

treatment services through a variety of programs, including programs under title X of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 300 et seq.) and the CDC's STD prevention program; and

Whereas STD screening, vaccination, and other prevention strategies for sexually active women should be among our highest public health priorities: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) designates April 2008 as "National STD Awareness Month";

(2) requests the Federal Government, States, localities, and nonprofit organizations to observe the month with appropriate programs and activities, with the goal of increasing public knowledge of the risks of sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) and protecting people of all ages;

(3) recognizes the human toll of the STD epidemic and makes the prevention and cure of STDs a higher public health priority; and

(4) calls on all people in the United States to learn what screenings are recommended for them and their families and to seek appropriate care.

SENATE RESOLUTION 543—DESIGNATING THE WEEK BEGINNING MAY 11, 2008, AS "NATIONAL NURSING HOME WEEK"

Mr. THUNE (for himself, Mr. JOHN-SON, and Mr. BINGAMAN) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary:

S. RES. 543

Whereas more than 1,500,000 elderly and disabled individuals live in the nearly 16,000 nursing facilities in the United States;

Whereas the annual celebration of National Nursing Home Week invites people in communities nationwide to recognize nursing home residents and staff for their contributions to their communities;

Whereas the theme for National Nursing Home Week in 2008 is "Love is Ageless", emphasizing that each person, caregiver, and community has an abundance of love, no matter what their age;

Whereas love can be celebrated in a variety of ways, such as through the telling of personal stories, traditions, friendship, and family; and

Whereas National Nursing Home Week recognizes the people who provide care to the Nation's most vulnerable population: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) designates the week beginning May 11, 2008, as "National Nursing Home Week";

(2) recognizes that a majority of people in the United States, because of social needs, disability, trauma, or illness, will require long-term care services at some point in their lives;

(3) honors nursing home residents and the people who care for them each day, including family members, volunteers, and dedicated long-term care professionals, for their contributions to their communities and the United States; and

(4) encourages the people of the United States to observe National Nursing Home Week with appropriate ceremonies and activities.
