

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, it was just about a year ago that I had the privilege of standing before the House to recognize and congratulate the 2005 NCAA Division I-AA football national champions, Appalachian State University.

I am here today to congratulate Appalachian State University's football team and coaches for another outstanding year of many triumphs. The Mountaineers football team has now reached the playoff semifinals and currently is 12-1, tying last year's record when the team won the NCAA Division I-AA championship, the university's first-ever national championship.

Not only is head coach Jerry Moore the winningest coach in the Southern Conference's history, he was named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 2 Coach of the Year, his fourth such honor during his 18 years at ASU. Coach Moore has now achieved his 100th Southern Conference victory and its 150th win at ASU.

The players of this year's team have also earned seven national accolades, including, but not limited to the following: Running back Kevin Richardson, who is only a junior and is a candidate for the Walter Payton Award, set and matched seven school records with his 131 rushing yards and four touchdowns in last week's win over Montana State. He is also ASU's all-time leader in career points with 282.

Defensive tackle Omarr Byrom led the team with 3.5 sacks in the game against Montana State while the total number of sacks by the defense was 7. Both of these feats broke school records for playoff games.

I applaud the players and coaches who are getting the recognition they so deserve, and I am proud to represent Appalachian State University in Congress. I particularly want to compliment Coach Moore for his faith and his expression of his faith and being the wonderful role model he is, along with his assistant coaches.

Please join me in wishing the Appalachian State University football team good luck in this weekend's game against Youngstown State. Go Mountaineers!
