

The success of his football program is not only shown in the number of wins, but also in the great team of coaches he has assembled. These coaches help instill in their players life-long skills for success with many graduating with high honors, playing college football, and becoming leaders in their communities.

Shaffer will spend his retirement from coaching watching his two youngest sons' college athletics and continuing to teach Physical Education at Truckee High School.

It is my privilege to rise today in recognition of Coach Shaffer's accomplishments in the continuation of the Truckee Football tradition.

A TRIBUTE TO PASTOR AND FIRST LADY BOBBY YOUNG

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 19, 2013

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and honor Pastor Bobby Young and First Lady Eva Young of the Mount Hebron Missionary Baptist Church in Des Moines, Iowa as the congregation celebrates the 11th

Pastoral Anniversary of the couple's driven and selfless leadership next month.

Pastor Young and his wife were both born in Batesville, Mississippi. The couple married in 1963 and began fulfilling their purpose in life as a team. Together, they moved to Iowa at just 19 years of age, started a family, and at age 30, Bobby accepted his call to the ministry, never looking back.

At Mount Hebron, Pastor and First Lady Young have immersed themselves in serving their congregation and local community. Pastor Young is involved with numerous initiatives to change lives for the better, including feeding programs and continuing education with teenagers in the area to decrease dropout rates and help forge stronger lives. Pastor Young's uncompromising commitment to his brothers and sisters is continually on display, often meeting with local leaders of all political persuasions to help find solutions to problems facing the community. Pastor Young is currently building his own house from the ground up, as he has also built up an entire spiritual community. It is his hands-on approach that has helped improve the lives of Iowans around him.

Much like her husband, First Lady Young plays an enormously important role in her church and community, and has touched countless lives through her work as an instructor and a mentor. A former teacher, Eva has taught a weekly children's Bible study open to any child for many years. She also uses her gifts as a leader to advocate for a safer world for others, working in the community to address problems facing women and help women receive relevant information and assistance. First Lady Young's all-inclusive approach to this work has brought together women of all ages and races to help strengthen the community.

So selfless is this couple that they are known to pay the bills of those who cannot afford it and feed those who cannot find food. Bobby and Eva are truly committed to helping their neighbors.

Throughout the past 11 years at Mount Hebron, Pastor and First Lady Young have provided immeasurable guidance and comfort to a grateful community. I am honored to represent this amazing couple, Mount Hebron Missionary Baptist Church, and the city of Des Moines in the United States Congress. I invite my colleagues in the House to join me in congratulating and thanking Pastor and First Lady Young for all they do, and I wish them a truly memorable Pastoral Anniversary.
