

HONORING LOUIS HERING

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 18, 2010

Mr. STARK. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to one of the outstanding citizens of our nation's capital, Mr. Louis Hering. I would like to thank Mr. Hering for his extraordinary contributions to the cultural pursuits of his community during the two decades of his residence here and his five plus years of leadership and service to Washington, DC's very own Opera Lafayette.

On June 8, 2010, Opera Lafayette will be holding a Benefit Celebration at La Maison Francaise, Embassy of France, in Washington, DC. During this celebration, Mr. Hering will be honored for his exemplary leadership at the helm of this unique and critically acclaimed opera company. Opera Lafayette is an American period instrument ensemble dedicated to performing 17th and 18th century operas, particularly the French repertoire.

Mr. Hering served on the Board of Opera Lafayette for the last five years, the last three of which he served as Chairman. Under his leadership, the company moved its performance location to the Kennedy Center and also began performing at the Lincoln Center in New York City. In addition, four of the company's five recordings were released on the Naxos label (many never previously recorded). Due to the growth of the company, the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities and the National Endowment for the Arts are now awarding support to Opera Lafayette and its opera education program, which brings music and opera education to 5th grade students in disadvantaged DC neighborhoods.

This year, under Mr. Hering's leadership and as part of Opera Lafayette's 15th Anniversary Celebration, the company performed to sold out audiences in the 2,400 seat Concert Hall at the Kennedy Center and the 1,200 seat Rose Theater at the Lincoln Center. No seats were priced over $15 and many children in low income school districts attended for free, including many whom Mr. Hering personally sponsored. If that was not enough, the performances received rave reviews in both the Washington Post and New York Times.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in thanking Mr. Hering for his leadership and service on behalf of the arts community of our nation's capital and congratulating him for the honor being bestowed on him by Opera Lafayette on June 8, 2010.

HONORING CHARLES D. KIRKHAM, JR.

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 18, 2010

Ms. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON of Texas. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and work of a great Texan and dear friend, Mr. Charles D. Kirkham, Jr. who recently passed away at the age of 84.

Mr. Kirkham was a remarkable person who leaves behind a legacy of excellence and distinction. He led a passionate life that saw many unique events, and he worked diligently throughout his days to better himself and his family. I knew him to be a man that never bought into racial or gender bias, and instead admired people because of their character and sincerity. I send my deep condolences to his family for their loss, and my thoughts will be with them during this difficult time.

Mr. Kirkham was born on July 28, 1925, in Cleburn, Texas, to Charles D. Kirkham, Sr. and Mary Ellen Payne Kirkham. He graduated from Cleburn High School in 1943 and shortly thereafter he left for Europe to fight in World War II with the 94th Infantry Division. It was there that he performed heroic actions that garnered him a Purple Heart and a Unit Commendation Bronze Star. He returned to Texas after the war and received a degree from Texas A&M University in 1950 where he served as President of the Student Senate.

After completing his degree, Mr. Kirkham began a long and industrious career with Merrill Lynch where he worked for 45 years. He was a successful stock broker and made a name for himself that people still regard in high esteem today. He served in the Texas
