

jumping up upon them to death to cheat!
 As it was one for all,
 and all for one!
 You go. . . I go!
 A band of brothers so willing to die and bleed!
 Who upon each other so relied,
 the need!
 For they were some of America's greatest ones!
 Whose families are our Nation's quiet heroes
 and heroines!
 As no new day is so promised to anyone!
 And on 9/11 as their day begun,
 just like all those others, had each one. . .
 For on this day of days they all stood Staten Island Strong!
 As each and everyone could so be counted on!
 Armed but with such Gotham Hearts,
 to which belonged!
 As why now up in Heaven they are Angels all among!
 To watch over us from dust to dawn!
 Rescue 5 and these Fire Fighters,
 up on a pedestal so belong!
 "GO TOGETHER, STAY TOGETHER"
 Just like a Psalm!
 As you rushed up while others rushed down!
 As you rushed in while others rushed out!
 While, the face of death you stared down!
 With each new most heroic step,
 closer to Heaven your soul was swept!
 As you gave all,
 That Last Full Measure,
 would accept!
 So many heroes from that Island died that day!
 Standing Staten Island Strong in every way,
 as all of their fine lives they gave!
 Heroes come all in such shapes and sizes!
 But it's what's within their hearts which so comprises!
 Who they are!
 That which so lives on bright like a star!
 And for all of those families,
 Husbands and Wives who now so weep!
 And for all of those children without Mom's
 and Dad's,
 whose pain now mounts so ever deep!
 And all of those Brothers and Sisters,
 who in your arms your best friends can't keep!
 Could we just as your loved ones such courage speak?
 To a place where only hearts of courage beat!
 And be Stand Staten Island Strong,
 as once had all of these!
 And as you lay your heads down to rest, to sleep!
 In Staten Island there comes a gentle rain,
 so very deep. . .
 As it's your loved ones tears,
 from up in Heaven to so ease. . .
 To so ease your pain as you weep. . .
 Until one fine day up Heaven you'll all so meet. . .
 And you won't have to cry no more!
 So hush little baby don't you cry,
 one day up in Heaven you will look into your parent's eyes!
 And you will hear them on the wind,
 and when you wake feel them again and again. . .
 And remember my child,
 on the day you were born,
 their greatest wish so formed. . .
 Was for you to have a happy life,
 to live on...
 So make your parents dreams come true,
 and somehow carry on. . .
 Goodness!
 Evil!
 Darkness!
 Light!
 Those brave hearts who evil must fight!
 Who bring their light!
 Were but all of those who fought that fight!

Who Stood Staten Island Strong with all their might!
 And in the shadow of America's Liberty. . .
 All in this The Empire State for all to
 see. . .
 But lies such a magnificent community. . .
 An island who out to all hearts now so speaks!
 That which stands even stronger this day indeed!
 All because of them, these!
 Who so showed us all how to so live and die,
 and how to grieve!
 As they Stood Staten Island Strong,
 for their families and what they believed!
 For We Will Never Forget,
 Never.., all of these!
 And The Greatest Strength,
 all within a heart so beats!
 All in this most heroic community,
 which sits in the shadow of Liberty!
 Amen!

HONORING AALIYAH COLE

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 11, 2013

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Ms. Aaliyah Cole, a dedicated student, who is making a difference
 in her community.

On a crisp winter day in December of 1994,
 Aaliyah Cole was born to Biven and Beatrice Cole. She grew quickly both physically and intellectually. At the age of two, she was able to read children's books on her own. In September of 1999, her little brother, Biven Cole Jr., was born. They grew together as siblings and companions. As a young girl she began to set her sights high on accomplishing things bigger than herself. She was motivated, determined, and driven to make a difference and dream big.

Throughout her years in school, Aaliyah has maintained exceptional academic records backed by outstanding leadership roles and giving dynamic service to her community. In the second grade, she wanted to be the Valedictorian of her graduating class and she accomplished that. She has held three state officer positions—State President, State Secretary, and State Treasurer—in the Technology Student Association and she is also the current chairman of her high school yearbook committee. She received several leadership awards for her leadership abilities.

Aaliyah has served her community, since she was a little girl, whether it was recycling plastics and aluminums, hosting voter registration drives, or visiting the community nursing home, she has always found urgency in making a difference in the world and in people's lives.

In March of 2011, Aaliyah launched her very own organization by the name of Team
 M.A.W.M.A.C. (Make a Wave, Make a Change), an organization designed to raise awareness about the many things that plague communities around the world. With this organization, she held a Teens for Jeans drive which helped her school to collect 152 pairs of blue jeans to donate to homeless teens around the world. They also plan to cultivate her school flower beds on Earth Day this April, 2013.

Upon completing high school, Aaliyah plans
 to further pursue her dream of making a difference by attending either the University of Southern Mississippi or Xavier University of Louisiana. There she will pursue a degree in Biochemistry/Pre-Medicine, to later attend medical school and become a licensed Pediatric Neurologist. She also plans to open her own private practice. During her career, she plans to help rebuild the Jefferson County community by renovating their schools and seek businesses to invest the area. She also dreams about creating a scholarship program

 that will give African American students in underprivileged communities like her hometown greater funds to assist students with paying for college.

Aaliyah likes to live by this motto: "When you have big dreams don't listen to what nobody says that is trying to turn you away.
 When you have big dreams, keep your eyes
 on the prize and don't fall by the wayside;
 reach for the sky."

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing a talented student, Ms. Aaliyah Cole, for her zeal in actively making a difference in her community.
