FSA CLOSURE MORATORIUM LEGISLATION

HON. STEPHANIE HERSETH

OF SOUTH DAKOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 22, 2007

Ms. HERSETH. Madam Speaker, recently, in my home state of South Dakota, the state executive director of the USDA Farm Service Agency announced a plan to eliminate at least six county FSA offices that currently serve South Dakota farmers and ranchers. I think this plan is ill-timed and unnecessary. It will require many producers to travel greater distances to receive necessary services including critical price support, conservation, and disaster programs. If carried out, this consolidation would force considerable hardship and expense on all affected farm and ranch families, especially considering the fact that some of the counties targeted are among South Dakota's most rural. Even by USDA's own admission, the plan will result in almost no savings of taxpayer dollars, but it will certainly result in increased inconvenience, travel time and cost to producers. Local FSA offices are a lifeline to farmers and ranchers in South Dakota and some at USDA apparently do not fully recognize their value to our state.

Moreover, because we are just beginning debate on a new farm bill, it makes no sense to implement major changes to our FSA county office system at this time. We don't yet know what the next farm bill will look like and, therefore, we don't know what the demands on local FSA offices are going to be. As a member of the House Agriculture Committee and its subcommittees for Conservation, Credit, Energy, and Research and General Farm Commodities and Risk Management, this legislation is necessary to protect family producers that rely on their local offices for timely and personal access to USDA's farm programs.

This bill will simply require that USDA postpone any FSA county office closures until well after Congress has finished its work of reauthorizing the Farm Bill and we know what the personnel demands on local offices will be. I urge my colleagues to support this important legislation.

TRIBUTE TO THE HEBREW IMMIGRANT AID SOCIETY AND THE COUNCIL MIGRATION SERVICE OF PHILADELPHIA ON THEIR 125TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. ALLYSON Y. SCHWARTZ

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 22, 2007

Ms. SCHWARTZ. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate HIAS, the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society and the Council Migration Service of Philadelphia on their 125th anniversary.

Since 1882, HIAS and Council have resettled and aided over 125,000 immigrants and refugees in their quest for safety and opportunity in our great Nation. Originally formed to serve the Jewish community, this charitable organization provides vital social and legal services to individuals representing 100 nationalities.

The work of HIAS and Council to ensure that refugees and immigrants assimilate, and become permanent residents and citizens, is truly commendable. As the largest provider of citizenship application assistance in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, HIAS and Council uphold our tradition as a Nation of immigrants.

In honor of this special anniversary, HIAS and Council are posthumously paying tribute to Daniel Aaron. The Aaron family is among those who have been served by HIAS and Council. In 1937, as a child, Daniel came to the United States from Germany, overcoming many obstacles to become one of the founders of Comcast, a Fortune 100 company.

My mother, Renee Perl, was one of many who had to flee their homeland during the Holocaust. Those who survived and came to America could not hide their deep gratitude and love for this country. My own love and respect for our country and belief in responsibility to each other stems from my mother's strong sense of patriotism.

I am proud to represent such an exemplary organization as the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society and the Council Migration Service of Philadelphia, as well as so many Americans assisted by this organization.

CONGRATULATING PAGE AND JONES INC. IN MOBILE, ALABAMA ON RECEIVING THE 2007 GOVERNOR'S TRADE EXCELLENCE AWARD

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, March 23, 2007

Mr. BONNER. Madam Speaker, today I rise to honor Page and Jones, Inc., located in Mobile, Alabama, for winning the Governor's Trade Excellence Award, as presented each year by Governor Bob Riley.

Two years ago, Governor Riley established the Governor's Trade Excellence Award to honor businesses of all sizes—and from all regions of the state of Alabama—for their excellence in exports. The goals of the award are to identify Alabama businesses making significant contributions to the export business and to promote Alabama exporters as role models and supporters to the Alabama business community, while encouraging even more businesses to become involved in the global marketplace. The award also aims to increase awareness of the impact of exports on Alabama's economy.

The eight winners of the award are chosen by a panel from the Export Alabama Trade Alliance that judges the businesses on a wide range of criteria. Criteria include the level of export sales as a proportion of total sales and innovations in exporting. I am proud to recognize that two out of the eight winners of the Governor's Trade Excellence award are located in Alabama's First Congressional District.

One of the eight recipients of this year's award, Page and Jones, Inc., is a customs broker specializing in international trade logistics for both small and large companies. Page and Jones was recognized for being an excellent role model for the Alabama business community, for its continuous strong support of the broader export community, for its active involvement at the international level, and for its continued growth as a small business.

Starting in the 1970s with only 15 employees, Page and Jones, Inc. now has over 60 employees with 12 locations in six states. They handle approximately $75 million in transactions a year, and they encourage Alabama businesses to get involved globally by offering free services and advice to their fellow businessmen and women as well as cosponsoring various global events.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join with me in congratulating Page and Jones, Inc., for receiving the Alabama Governor's Trade Excellence Award. I know the company president, Mike Lee, the company employees, their friends, families, and members of the community also join with me in praising Page and Jones, Inc., for their many accomplishments and for extending thanks for their continued service to the Alabama business community, the First Congressional District, and to the international business community.

