

Still the emails back and forth continued . . . Less than a week before she died, she was answering emails. "How are you?" she would ask. "How was the party?" "What do you think of Michele Bachmann?" From March to her death on August I never once heard her sob. I never once heard her complain. Or question her fate. When her son, asked in a moment of intimacy, if she was afraid, she said "no" and repeated what a wonderful life she'd had. Peter and Angela were with her until the end. Thank heaven, she was never in pain. As she lay in bed, looking frail but beautiful, Peter held one of her hands, Angela the other. She knew they were with her.

I am telling you all this because Casey not only taught us how to live. She taught us how to die.

After her death, they found a secret stash of cigarettes. Those damn cigarettes.

Oh my darling Casey, there isn't one of us in this sacred room whose life you haven't touched, not one who didn't love you. How could we not?•

TRIBUTE TO NORA WALSH HUSSEY

• Mr. THUNE. Mr. President, today I would like to take this opportunity to honor Nora Walsh Hussey of Sturgis, SD.

Nora has spent countless hours serving her community through a variety of organizations and activities. Nora has been an active participant in Promoting Educational Opportunities, PEO, an organization where women celebrate advancement through achievements in educational opportunities. She has also spent a significant amount of time volunteering as a Court Appointed Special Advocate, CASA, which supports abused and neglected children. While Nora spends the majority of her time volunteering for various organizations in the community, she also enjoys participating in bridge clubs, golfing, and cruising.

Nora's achievements are not limited to her work on behalf of South Dakotans. In 1981, Nora was confirmed by the U.S. Senate to become the first non-Coloradan to supervise the Denver Mint. While supervising the mint, Nora was acknowledged by many employees for her exemplary service.

I want to join Nora's family and friends in recognizing her more than 50 years of community service and celebrating her 97th birthday on March 26, 2012. I extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to Nora for all she has done for her fellow South Dakotans and wish her continued success in years to come. •
