

known throughout the department, and he was often approached by other officers seeking his insight, wisdom and expertise.

Beyond the job, his family was his foundation and his greatest love. His devotion to his wife, Dorothy, to his sons, Kevin and Alan, to his daughter Sandy, and to his grandchildren was unconditional and unwavering.

Madam Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honor and remembrance of Police Officer Emil Cielec, who lived life with great love and devotion to his family and to those he served. Officer Cielec's work made our Cleveland community a better place to live. He will be remembered and honored forever.

CONGRATULATING THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA ON THEIR
100TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. PETE SESSIONS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 22, 2010

Mr. SESSIONS. Madam Speaker, 2010 marks the 100th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, the largest youth organization in the United States. Since 1910, more than 111,000,000 youth have participated in Scouting programs focused on character development and leadership training.

This Sunday, July 25th, the Boy Scouts will kick-off their 100th Anniversary celebrations with a Grand Centennial Parade. Not since the very first Jamboree in 1937 has there been a Scout-specific parade in Washington, DC. There will be floats, marching bands, vintage vehicles, great entertainment, flags, fun and so much more. I am proud to join my father, former FBI Director Judge William S. Sessions, as a division marshal in this historic parade.

From July 26th to August 4th, the National Boy Scout Jamboree will be hosted at Fort A.P. Hill just south of Washington, DC. The Jamboree will host over 43,000 Scouts and adult leaders visiting from across the globe. This is the last year the Boy Scouts will celebrate its Jamboree at Fort A.P. Hill having procured a new high-adventure base, The Summit Bechtel Family National Scout Reserve, near Beckley, West Virginia. This new base covers 10,600 acres and is located adjacent to 70,000 acres of National Park Service land, offering world-class outdoor opportunities when it opens in 2013.

On Tuesday, July 27th, the Postal Service will host the first day of sale for a new 44 cent commemorative stamp entitled "Celebrate Scouting," made possible through bipartisan congressional support of over 300 Representatives and Senators. The stamp, unveiled in November of last year, will be dedicated by the Boy Scouts at the National Jamboree on Tuesday.

Additionally, the National Postal Museum will be hosting a Congressional Stamp Exhibit at the Rayburn House Office Building from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on July 28 and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on July 29/30. In collaboration with the Boy Scouts of America, I will be hosting an exhibit on the "2010 Celebrate Scouting" stamp.

As an additional token of celebration, I was proud to have introduced H.R. 5872, the Boy Scouts of American Centennial Commemorative Coin Act, which was signed into law by President George W. Bush on October 8, 2008. In accordance with the legislation, the United States Mint produced 350,000 Silver Dollar coins in celebration of the Boy Scouts centennial anniversary. Each having a $10 surcharge equally matched by private funds, this bill raised $7 million for Scouts in hard to serve areas. After only 12 short weeks these coins sold out, a remarkable success for spreading the joys of Scouting.

This Friday, I am proud to host 11 troops made up of over 500 Scouts from the Dallas area to Washington, DC. I have the pleasure of meeting them on their historic journey to the Jamboree, showing them through the Capitol, and providing them insight into the government of our nation. In this historic year, I ask everyone to join in the celebration of this monumental occasion, and congratulate the Boy Scouts of America on their centennial anniversary.

RECOGNIZING THE LIFE AND PUBLIC SERVICE OF ANTONIO L. "TONY" NUNES, SR.

HON. DEVIN NUNES

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 22, 2010

Mr. NUNES. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the life and public service of Antonio L. "Tony" Nunes, Sr., a life-long farmer and community leader.

Tony was born on August 16, 1915 in Rio Vista, California to Antonio and Mary Nunes. He graduated Adult School and obtained his high school diploma in 1983, 50 years after initially leaving high school due to the death of his father. Tony went into the dairy business with his brother Joe in 1943 in Pixley, California. His sons Tony, Jr. and Patrick entered the Nunes Brother Dairy Business in 1976. Tony retired in 1988 and moved to Tulare.

In addition to running the dairy, Tony was an active member of the community. He was on the Tulare District Hospital Foundation Board, a lifetime member of the Tulare Historical Society, a World Ag Expo volunteer, part of the Tulare County Fair Board for over 32 years, Tulare County Farmer of the Year in 1968, and Tulare Dairy Family of the Year in 1992. He was also an active member of the Roon Kiwanis Club, Tulare Cabrillo Civic Club, Mosquito Board, California Poling Review Board, and the Tulare City Planning Commission.

Tony loved life and traveled with his wife, Mary, to many parts of the world. He is survived by his wife of 72 years, six children, 14 grandchildren, and 17 great grand-children.

I knew Tony personally. He was a dedicated dairy farmer, and had a positive impact on all who knew him. His values and commitment to agriculture in the San Joaquin Valley will live on through his family and friends, and in the community he nobly served.

JOYCE ROGERS POST OFFICE BUILDING

SPEECH OF

HON. JOHN D. DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 20, 2010

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of H.R. 5341, legislation I have introduced on behalf of my friend and colleague from Michigan, Congressman MIKE ROGERS (MI-08). The bill would name the postal facility on Orndorff Drive in Brighton Michigan, the "Joyce Rogers Post Office Building."

Joyce Rogers, the late mother of Congressman MIKE ROGERS, passed away at her Brighton, Michigan home on November 4, 2009 at the age of 78.

Joyce Rogers was a long-time Brighton resident and a tireless public servant, devoting much of her time to the betterment and economic development of the Brighton community. As executive director of the Greater Brighton Area Chamber of Commerce, Joyce Rogers played an integral role in building the business organization into the area's most important political and business networking organization. Through her efforts, Brighton was transformed into a thriving business community, attracting new residents and customers to the area. In addition to being a small business advocate, Joyce Rogers always remembered her role as a leader, taking time to serve her community by acting as a mentor to Brighton women. She has left a lasting impression on the Brighton business community and imparted on her community the importance of public service.

Mr. Speaker, the Michigan delegation has thrown its support behind Congressman ROGERS. Every member of the delegation is an original cosponsor of H.R. 5341. I urge the rest of my House colleagues to show their support for Congressman ROGERS, whose mother accomplished much, both in the public sphere and in her private life as a devoted wife of 57 years and mother of three. I ask my colleagues to join me in supporting H.R. 5341.

TRIBUTE TO SENATOR PAUL
COVERDELL

HON. PHIL GINGREY

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, July 22, 2010

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to commemorate the late Paul Coverdell, the former United States Senator from Georgia, as Sunday marked the 10th anniversary of his death. Senator Coverdell was known to be a fair and honest statesman, and I always admired him for those traits along with his reputation for being a voice of reason in the Senate. Many of my colleagues from Georgia say that he wasn't a man of many words—but he always meant what he said and followed up on his promises.

Senator Coverdell was accomplished in his trade on many different levels. Before coming to the U.S. Senate, Paul spent 19 years representing the best interests of Georgians in the State Senate, where he served as the Minority Leader, and as the Chairman of the
