence, rule of law, democracy and freedom, and the continuing promise of a better life.

In contrast to the first 13 years of independence, Ukraine is now "free", and not merely "partly free." The March 26 parliamentary election was one of the freest and fairest ever held among post-Soviet states. The Ukrainian economy is on the road to recovery and development after the initial post-Soviet decline of the 1990s. Ukraine is a responsible neighbor and has shown its mettle as a partner for peace and security in the world.

Of course, challenges remain despite the real progress that has been made. There have been missed opportunities. Many of the promises of the Orange Revolution are only partially fulfilled. The rule of law, including a truly independent judiciary, remains to be consolidated. Corruption, although not as egregious as before the Orange Revolution, still rears its ugly head. Many Ukrainians believe all too many among the political elites look first toward their personal interests rather than to the good of the people and of the nation they are supposed to serve. As the last months have demonstrated, political stability can be elusive, and it remains to be seen what direction the new government will take. Nevertheless, Ukraine continues to show tremendous potential, and I am firmly convinced that this still relatively young 15-year-old independent state will fulfill its potential.

Mr. Speaker, in looking over the last fifteen years, we must not forget the sacrifices of millions who fought for Ukraine's liberty over the course of the last century, often against great odds and at great personal risk. Whether in the struggle for Ukraine's short-lived independence in 1918-21, or the insurgent armies that fought against both Nazi and Soviet rule during and after World War II, many Ukrainians made the ultimate sacrifice.

More recently, in the final decades of Soviet domination, Ukrainian Helsinki Monitors and other human rights activists challenged the system, calling upon the Kremlin to live up to commitments voluntarily undertaken when Leonid Brezhnev signed the 1975 Helsinki Final Act. One such renowned activist, Ukrainian Helsinki Monitor Nadia Svitlychna, who served three years in a Soviet labor camp for her tireless defense of human rights and freedom, died last month. We honor the memory of Mrs. Svitlychna, recalling that it was courageous and dedicated individuals like her who, as much as anyone, paved the way for an independent, democratic Ukraine.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud of the role that the Helsinki Commission, which I Co-Chair, has played throughout its 30-year existence in firmly supporting human rights and freedom for Ukraine. I am pleased that the Congress has stood firm in support of Ukraine and am confident that the United States will continue to extend the hand of friendship as Ukraine moves toward its rightful place as a fully integrated member of the Euro-Atlantic community of nations.

TRIBUTE TO MARK CHESNUTT

HON. KEVIN BRADY

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2006

Mr. BRADY of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mark Chesnutt on this day September 6, 2006, his 43rd birthday. This outstanding country music star currently has 14 No. 1 hits, 23 top ten singles, four platinum albums, five gold records, and continually maintains a hefty live tour schedule.

Born in Beaumont, TX, Mark got his start playing in honky-tonk bars throughout his hometown area singing alongside his father, Bob Chesnutt. His dad traveled often to Nashville and started taking Mark along at 17 where he was soon discovered by talent agents who recognized the vocal and authentic talents Mark possesses.

Signed at 17 by MCA, Mark soon won the coveted Country Music Association's Horizon
