even more critical to recognize the first genocide of the 20th Century. We must send a message that genocide and genocide denial will never be tolerated.

To that end, I am proud to be an original cosponsor of Senator Richard Durbin’s S. Res. 196, calling on the President to accurately characterize the Armenian Genocide in his annual message around April 24 and to ensure that the foreign policy of the United States reflects appropriate understanding and sensitivity concerning issues related to human rights, ethnic cleansing, and genocide documented in the United States record relating to the Armenian genocide.

It is important that we recognize the Armenian genocide while its survivors are still with us to tell their stories. We must recognize the genocide for the survivors. We must recognize the genocide because it is the right thing to do. We must recognize the Armenian genocide to help shed light on the darkness and move toward a more humane world.

VOTE EXPLANATION

Mr. Nelson of Florida. Mr. President, I would like to take this opportunity to explain to the Senate my absence during today’s vote to invoke cloture on S. 372, the Intelligence Authorization Act.

I am in Florida, and my flight was due to arrive in Washington this afternoon because of the inclement weather, my flight was delayed and I am still in Tallahassee. I am a member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and I have already voted in favor of this measure. As such, had I been present for the vote, I would have voted “aye” on the resolution.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

TRIBUTE TO GERALD E. HARMON, M.D.

Mr. Graham. Mr. President, today I ask the Senate to join me in recognizing Dr. Gerald E. Harmon, MD, on the occasion of his retirement from the South Carolina Air National Guard, SCANG. A native South Carolinian, “Gamecock Doc” joined the military in 1973 as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Air Force, USAF after graduating from the University of South Carolina. He began studying medicine at the Medical University of South Carolina through the Air Force Health Professions Scholarship Program achieving his M.D. in 1976.

Dr. Harmon completed his family practice residency at Eglin AFB in Florida. After fulfilling several USAF flight surgeon assignments in Texas and South Carolina, he transferred to the SCANG serving as the commander of the 169th Tactical Clinic at McEntire Joint National Guard Base. Under his leadership, his unit was twice awarded the SCANG Outstanding Unit award and received “Excellent” evaluations by the USAF Inspection Agency.

In 1992, President George H.W. Bush recognized Dr. Harmon for his medical humanitarian work in Africa, and both in 1998 and 2003 the South Carolina General Assembly recognized him as the Doctor of the Day for his unselfish duty and devotion to the medical profession. Dr. Harmon was also a recipient of the American Heart Association’s Scoring School of Medicine and was recognized as the Air National Guard’s 1993 National Physician of the Year.

Over the last 7 years, Dr. Harmon served as the Air National Guard Assistant Surgeon General for the USAF providing critical advice and information on Air National Guard medical activities to the United States’ Surgeon General. Part of his responsibilities included coordinating medical policies, plans, and programs for the Air National Guard. Dr. Harmon is the first South Carolinian to serve as the Air National Guard Assistant Surgeon General.

Dr. Harmon is currently a family practitioner at the Waccamaw Medical Center on Pawleys Island, where he and his wife of 35 years reside. He is also President-elect of the South Carolina Medical Association having served on its board directors for many years.

A true patriot and a fine American, Dr. Harmon formally retired as a major general with over 700 flying hours on February 16, 2007. His military career will forever be marked by his extraordinary vision, sacrifice, and community spirit. I wish Dr. Harmon the very best in his retirement and ask that the Senate join me in thanking him for his service.

Whereas, current and future risks to national energy security are mounting while national and international food supply; and

Whereas, Montana and the United States have tremendous renewable energy resources; and

Whereas, the development of a broad spectrum of renewable energy resources, including wind, geothermal, solar, and biomass, will help meet the nation’s energy needs; and

Whereas, American agriculture is well positioned to play an expanded role in the development and implementation of new energy technologies and will have a direct economic benefit to agricultural landowners and rural communities; and

Whereas, rural communities and agriculture will experience multiple benefits, including establishing additional markets for crops and biomass resources; encouraging farmers to use marginal lands to produce fiber and fuel, and food quality programs that may arise from agricultural operations, improving wildlife habitats, and creating many new job opportunities; and

Whereas, Montana is in the majority of states which have elected to operate equivalent meat inspection programs allowing state-licensed and state-inspected meat processing facilities to engage in intrastate commerce. Other states are pursuing implementation of state inspection of their meat processing facilities; and

Whereas, State meat inspection programs are flexible and can efficiently and safely adapt their activities to small, local meat processors that cannot be duplicated by the federal inspection program because of its size and complexity; and

Whereas, State-inspected meat and poultry products are currently barred from interstate commerce under federal law, including neighboring local markets in other states, despite current meat safety and quality assurances, affecting long-range rural development and economic growth strategies within the meat processing industry; and

Whereas, such limitation on marketing of state inspected meat inhibits economic development and value-added agricultural activities in this nation’s agricultural sector; and

Whereas, current policy of the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture supports the interstate movement of state-inspected meat products: Now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Kansas, the House of Representatives concurring therein, That we urge the United States Congress to enact revisions to the Federal Meat Inspection Act and the State Inspection Act to allow the interstate shipment and marketing of meat products by state inspected meat processing facilities; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be directed to send an enrolled copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture and each member of the Kansas Congressional delegation.

POM–57. A resolution adopted by the House of Representatives of the Legislature of the State of Michigan memorializing Congress to protect and improve the Quality Child Care; to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 40

Whereas, Head Start and high-quality child care improve children’s ability to succeed by narrowing the educational achievement gap between lower- and upper-income kids, increasing high school graduation rates, and reducing crime; and

Whereas, studies show that at-risk children who attend Head Start and high-quality child care are better prepared for school. For example, Head Start narrows the literacy skills gap by nearly half between children in poverty and all children. The research is clear: the better quality education programs work to prevent crime. In Ypsilanti, Michigan, three- and four-year-olds from low-income families who were randomly assigned to a group that did not receive preschool preparation were five times more likely to have become chronic lawbreakers by age 27 than those who were randomly assigned to a pre-school Head Start component.

POM–56. A concurrent resolution adopted by the Senate of the Legislature of the State of Kansas urging Congress to allow intrastate meat inspection programs to be set up by the states to provide for certain meat inspection programs to be set up by the states to provide for States which support the ‘25 x 25’ Initiative to Increase Food Security and Promote Food Safety; to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry; and