IN RECOGNITION OF JULIAN H.
"PETE" BOOKER

HON. MICHAEL N. CASTLE

OF DELAWARE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, March 23, 2007

Mr. CASTLE. Madam Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to pay tribute to Julian H. "Pete" Booker for receiving the 2007 New Castle County Chamber of Commerce Wallace M. Johnson Community Service Award. This great honor has been bestowed upon Mr. Booker for his commendable efforts to reduce teen automobile crashes in my home state of Delaware as well as for his dedication to numerous other philanthropic causes.

Julian, better known as Pete, created Delaware's SMARTDRIVE program, which educates high school students about safe driving techniques. Through this program nearly a dozen local agencies are partnered with more than two dozen high schools in order to ensure young drivers are able to safely handle the challenges of being behind the wheel. The program has achieved great success and has largely impacted many people in Delaware. This success was recognized in 2006 when the program received a national safety award.

Pete is currently finishing his second three-year term on the United Way of Delaware's Board of Directors, where he has volunteered since 1994. His talents and tireless dedication to such a worthy cause have facilitated and enhanced much needed programs in Delaware communities.

Pete further demonstrates commitment to his community by volunteering a great deal of time and resources to numerous other charities. The American Red Cross of the Delmarva Peninsula, the Delaware Association of Non-Profit Agencies, and Catholic Charities are but a few causes he has volunteered to assist.

Pete has also utilized his professional success to further the many causes he champions. As the president and CEO of Delmarva Broadcasting Company, he is able to donate generous portions of air-time to campaign thank-you ads as well as underwrite a portion of United Way's public events. The state of Delaware is greatly indebted to Mr. Booker for his selfless efforts. He has created a charitable legacy that has, and will continue to, touch many. I would like to congratulate Pete for receiving the Wallace M. Johnson Community Service Award, I cannot think of a more deserving recipient.

TRIBUTE TO GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY

HON. CHRIS VAN HOLLEN

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, March 23, 2007

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. Madam Speaker, I am honored to rise today and join the millions of my fellow Americans in commemorating Greek Independence Day which, on March 25th celebrates the 186th anniversary of the rebellion and the struggle of the Greek people against the Ottoman Empire.

Thomas Jefferson referred to ancient Greece as the "light which led ourselves out of Gothic darkness." What makes Greek Independence Day so special here in America is that it reminds us of the strong principles and bonds that the U.S. and Greece share. In looking into the struggles of our two nations, we realize how much our struggles have in common, and how much each country has been influenced by the other.

Greece and the United States are bound by an absolute commitment to the democratic ideals of justice and freedom and continue to be strong allies. By commemorating Greek Independence Day, we also celebrate the strength and the resolve of the human spirit that has been the inspiration of us all.

On the occasion of the anniversary of Greek independence, I join all Americans in wishing the people of Greece congratulations and best wishes. We will remain eternally grateful to the Greek people and the legacy of ancient Greece for the shining example it set for democracies the world over.

TRIBUTE TO DELORES FREENY
MAYES

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, March 23, 2007

Mr. BONNER. Madam Speaker, the city of Mobile, Alabama, and indeed the entire First Congressional District, recently lost a dear friend, a talented journalist and a lovely lady, and I rise today to pay tribute to her memory.

Delores Freeny Mayes—or "Lowey" as she was known to her many friends—was reared in Mobile and graduated from Bishop Toolen High School.

After working for many years at Mobile's Brookley Field, Delores went on to write for the Mobile Beacon, where she spent the past 25 years providing unique insights to her many faithful readers.

Dubbed the "Helen Thomas" of the south Alabama press corps by my predecessor, former Congressman Sonny Callahan, Delores was always fair to those she interviewed and covered. Although she was proud of her chosen profession, she was first—and foremost—always a lady.

Over the years, Delores had the opportunity to interview former President Ronald Reagan, former Alabama Governor George C. Wallace, Mississippi Senator TRENT LOTT, former Congressman Callahan, as well as his predecessor, former Congressman Jack Edwards, not to mention a host of other local, state and national political figures.

While she wrote about a wide-array of issues affecting Mobile and south Alabama, politics was never far from Delores' mind, and she was someone that public officials from all walks of life knew they could trust.

In recent years, Delores turned her love for writing into a celebration of her many other talents when she learned to draw and paint. I am the proud beneficiary of a number of her original etchings and paintings, and at this particular time when we are celebrating her life, each one carries a special meaning to me.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me today in recognizing this beloved member of the Mobile community.

Delores Mayes will be deeply missed by her sister, Jeanne Phillips; three brothers, Tommy Cain, Hubert Cain, and John Cain; many nieces and nephews; as well as countless friends she leaves behind.

Above all else, Delores was a devoted daughter, sibling, wife and mother. Moreover, she epitomized what a "true friend" really is.

Our thoughts and prayers are with her family during this difficult time.
