CONGRATULATING DR. NANCY DICKEY, A 2010 INDUCTEE INTO THE TEXAS WOMEN'S HALL OF FAME

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 14, 2010

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, today I rise to recognize and congratulate Dr. Nancy Dickey, who was selected to be a 2010 inductee into the Texas Women's Hall of Fame. I consider Dr. Dickey a great friend, dating back to our time together at the University of Texas Medical School in Houston, and very deserving of this honor, which recognizes the state's most accomplished women.

Dr. Dickey has long been a leader in Texas medicine, as well as nationwide, holding the distinction of being the only female president of the American Medical Association. As an AMA member and former alternate delegate, I greatly value her leadership.

In addition to the AMA, Dr. Dickey is active in the Texas Academy of Family Physicians, the Texas Medical Association, the American Academy of Family Physicians, and the National Patient Safety Foundation. She was appointed to chair the Texas Health Policy Council, chosen for membership in the Society for Executive Leadership in Academic Medicine, and selected to be a member of the Institute of Medicine, a component of the National Academy of Sciences.

Dr. Dickey's record of service in Texas medicine is long and distinguished. She is the founding program director of the Family Medicine Residency of the Brazos Valley, and created the Rural and Community Health Institute to address issues of patient safety and quality of care in rural Texas hospitals. In response to Texas' nursing shortage, Dr. Dickey oversaw the creation of a College of Nursing in Bryan/College Station, and chairs the Texas A&M System Council on Nursing, a statewide consortium of nursing programs designed to address the shortage. In 2001, Dr. Dickey was listed as one of America's "Best Doctors."

Dr. Dickey is president of the Texas A&M Health Science Center and vice chancellor for health affairs for the Texas A&M System. Previously, she served as dean of the Texas A&M Health Science Center College of Medicine, where she still serves as professor of family and community medicine.

During her tenure as president of Texas A&M Health Science Center—the University System's first female president—she has chaired the state's formula funding advisory committee, and advocated increased funding for health-related educational programs. As a result of her leadership, she helped establish the Irma Lerma Rangel College of Pharmacy in Kingsville, the first professional school in South Texas.

Madam Speaker, it is with great pride that I rise today to honor my good friend, Dr. Nancy Dickey, the newest member of the Texas Women's Hall of Fame. Her service to the state of Texas will be highlighted in a permanent exhibit honoring the inductees, which is housed inside Hubbard Hall on the campus of Texas Woman's University in Denton, Texas. Dr. Dickey has positively impacted countless lives in Texas and around the country, and paved the way for women to continue to make invaluable contributions to medicine.

VOTING RIGHTS ACT 45TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 14, 2010

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Madam Speaker, I rise today with a great sense of honor to commemorate the 45th anniversary of the enactment of the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Signed into law by President Lyndon Johnson on August 6, 1965, it is important for us as a group to honor this important piece of legislation that helped America fulfill its promise.

The Voting Rights Act of 1965 ensured that African Americans' 15th Amendment rights were protected and enforced. The 15th Amendment guarantees every American their right to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any other State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude. Before this piece of legislation was passed African Americans in many parts of the country were unable to exercise the most fundamental right of a democracy.

This historic piece of legislation was too meaningful to be forestalled by the habitual partisan fighting that has historically come to define Congress. The Voting Rights Act of 1965 passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 32 to 74 and the Senate by a vote of 79 to 18. These margins evidence the fact that the Voting Rights Act of 1965 was a bill that didn't just protect the rights of minorities in America, but helped the country heal past injustices and become closer to reaching the ultimate promise of ensuring equal freedom to all.

Although we have come a long way to ensuring the equal protection of rights of every single American, we must never stop fighting against the forces of hate and ignorance that exist. Much remains to be done before true equality can be found in both Northwest Indiana and America as a whole.

Madam Speaker, I ask that you and my other distinguished colleagues join me in commemorating the Voting Rights Act of 1965. When we feel like today's struggles for equality are too much to handle, we must take the time to look back on how far we have come and find the strength to fight on from the advances in freedom and liberty that have occurred in our not so distant past.

RECOGNITION OF THE TRI-VILLAGE LIONS CLUB ON ITS 60TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. MARY JO KILROY

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 14, 2010

Ms. KILROY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the Tri-Village Lions Club. On September 25, 2010, the Tri-Village Lions will celebrate the 60th anniversary of the founding of their club. The Tri-Village Lions Club provides an important service to the community by assisting the blind and diabetic residents of central Ohio. This mission is keeping with the challenge Helen Keller issued to the association in 1925 to become "knights of the blind in the crusade against darkness."

Founded in 1917, there are now approximately 45,000 Lions clubs in over 200 countries and geographical areas around the world. Under the motto "WE SERVE," the Tri-Village Lions Club was chartered on September 8, 1950, becoming the 8,448th club in an organization that now has 1.3 million members. The Tri-Village Lions Club encompasses the communities of Grandview Heights, Marble Cliff, and Upper Arlington.

Among many charitable services, the club conducts vision screenings, equips hospitals and clinics, distributes medicine, and raises awareness of eye disease. In 60 years of service, members of the club have raised more than $1.1 million that they have funneled directly into charities and offered countless hours of service to the Tri-Village community. The Lions Club also supports children and schools through scholarships, recreation programs, and mentoring.

I am pleased to recognize the Diamond Anniversary of the Tri-Village Lions and proclaim September as "WE SERVE" month in the state of Ohio. I would like to thank the Tri-Village Lions club for its dedicated volunteer work and commitment to ending preventable blindness worldwide. The club has worked hard to identify and address community needs in the Grandview, Marble Cliff, and Upper Arlington area.

I am filled with immense pride to recognize and proclaim September as "WE SERVE" month in honor of such a valued and noble organization within the Columbus area. The Tri-Village Lions Club has been an inspirational leader in the fight against preventable blindness and has proudly demonstrated an unwavering commitment to helping others.

HONORING FIVE MACON GEORGIA GREAT CITIZENS

HON. JIM MARSHALL

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 14, 2010

Mr. MARSHALL. Madam Speaker, it is my pleasure to rise today to honor five of Macon, Georgia's great citizens: R. Kirby Godsey, Robert F. Hatcher, the late William S. Hutchings, the late Charles H. Jones, and Juanita T. Jordan. Each has earned the respect and admiration of Central Georgians by building coalitions to improve communities and institutions throughout the State of Georgia.

Individually, these citizens of Georgia have accomplished great deeds. They have risen to the highest levels of their chosen professions and are held in the highest esteem by their colleagues and professional organizations. Each has contributed visionary leadership, perseverance and untold hours to civic and charitable endeavors.

These five individuals have also shared a love of their hometown, Macon, Georgia and a passion for improving the quality of life and
