

seven 20+ win seasons. He took the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament six times with the 1991–1992 team led by Hardaway going to the Elite Eight. At the end of his coaching career, Larry Finch had a 220–130 coaching record and was named University of Memphis’ “all-time winningest coach,” a title he still holds today. In 2000, the University of Memphis dedicated a world-class practice facility in his honor—the Larry O. Finch Center.

Larry loved playing against Louisville as either a player or a coach. He was proud of besting the Louisville Cardinals 16 out of 27 times throughout his basketball career. His 1987 Metro Conference Championship win over Louisville in Freedom Hall was perhaps his most memorable meeting against Louisville. The Tigers won that game 75–52, beating the Cardinals for the third time. The Tigers ended that season 26–8 and Finch was named Basketball Times Rookie Coach of the Year.

Larry was loved by many in the Memphis community. After suffering from a stroke in 2002, those close to him created the Friends of Larry Finch Foundation to help cover medical expenses. In 2006, the Foundation released a tribute CD called “Eye of the Tiger: A Tribute to Larry Finch.” It featured songs by Memphis performers Al Green, The Bar-Kays, Gary Johns, John Kilzer and Al Kapone.

Larry Finch passed away on April 2, 2011 at the young age of 60. He will be missed by many in Memphis including two of his closest friends, Leonard Draper and Randy Wade, the many players whose lives he touched and hundreds of fans across Memphis and the Nation. He is survived by his wife Vickie, his daughter Shanae Deon Finch and two sons, Larry Finch, Jr. and James Finch. He is also survived by his sister, Gloria Finch, and four brothers, Barry, Gary, Greg and Ronald Finch. Larry Finch was predeceased by two beloved younger sisters, Gail and Gwendolyn Finch. Larry was a great American and we are lucky he came this way for the people of Memphis and our Nation. His was a life well lived.

HONORING SAM HANNA ON THE OCCASION OF HIS RETIREMENT

HON. MIKE PENCE

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 6, 2011

Mr. PENCE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the long and storied career of Sam Hanna. Sam is not only a friend, but a man whom I greatly admire.

Sam has strength of character and a true servant’s heart in his community. After graduating from Anderson High school, he went on to receive a degree in Administration of Criminal Justice from Anderson University and then graduated from the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy. He is a member of the Madison Park Church of God, and coached football in the Anderson community for thirty years. Never one to sit on the sidelines, Sam has boldly answered the call of duty even in the face of danger.

In 1978 Sam was shot six times in the line of duty—in the face, chest, and arm. Yet even after that tragedy, Sam remained dedicated to public service and only recently retired after 37 years of service with the Madison County Sheriff’s Department.

Those who know Sam and worked with him on the sheriff’s department recognize him for his dedication to helping others and willingness to do whatever it takes. He served selflessly day after day, and received the distinguished “Law Enforcement Officer of the Year” award five times. I know that his integrity and commitment to the cause will forever be an example to those who serve after him.

Though Sam has officially retired from the Madison County Sheriff’s Department, he continues to serve as Investigator of Senior Protective Services for the Prosecutor of Madison County. He is a dedicated husband of more than thirty years to his bride Lori, and the father of three sons—Kris, Matt, and Andrew.

Today I honor Sam’s legacy of service, and wish to express my sincere gratitude for his leadership. I am grateful for his friendship and look forward to his continued community impact. He is truly an inspiration.

HONORING BILL SAMUELS, JR.

HON. GEOFF DAVIS

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 6, 2011

Mr. DAVIS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the career of Mr. Bill Samuels, Jr. After 40 years of working for his family’s company, Bill is retiring as President of Maker’s Mark Distillery in Loretto, Kentucky to become the company’s Chairman Emeritus.

As the seventh generation in a long line of Kentucky bourbon makers, Bill took over the family business in 1980. Through clever marketing and an unwavering commitment to the tradition and quality of his bourbon, he was able to make the company a global icon. In 1980, the Maker’s Mark Distillery became the first distillery in the country to be designated a National Historic Landmark.

All Kentuckians can be proud of the work that Bill has done to grow a family business into a successful brand. In doing so, he has represented and shared part of the spirit of the Commonwealth across the country and around the world.

I thank Bill for his contributions to Kentucky and our community and wish him the best of luck in his new endeavors. I ask my colleagues in the House of Representatives to join me in recognizing Bill’s significant accomplishments.
