

McBride's National Services division to serve as President in 1994. His responsibilities include the oversight of national services, customer service, database implementation, maintaining relationships, and implementation of marketing services for the division. He is an active member of the Society of Industrial & Office Realtors, the Industrial & Office Real Estate Brokers Association of Metropolitan New York, and CORFAC International—a worldwide commercial real estate network through which he has spoken at numerous global conferences and serves as an Executive Committee member.

As Boy Scouting founder Lord Baden Powel once said, "It is the spirit within, not the veneer without, which makes a man." Robert Tillsley's spirit can be seen in his laudable educational and business pursuits on behalf of the Boy Scouts of America throughout the 5th district of New Jersey; I join with his family, friends, and community in celebrating this momentous occasion.

TRIBUTE TO MR. STUART FROHM

HON. DAVE CAMP

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 30, 2009

Mr. CAMP. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor and commend Mr. Stuart Frohm, a prolific political journalist, columnist, and editor.

Stu will retire today, September 30, 2009, after 30 years with the Midland Daily News, my hometown newspaper. He was the political writer and wire editor for state, national, and world stories and photos.

Stu was a true newspaper man, a balanced mix of watchdog and champion for the Midland area community. He was a tireless and dedicated reporter and editor who fully understood politics. He was thorough and he was fair, even when critical. Most importantly, he informed readers and helped bring us together, even through the toughest decisions, the way only a professional journalist can.

I have shared many experiences with Stu. After each election, Stu and I talked. After State of the Unions, major votes, and important moments in our political history, Stu and I would talk on the phone. In fact, I vividly remember that it was Stu on the phone with me as the events of 9/11/2001 unfolded in Washington, D.C., and we were still talking as the Capitol Police told us to run out of the Cannon House Office Building.

Stu is much more than a reporter, much more than a columnist, and much more than an editor. He is a dedicated husband, beloved father and cherished community leader. It is an honor to consider him a friend, and I say that "on the record."

I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Mr. Stuart Frohm, a journalist, editor, and friend, and wishing him the best of luck in his retirement.

HONORING MARILYN M. MATHIS FOR HER SERVICE TO MURFREESBORO CITY SCHOOLS

HON. BART GORDON

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 30, 2009

Mr. GORDON of Tennessee. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Marilyn M. Mathis who is leaving Murfreesboro City Schools after 26 years of service to pursue a new phase in her distinguished career.

Marilyn joined City Schools in 1983 as the Assistant Superintendent for Administration under the leadership of School Director Dr. John Hodge Jones. After Dr. Jones' retirement in 1997, Marilyn was appointed Director of Schools.

During her 26 year tenure, Marilyn has seen the City School's student population nearly doubled. As Director, she has been influential in improving City Schools over the last 12 years.

Marilyn was determined to live up to the standards set by the No Child Left Behind Act and strived to make City Schools one of the top school districts in the state of Tennessee. She led the system by its mission statement: "to assure academic and personal success for each child."

Under Marilyn's leadership, City Schools added three new schools including the Bellwood-Bowdoin Preschool for more than 400 at-risk preschool students, and the opening of Scales and John Pittard Elementary Schools. She also established Bradley Academy as "An Arts Integrated School," the Discovery School for high achieving students at Reeves-Roger, and named Hobgood Elementary as a NASA Explorer School.

Marilyn also supported and participated in a public education foundation for Murfreesboro City Schools and created a partnership agreement with Middle Tennessee State University located in Murfreesboro.

Her legacy to City Schools will live on for years to come, and the students of Murfreesboro are better prepared for the future because of her hard work and dedication.

Thank you Marilyn. I wish you the best of luck in your new position as Executive Director of the Association for Independent and Municipal Schools.

IN HONOR OF MORT WEISBERG

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 30, 2009

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Mort Weisberg, recipient of the Jewish National Fund's Tree of Life Award.

The Tree of Life Award is one of the Jewish National Fund's highest honors; a humanitarian award given in recognition of outstanding community involvement, leadership and service. Furthermore, the award is a symbol of a strong and improved Israel and allegiance to American-Israeli friendship.

Mr. Weisberg is the president and chief executive of Multi-Care Management, a nursing home operator, in the Greater Cleveland area. In addition to running a successful care-taking facility, Mort is the chairman of the Ohio Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators. His active and generous participation in numerous Cleveland area charities further exhibit his commitment to the community.

Madam Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honor of Mort Weisberg for being presented the Tree of Life Award by the Jewish National Fund. I offer my congratulations to Mort as he is recognized for his service to the communities of Cleveland and dedication to a strong American-Israeli relationship.

STATEMENT COMMEMORATING THE INCEPTION OF REPRESENTATIONAL GOVERNMENT IN LYCIA

HON. MICHAEL E. McMAHON

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 30, 2009

Mr. McMAHON. Madam Speaker, many of us in this Chamber are familiar with the Roman and Greek fundamentals of our nation and our democracy. In addition to these two great nations and traditions a third cornerstone of democracy also existed in the Mediterranean of which our Founding Fathers also drew inspiration from.

There is a renewed effort by scholars to emphasize the link between our democracy and that of Patara, which was the capital of Lycia, an ancient civilization of democratic principles. The Lycian government, known as the Lycian League existed along Turkey's Mediterranean coast from roughly 167 BC until 400 AD, and served as an inspiration to the framers of the U.S. Constitution.

The Lycian League was the first democratic union in history to utilize proportional representation as a model for political organization.

At least twenty-three city-states were united under the League that presided over federal institutions. Depending on its size, each of the League's 23 city-states was eligible to send up to three representatives to the parliament
