

Bulldogs. After their third appearance in a Class 1–A title game in four years, the Bulldogs tenaciously took the field with experience, heart and determination, earning every yard to lead them to a well-deserved victory and their first-ever State Championship.

The Hazard Bulldogs defeated a tough team from Mayfield, winning 24–6. More than five thousand fans filled the Houchens Smith Stadium in Bowling Green, Kentucky to witness these focused young men put their athletic ability and knowledge of the game to the highest test. Redeeming themselves from last year's 47–6 loss to Mayfield, the Bulldogs dominated the majority of the game and put an end to Mayfield's state-best 29-game winning streak. Holding the Cardinals to just 237 yards offensively, the Hazard Bulldogs forced five Mayfield turnovers and sealed their victory with an interception returned for a touchdown in the last two minutes of the game.

This season, Coach Mark Dixon led the Bulldogs to a near perfect 12–2 season. Despite defeat in last year's title game, the Bulldogs persevered and came back this season with unwavering determination to bring the state title home to the mountains of eastern Kentucky. These experiences and life lessons learned on the field will be carried on after the game and continue to shape these football players into men of promise and outstanding character.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Coach Dixon and the Hazard High School 2011 Football Team as the KHSAA Class 1–A State Champions. This team has successfully carried on a sports tradition of pride in the mountains and I wish them all the best in the years to come.

A TRIBUTE TO ELIZABETH
CROSLAND

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 7, 2011

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Ms. Elizabeth Crosland for her commitment to her community and for her service to the children of Brooklyn as a Family Assistant with PS 13.

Ms. Crosland was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to the late William T. and Annie Lee Pinchback. She was the eldest of five siblings, and later moved to Brooklyn, New York.

Ms. Crosland has been employed with the Department of Education at PS 13 as a Family Assistant for 24 years. During her years of service, she has enjoyed working with the administrators, her colleagues, and the students. Ms. Crosland prays everyday that she will empower the lives of the students and their families to become productive citizens in the community.

Ms. Crosland attends the Mount Lebanon Baptist Church on the Hill in Bedford Stuyvesant, where she has been a member for 74 years. She is active on the usher board, serving the needs of the congregation. She also sings in the Robert A. Laws Millennium Choir and was a member of the Allstate Club.

Ms. Crosland is an Honorary past Matron in the order of the Maria Chapter #18 Order of Eastern Stars. She has also been a great contributor to the community by working with the district leaders and working the primary and general election polls for many years.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to recognize Ms. Elizabeth Crosland for her exceptional service to her district as a dedicated member of her local religious and government institutions, and as a long serving employee of the Department of Education.

RECOGNIZING THE NOVEMBER 25,
2011 DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS OF MOROCCO

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 7, 2011

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I congratulate the people of Morocco for the free and fair Parliamentary election that took place on November 25, 2011. Participation rates were 20 percent higher than the previous election held in 2007. The Justice and Development Party (PJD), a moderate Islamist party, secured the largest number of seats in the new Parliament. Morocco's King Mohammed VI, in line with the new constitution, has already tasked the leader of the PJD, as Head of Government, to form a new coalition government. This election marks the first time the Moroccan people have gone to the polls within the framework of the new constitution. With this election, Morocco has crossed yet another major milestone in its democratic progress. I extend my warm wishes to the King of Morocco for his leadership and the Moroccan people for their achievements so far and hope they continue on the path of reform and progress.

A TRIBUTE TO DEACON AUDREY
WRIGHT

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 7, 2011

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Deacon Audrey Wright who has dedicated her life to the teachings of Jesus Christ, and to her family, colleagues, and community.

Deacon Wright was born to Anna Mae King-Gordon and Mitchell Gordon in Princeton, West Virginia where her parents regularly attended Golden Gate Church. With her strong convictions, Deacon Wright completed high school in a very segregated district of West Virginia, and soon relocated to Brooklyn, New York to complete her undergraduate studies at Medgar Evers College.

Later in life Deacon Wright spent 25 years as an assistant teacher in the Ocean Hill Section of Brooklyn before retiring. Prior to teaching, Deacon Wright was employed by Abraham Strauss for several years in the sales department. After retiring as an assistant teacher, she turned to the Lord and became a member at Berean Baptist Church.

Joining Berean Baptist Church in 1994, she worked as a volunteer with children in the "Time Release Program" for seven years. At Berean, Deacon Wright was ordained on December 13, 1998 and continued her deep involvement with the church. She became a member of the First Lady's Ministry and served as the Deacon Advisor as well as the Spiritual Advisor to the Hospitality Ministry. Presently, she is a member of the Deacon Ministry, Pastoral Care Ministry, the Sunday School Ministry and the Sisterhood Ministry.

Several of her hobbies include writing, reading and exercising. During her tenure at Berean, Deacon Wright wrote and directed seven plays; two of which were performed to raise funds for Women's Day and five others that were written to raise funds for the church. In addition to being an avid reader and writer, Deacon Wright has been dedicated to her health and exercise—walking two miles every day.

Deacon Wright is married to Samuel Wright, and has been blessed with three sons—Bobby, David, and Dominic. She is thankful for God in her life, and gives thanks to the Lord every day for loving and caring for her.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me in recognizing the life and accomplishments of Deacon Audrey Wright.

HONORING DR. EDWARD WAITE
MILLER

HON. LYNN C. WOOLSEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 7, 2011

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise in sadness today to honor my friend, Dr. Edward Waite Miller, who passed away October 27, 2011, at the age of 92. He was a prominent surgeon and writer in Marin County, California, as well as a loving family man.

Born in Oyster Bay, New York, in 1919, Dr. Miller studied at Union College in Schenectady and at Cornell Medical School with an internship at Boston City Hospital. He then served at the US Naval Hospital in Corpus Christi and in the South Pacific during WWII. He was awarded the American Theatre, Asiatic-Pacific, and Victory Medals. Reactivated in 1953, his service varied from making training films in the California desert to witnessing nuclear testing at the Bikini Atoll. He then received the Korean Service, United Nations, and National Defense Medals.

Dr. Miller also had a distinguished medical career. While working as a research fellow at the Cleveland Clinic with Dr. Willem Kolff in the 1950s, he published some seminal studies on the angiography of the heart that led to research in the new practice of coronary bypass surgery. He later worked as a surgeon in Mann General Hospital in Greenbrae, CA, and Children's Hospital in San Francisco, CA, and as a physician at Novato Community Hospital in Novato, CA.

In retirement Dr. Miller became well known in the community and around the world for his writing in the Coastal Post newspaper, a Mann County publication that gave him free rein to speak out on issues he was passionate about. From advocacy for peace and human rights to his sometimes controversial pro-Palestinian stance, he penned opinion pieces that reflected his deeply held beliefs and his great knowledge of world events.

I had many conversations with Ed Miller about these issues, and, although I sometimes didn't agree with him, I always enjoyed our time together and appreciated his commitment
