

For nature and wildlife he'd take a stand
 Like a beautiful Yellow Stone sunset . . . as was so this man
 A leader of woman and man,
 A quiet, and classy kind of guy . . . like a Gary Cooper he'd stride . . .
 Making many a fan, under control, a thoughtful soul, as wherever you'd find honor . . . he'd stand For he was as real as it gets,
 The happiest, when in his cowboy boots and hat, in his jeans and belt buckle . . .
 heading for home on a jet Yea, you my fine son . . . Craig . . . you were quite the one . . . we will never forget
 About a week before you died, Meeting inside, how you stopped to provide a warm moment still yet . . .
 What does that say, about a man on death's way . . . nothing but greatness, yea you conveyed!
 Now Marine, this is your life's final scene,
 High and Tight, with our Lord up in Heaven
 . . . ready to fight . . .
 As an Angel in The Army of Our Lord, on this night
 In Yellow Stone, when on a quiet night all alone . . .
 As the river runs through you in tone, and the wind in the branches to all heart so moans . . .
 All in serenity, and in peace, among our Lord's beautiful beasts . . . you'll find Craig there at home! What to our world, such promises unfurled . . . do we so leave behind?

HONORING WARREN HERRON

• Mr. ISAKSON. Mr. President, I wish to honor in the RECORD of the Senate my friend Warren Herron, who is a great Georgian, a great American, and a great citizen of Cobb County.

Warren Herron was the most important positive influence on my decision to enter public life. His active political participation and bipartisan approach is the role model I aspire to emulate to this day. He has given unselfishly of himself to make his community better through his work, his church and the Republican Party.

Warren was the first chairman of the Cobb County Board of Elections and Registration when it was created in 1985. As chairman, a post he held until January 1993, he shaped the organization through the creation of its policies and bylaws. He was known as a guiding force who led his team to a higher level by example, and his contributions can still be seen in the board today.

It gives me a great deal of pleasure and it is a privilege to recognize on the floor of the Senate the contributions of Warren Herron to Cobb County and the State of Georgia.●

RECOGNIZING WALL, SOUTH DAKOTA

• Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, today I wish to recognize Wall, S.D. The town of Wall will celebrate the 100th anniversary of its founding this year.

Wall, located in Pennington County, has a rich history of hospitality towards visitors. It was here in 1931 that the world famous Wall Drug Store began handing out free ice water to travelers during the height of the Depression. Today, Wall Drug attracts over a million people each year. Despite the large number of visitors, the same generosity that first attracted people to the town back in 1931 can still be found today.

The Wall community is a fine example of what makes South Dakota such a great place to live and work. As they celebrate this milestone anniversary, I am confident that Wall will continue to thrive and succeed for the next 100 years.
