

and television broadcasting pioneer John Callaway died in Chicago.

After more than 30 years with Chicago's Public Television, John Callaway's extraordinary dedication to honest journalism that served the people will be greatly missed.

John can be credited with many great firsts in the world of televised broadcasting. He was a leader in the nationwide development of CBS news stations and hosted WTTW's Chicago's first evening news analysis.

The former Peabody and Emmy Award winner had said that he hoped his shows would allow the viewer to see the "fabric and soul of the city." Ladies and gentlemen, let me tell you in my city the fabric and soul is often both extraordinary and tragic. For me and many Chicagoans, the airwaves will feel quite empty without John Callaway as the host of channel 11's show "Chicago's Tonight's Week in Review." Tonight he will be remembered not only by his loving wife, Sandra Callaway, and daughters Liz and Ann, but by the citizens of Chicago and the American people.
