

To bring hailing down upon our enemy, such a most magnificent deadly force all at light speeds!
 And if I were King,
 I'd be an American Hero from who freedom
 so breathes . . .
 All with that is so inside of me!
 And so live by such a creed,
 and so march off to war to such places where angels so fear to be!
 To so say what must so be said!
 To do what must so be done!
 If I were King!
 I'd so sing what must so be sung!
 If I were King
 I'd be a United States Ranger . . .
 Who would so laugh at danger . . .
 Who mountains can so climb!
 All for love of country so sublime!
 For only the few can so say!
 That they so wear that beret . . .
 Who with all of my most courageous Brothers
 In Arms,
 have so watched our Brother's blood so run
 as they died that day!
 With tears in eyes as their fine lives are now
 so done,
 as he'd kneel and pray!
 And if were King,
 as an Airborne Ranger over evil I would so reign!
 For Rangers lead in all things!
 And if I were King,
 all for God and Country I would have so bled!
 For in history Rangers have always led!
 As its life and death in what is said!
 And if I were King,
 I would have given up my two strong legs,
 as from out of the darkness armed but with only my courage and faith!
 To so awake from such harm!
 As my tears so brake,
 as my heart so tells me to somehow move on!
 As with each new day,
 I must wade through such pain and heartache formed . . .
 With the help of a great wife Khieda who stands by her man so very warm!

And my two beautiful daughters Amari and Khamya,
 who lovingly call out my name each morning
 If I were King!
 And though my task is great . . .
 These new giant steps I would now so take . . .
 For time for no man so waits . . .
 And pity will only weak hearts so create!
 So wipe all of your tears away . . .
 As I stand here much more than a man on this very day!
 As my strides have gotten stronger and much more great!
 Look at me,
 because I'm Airborne as it's up out ahead
 you'll find me leading the way!
 To So Teach You!
 To So Beseech You!
 To So Reach You and All Of Your Hearts
 This Day!
 As Hero I was not trying to be,
 but this is what my Lord God has so made me . . .
 So get out of my way!
 For I've got mountains to so climb!
 And hearts to so heal all in my time!
 And I've got Blue Skies up ahead of me . . .
 When, I go back home to my most beloved Carolina someday!
 If I were King how proud I would so be . . .
 In life,
 most people never reach so high!
 And jump so heroically from the skies!
 Who are Rangers who are Airborne,
 all so selflessly to so live and die!
 And so live by such a heroic creed,
 ith but such tears in eyes!
 And so bury their dead up on high!
 For its far . . . far better to live a noble life . . .
 Than, just to do the ride!
 Better, to give up your strong fine legs . . .
 Then, in the end so wish somehow better choices you had made!
 And die with such regret as you so ask yourself,

what did I do all in my life?
 For I'd much rather live like a King, and know that my life had meaning in every way!
 Then die just marking time day after day!
 If I were King!
 I'd hold my head up high until my dying
 days!
 Knowing full well,
 what to this world I gave!
 For in life,
 only a few Kings so lead the way!
 If I were King,
 heaven would me await.

NATIONAL DAY OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA, COMMONLY KNOWN AS TAIWAN

HON. BILL SHUSTER

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 10, 2013

Mr. SHUSTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the National Day of the Republic of China, commonly known as Taiwan. National Day commemorates the beginning of the Wuchang Uprising in 1911, which led to the establishment of Taiwan.

Taiwan has been a friend of the United States and a shining example of democracy in the Asian-Pacific Region. They share our values and respect for human rights, freedom, and a market-based economy. Taiwan is a key trading partner and trusted ally. The relationship between our two countries continues to grow along with the cultural and economic benefits it creates.

I am pleased to recognize Taiwan's National Day and voice my support for our nations' continued friendship.
