 Notes: The average annual growth rate over the 2004–2013 period encompasses growth in outlays from the amount recorded in 2003 through the amount projected for 2013. Data on spending for benefit programs in this table exclude administrative costs that are classified as discretionary but generally include administrative costs classified as mandatory. SNAP = Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program; n.a. = not applicable.
^a = between zero and $500 million.
^b The average annual growth rate reflects the program's growth from its inception in 2006 through 2013.
^c Includes Temporary Assistance for Needy Families and various programs that involve payments to states for child support enforcement and family support, child care entitlements, and research to benefit children.
^d Includes mandatory spending designed to reduce the discretionary budget authority needed to support the maximum award level set in the appropriation act plus mandatory spending that, by formula, increases the total maximum award above the amount set in the appropriation act.
^e Does not include offsetting receipts. List provided by House Budget Committee based on CBO's most recent Budget and Economic Outlook
