

Whereas the Department of the Interior has issued less than 35 new shallow water permits since the shallow water moratorium was lifted and has failed to issue any new permits for deepwater exploration; and

Whereas as a result of the de facto moratorium, at least 12 rigs (shallow and deepwater) have departed the Gulf of Mexico, and more are expected to follow: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the Nation's economy and security depends upon full and immediate restoration of shallow and deepwater drilling operations in the Gulf of Mexico;

(2) the long term economic health of the State of Alaska depends upon the responsible development of the oil and natural gas reserves of the Beaufort and Chukchi Seas; and

(3) the Secretary of the Interior should—

(A) streamline the review and appropriate approval of applications for both shallow and deepwater drilling permits in the Outer Continental Shelf;

(B) take immediate action to provide the shallow and deepwater industry with a completed sample application which meets all of the new safety and environmental regulations for use as a template;

(C) provide written guidance and clarification to applicants regarding new safety requirements; and

(D) provide permit applicants with timely and detailed explanations on any areas of a permit which do not satisfy new requirements.
