

with Alexandra Fedorovna and the Great Duchess Elizaveta Fedorovna, the wife of Great Duke Sergei Alexandrovich assassinated by a terrorist.

They were all from the European royal families, German, Danish.

Where does this tradition come from? Why? In the end, it did not bring prosperity to the Russian royal family, or the country.

Many interesting unknown data that slightly changed my opinions about the Northern States for the better. Thank you.

P.S. I would like to visit the Federal Archives to see more documents about it.

Thank you very much for the exhibition! As soon as I heard about it, I wanted to come and see it at once. I was not disappointed. I learnt a lot of new things. And I not only learnt but also felt of these two heroes as human beings. I felt that they lived not a long time ago, next to us. It turns out that even czars thought of people. I was surprised to find out that the Manifesto was being prepared by a whole team. It was not just a gesture. Thank you for bringing history alive.

Pokrovskaya

I attended the ceremonial opening of this remarkable exhibition in February, but resolved to return to visit it again to be able to spend as much time as possible examining the priceless exhibits and documents that have been collected here in one place. My sincere congratulations to the Russian and American organizers and curators, whose cooperation in this is a contemporary illustration of the spirit of common cause that the relationship between Lincoln and Aleksander exemplified. All of this is an inspiration to me in my daily work to forge a more constructive and productive relationship between our two great nations.

RECOGNIZING PALMYRA STATE BANK

• Mr. KOHL. Mr. President, I wish to recognize the 100th anniversary of Palmyra State Bank. I am honored to have the opportunity to celebrate this extraordinary milestone.

The Bank of Palmyra, founded in 1893, was the first lending institution to be established in the town of Palmyra, followed soon after by the chartering of the Farmers State Bank in 1911. In 1931, following the turmoil of the Great Depression, the town's two banks merged to form the Palmyra State Bank.

For over a century, Palmyra State Bank has dedicated itself to providing its customers with the highest quality banking services. As a locally owned institution, Palmyra State Bank has been a tremendous asset in helping promote economic growth throughout the community and the region. Even in the face of today's difficult economic times, Palmyra State Bank continues to flourish and has achieved a well-earned reputation for providing their customers with financial security and highly personalized service.

As you know, I have long held both personal and professional admiration for independent banks that are focused on strengthening communities in both the best and worst economic times. For more than 100 years, Palmyra State Bank has done just that and embodied the importance of building strong local connections.

It is for this commitment to providing every customer with the highest quality banking services, and for this bank's crucial role in community development, that I am proud to recognize 100 years of service that Palmyra State Bank has provided to the people of the State of Wisconsin.●

REMEMBERING GOVERNOR ALBERT D. ROSELLINI

• Mrs. MURRAY. Mr. President, I would like to pay tribute to a great American Governor, dedicated public servant, and community leader from the State of Washington, Governor Albert D. Rosellini.

Governor Rosellini has the kind of classic American story that so many of us can tell about our parents and grandparents. The son of Italian immigrants, he was born Jan. 21, 1910, in Tacoma, WA. His father, Giovanni, opened a saloon but was forced to close it during Prohibition. The family then moved to Seattle's Rainier Valley.

Rosellini was a graduate of the University of Washington law school in the early 1930s and was hired by King County prosecutor Warren G. Magnuson. He was elected to the State senate in 1938 and served for 18 years, during which time he championed the creation of the medical and dental schools at the University of Washington.

Rosellini was elected Governor of Washington in 1956 and reelected in 1960. His first term has been praised as one of the most effective and progressive in our State's history. In particular, he was credited with improving conditions in State prisons, mental hospitals, and juvenile homes. Rosellini fought for more modern facilities, training of staff members, jobs for inmates, and forestry camps for low-risk offenders. He also helped push for the creation of the SR 520 floating bridge across Lake Washington, from Seattle to Medina, WA, that bears his name today.

Governor Rosellini passed away on October 10, 2011, in Seattle at the age of 101. Rosellini's wife of 64 years, the former Ethel McNeil, passed away in 2002. Survivors include five children and 15 grandchildren. He will be missed dearly.

In addition to his many years serving the people of Washington State, Governor Rosellini also used his time and energy to mentor a new generation that wanted to get involved in government. He was one of the first supporters in my corner when I got into politics, and I know there are countless others across our State who benefitted from his advice and support over the years.

While the legacy Governor Rosellini leaves will be forever engrained in the State he loved so much, it will also be preserved through the men and women he boosted and supported who will continue building on his great work for Washington State families and communities.

I would like to ask my colleagues to join me in paying homage to Governor Albert D. Rosellini. He lived a long and full life and the people of Washington State will always be indebted to him for his role in shaping the future of our State. Our thoughts are with his loved ones at this time of great loss.●
