CLOTURE MOTION

Mr. REID. Madam President, I send a cloture motion to the desk. This is on the bill itself.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The cloture motion having been presented under rule XXII, the Chair directs the clerk to read the motion.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

CLOTURE MOTION

We, the undersigned Senators, in accordance with the provisions of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, hereby move to bring to a close debate on Calendar No. 47, H.R. 1256, Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act.

Mr. REID. Madam President, I now ask unanimous consent that the mandatory quorum under rule XXII be waived.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent to go into a period of morning business, with Senators permitted to speak for up to 10 minutes each.

Mr. MCCAIN. Reserving the right to object, what did we do?

Mr. REID. We just went into morning business. We would like to go into morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Arizona is recognized.

Mr. MCCAIN. Madam President, I have an amendment that I have been trying to get a vote on, I would say to the distinguished majority leader, and it certainly is important to the American people.

It is certainly important on this bill and the function of the FDA concerning the importation of prescription drugs into this country. I believe the Senator from North Dakota has an amendment. I would agree to a time agreement of an hour to be equally divided, or half hour, and then vote on it.

I think the American people ought to know whether we are going to be able to import prescription drugs into this country so we can save them billions of dollars every year, rather than taking so much of their hard-earned money, especially retirees.

Mr. REID. Madam President, I am happy to respond to my friend. We have been trying for 2 days to move forward on germane amendments. I have had several conversations with Senator DORGAN. I know how important it is to him. I voted with him, and I do every time this matter comes up. As I indicated earlier, I would be happy to work out some kind of agreement.

At this time, until we get some ability to vote on the germane amendments, it doesn't seem like the right thing to do. I am willing, as I have indicated to my friend, Senator DORGAN, to work out an arrangement for him to offer this amendment. This is something that should have been done, I am sorry to say, years ago, not weeks ago. I will work with the Senator from Arizona on this drug reimportation issue, which is important. At this stage, we simply cannot do it; I know of no way to get from here to there.

As I said—and the manager of the bill is here—if we can work something out by Monday, I will be happy to try to work something out. Nobody is trying to stop the Senator from offering that amendment. We have to have an agreement to move forward on the other stuff first because it is germane.

Mr. MCCAIN. Will the Senator yield?

Mr. REID. Yes, without losing my right to the floor.

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, I am very appreciative of the difficulties the majority leader faces on a bill of this nature, the challenges of amendments being nongermane, and also the difficulties he faces in managing legislation. This issue has been around for a long time, I say to my friend from Nevada. We should address it. It is important to the American people. It does have a lot to do with pharmaceuticals in this country and the availability.

Again, I point out to the majority leader that there should not be a lot of debate on this. People have taken their positions.

I have an e-mail that was sent to us by mistake by the lobby for PhRMA, regarding how important it is to stop this amendment and not have a vote on it. If my friend will indulge me, this is urgent. This is from, as I understand it, one of the lobbyists for PhRMA:

The Senate is on the tobacco bill today. Unless we get some significant movement, the full-blown Dorgan or Vitter bill will pass as an amendment and a Cochran or Brownback safety amendment will fail.

(1) We need to locate a Democratic lead co-sponsor for the second degree amendment—which will be either BROWNBACK or COCHRAN. Can the J&J, Merck, Novartis, Pfizer and the other New Jersey companies coordinate and contact Senator MENENDEZ's office and ask him to take the lead?

(2) We are trying to get Senator DORGAN to back down—calling the White House and Senator REID. Our understanding is that at least Senator MCCAIN has said he will offer regardless, so even if DORGAN withdraws, he may still go forward.

We believe we have 39 'yes' votes for a safety second degree amendment and 25 members in the 'undecided' column. KENNEDY—who whipped this for us last time—is not here.

We are scheduling a call for later this morning to follow up on our targets from yesterday's whip call. Please make sure your staff is fully engaged in this process. This is real. We only had six companies participate in the last call.

My friends, that is a little insight as to how the special interests in Washington work. I would like to have a vote on this amendment, I say to my friend from Nevada, with a full appreciation of the difficulties he has in getting this legislation through—a very important piece of legislation.

I thank my friend from Nevada for his indulgence and allowing me to read that e-mail.

Mr. REID. Madam President, that is kind of an insight—I don't know who is on first, but that is pretty interesting.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to a period of morning business, with Senators permitted to speak for up to 10 minutes each.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUESTS—EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to executive session to consider Calendar No. 132, the nomination of William Sessions to be Chair of the U.S. Sentencing Commission.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, we have not had an opportunity to get that cleared on this side. Therefore, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

Mr. REID. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to executive session to consider the nomination of Robert Groves to be Director of the Census.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, I make the same observation with regard to this nominee. We have not yet
