Stated for:

Mrs. NAPOLITANO. Mr. Speaker, I was absent during rollcall vote No. 356. Had I been present, I would have voted “yea” on the motion to suspend the rules and pass H. Res. 1409, Expressing support for designation of

REMEMBERING FLASH FLOOD VICTIMS

(Mr. ROSS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. ROSS. Mr. Speaker, in the early morning hours of Friday, June 11, a sudden and devastating flash flood swept through the Albert Pike campground in southwest Arkansas. In just 4 short hours, the Little Missouri River along the Ouachita National Forest rose from 3 feet to 23 feet.

The flood swept away tents, RVs and homes, and, tragically, took 20 lives, including many children, making it one of Arkansas’s deadliest flash floods in a generation. However, this tragedy’s impact is far-reaching, as many of the victims were from surrounding States, including from Congressman HALL’s district in Texas and from Congressman FLEMING’s district in Louisiana. They join me here this evening as we remember those who died in this flood.

I also want to commend the outstanding work of our first responders—local, State, Federal—and fellow Arkansans who reacted without hesitation and rescued literally dozens of people from the debris and rushing waters. This weekend, I, along with Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack, U.S. Forest Service Chief Tom Tidwell and Senators BLANCHE LINCOLN and MARK PRYOR, saw the devastation firsthand and spoke with families who lost loved ones.

My deepest thoughts and prayers and those of all Arkansans and all Americans are with the families who lost loved ones in these destructive flash floods.

Mr. Speaker, I join Congressman HALL and Congressman FLEMING in asking that the House now observe a moment of silence in remembrance of each and every life we lost in this tragedy.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members will rise and observe a moment of silence.
