CONGRATULATING DAWN DALLAIRE

HON. LYNN C. WESTMORELAND

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 17, 2008

Mr. WESTMORELAND. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Dawn Dallaire from Georgia's 3rd Congressional District, the U.S. Small Business Administration's 2008 Small Business Person of the Year for Georgia.

Just five years ago, Dallaire started a specialty-soap business in the garage of her Fayetteville home and produced $47,000 in revenues. Today, her business, Clearly Fun Soap, has created local jobs and projects annual revenues to reach near $3 million.

Like many inventors, Dallaire didn't start out intending to become CEO of a company: she was simply making gifts for friends. She perfected her "goldfish in a bag"—which has become her signature product in the U.S. gift market—and then branched out with new designs.

Dallaire's fortunes took a fateful turn when she took her soap products to a gift show in Florida. There, she took $5,000 worth of orders and happy customers started coming back.

By 2005, Dallaire's soap business had bubbled beyond the garage. With the help of a Small Business Administration Community Express Loan, she opened a 5,000-square-foot facility in Griffin, another city in the 3rd District. But the growth continued. Two years later, Clearly Fun Soap upgraded to a 10,000-square-foot facility with 15 full-time employees, with up to 35 part-time employees.

Clearly Fun Soap now dots the shelves at Bath & Body Works. Linens N Things, Marshall's and TJ Maxx with accounts pending at other major retailers. Soon, Dallaire will publish her book "Being a Woman in Business in a Man's World" which chronicles both her business and personal accomplishments—including losing 120 pounds.

Our small businesses are the economic engine of our economy and they create over 75 percent of new jobs. Small business people such as Dallaire are helping others as they help themselves. I want to congratulate Dawn Dallaire on this distinguished award. It's truly a great honor that reflects her truly great accomplishments. Georgia's 3rd District is proud to call her one of our own.

Madam Speaker, on behalf of the House of Representatives, I again congratulate Dawn Dallaire, the Georgia Small Business Person of the Year for 2008, and wish her and Clearly Fun Soap continued success at "cleaning up."
