and their three children. Aside from spending time with his family, in his spare time, Dr. Pathjrea has always enjoyed golfing and photography.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you and my other distinguished colleagues join me in commending the Asian-American Medical Association, as well as this year’s Crystal Globe Award recipient, Surjit S. Pathjea, M.D., for their outstanding contributions to medicine and to the community. Their unwavering commitment to improving the quality of life for the people of Northwest Indiana and throughout the world is truly inspirational. For these reasons, they are to be praised, and I am proud to serve as their Representative in Washington, DC.

IN MEMORY OF MAJOR GENERAL
KATHRYN G. FROST

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, November 13, 2006

Mr. SKELTON. Mr. Speaker, it is with deep sadness that I inform the House of the death of Major General Kathryn G. Frost.

General Frost was an inspiration to many people. She was the wife of The Honorable Martin Frost, she was a sister, an aunt, a friend to the military, and a hero to many. General Frost consistently urged joint service officers and enlisted persons to be the very best they can be and worked hard to transfer her commitment to service to the soldiers with whom she came in contact.

Her distinguished career spanned three decades, and her duties included tours as Chief, Military Personnel Office/Deputy Adjutant General, Berlin Brigade/United States Army, Berlin, Germany; Commander, Eastern Sector, United States Military Entrance Processing Command, Great Lakes, Illinois; Adjutant General/Commanding General, Physical Disability Agency/Executive Director of Military Postal Service Agency, Alexandria, Virginia; and Deputy Legislative Assistant to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Washington, DC.

General Frost’s awards and decorations include the Distinguished Service Medal with Oak Leaf Clusters, Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with 6 Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Commendation Medal, and Joint Chiefs of Staff Identification Badge. She also was named one of USC’s Distinguished Alumni in 2002.

Mr. Speaker, Major General Kathy Frost was a respected leader who will be greatly missed by her family, her friends, and her colleagues. She and her husband were dear friends of mine and I know the members of the House will join me in extending heartfelt condolences to Major General Kathy Frost’s family.

HONORING THE 60TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE JOHNSON-PHELPS ALL AMERICAN VFW POST #5220

HON. DANIEL LIPINSKI
OF ILLINOIS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, November 13, 2006

Mr. LIPINSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the 60th anniversary of the Johnson-Phelps All American VFW Post #5220 in Oak Lawn, IL. Since its establishment, Post #5220 has enriched the lives of its members and faithfully served the community. Today, Post #5220, under the guidance of Commander Joseph Stachon, has over 600 members and is one of the most active VFW Posts in the Chicagoland area.

Area veterans, returning from the Second World War, formed the Johnson-Phelps VFW Post between 1944 and 1945 and received a formal charter in 1946. Initially, members gathered at the Oak Lawn Public Library and later held functions at Brandt’s Dug-Out. In 1951, the Post moved into its current location at 52nd and Yorell Drive.

Throughout its history, Post #5220 has successfully brought veterans of all ages and backgrounds together. Members of the Post and its Ladies Auxiliary have a strong reputation for participating in community service events, performing volunteer work at hospitals, and spearheading donation drives and fundraisers for charity. Through the work of its members, the Post continues to make a difference in the lives of countless individuals and has a tremendous impact on the surrounding community.

It is my great honor to recognize the 60th anniversary of the Johnson-Phelps All American VFW Post #5220 and commend the outstanding work of its members. As we celebrate the members’ accomplishments today, we also thank them for their dedicated service in defending everything that our great Nation represents. Our society is forever indebted to our Nation’s veterans for their unyielding bravery, courage, and perseverance.

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a business and a family in my district that, in many ways, exemplify the American dream. The Sayklly’s family business has been in the same family for 100 years. Through hard work, perseverance and an admirable entrepreneurial spirit, this family has built an Upper Peninsula institution.

In 1906, a young Lebanese immigrant named Joseph Sayklly opened his own shop in Escanaba, Michigan. The shop, “Sayklly’s,” carried groceries and homemade candy and ice cream. Eventually, that little store would blossom into a thriving landmark, recognized throughout the Escanaba area. In 1916, Joseph married his wife, Mary, who was also a Lebanese immigrant. Together, Joseph and Mary would have nine children—Josephine, Marge, Angelina, Louise, Elizabeth, Marie, Martha Jean, Fred and Edward. All of the children helped in the business and all of them lived in a small apartment above the store.

Over the years, Sayklly’s grew in popularity. Local residents in Escanaba would stop by the store to take home a bag of Sayklly’s famous candy or linger at the soda fountain to savor treats made with hand-cranked ice cream. In the early days of Sayklly’s, some of the most popular products sold were peanut brittle, hand-pulled taffy, hand-dipped chocolates, peanut clusters and fudge. Many of these same delights are sold today.

When Joseph Sayklly passed away in 1943, Mary maintained the business with the help of her children and Mary’s sister Martha Jean. In
