

Adams Sr., an outstanding, colorful and very successful attorney who is known far and wide. This was a position which she held until she retired. Mrs. Faulkner was a great cook and actively involved with church and the community in which she lived.

I am indeed proud of the fact that I was able to know and represent individuals and groups of people like the Faulkner family whose heritage is so closely aligned with mine that I feel a great sense of personal kinship.

Bless you Mrs. Lucille Faulkner and may your soul rest in peace.

RECOGNIZING THE TEACHERS OF
PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS RECEIVING CERTIFICATION
FROM THE NATIONAL BOARD FOR PROFESSIONAL TEACHING STANDARDS

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 13, 2014

Mr. CONNOLLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize the Prince William County Public Schools teachers who recently received certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards. The National Board is an independent nonprofit organization governed by classroom teachers, school administrators, school board leaders, governors, state legislators, higher education officials, teacher union leaders, and business and community leaders.

The teachers have met the standards established by the National Board and have undergone a rigorous application process that required they demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and accomplishments that comprise teaching excellence. A Board Certified teacher supports a vision of teaching based on the following five core principles:

1. Teachers are committed to students and their learning;
2. Teachers know the subjects they teach and how to teach those subjects to students;
3. Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning;
4. Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience; and
5. Teachers are members of learning communities.

I would like to extend my personal congratulations to the following National Board Certified Teachers for receiving their respective certifications.

Salome Atkins—Battlefield High School (Renewal), Kellie Bernal—Gravelly Elementary School, Nicole Boissiere—Rosa Parks Elementary School, Sara Bosse—Pennington Traditional, Frantzie Cadet—Vaughan Elementary School, Carla Drew—Osborn Park High School, Kristina Ferrell—Osborn Park High School, Donna Garziona—Loch Lomond Elementary School, Erin Hart—Nokesville Elementary School, Mya Hatfield—Marumscos Hills Elementary School, Kelly Haynes—Ashland Elementary School, Anne Hicock—Woodbridge Middle School, Shana Higginbotham—Triangle Elementary School, Marjorie Lathers—Triangle Elementary School.

Nicholas Maneno—Old Bridge Elementary School (Renewal), Bridget Mathwin—Coles Elementary School, Courtney McDonald—Bull

Run Middle School, Melissa Miller—Ashland Elementary School, Janell Mills—Featherstone Elementary School, Stephanie Richards—Tyler Elementary School, Melanie Riley—Signal Hill Elementary School, Teresa Shaffstall—Loch Lomond Elementary School, Carla Shaw—Glenkirk Elementary School, Katherine Sherman—Rosa Parks Elementary School, Jayne Sherman—Occoquan Elementary School, Margaret Stout—Antietam Elementary School, Kelle Stroud—Buckland Mills Elementary School, Tammy Vice—River Oaks Elementary School.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in commending these teachers for their commitment to education and professional development. Prince William County Public Schools delivers a world class education thanks to the tireless efforts of teachers who make excellence the standard.

HONORING STANLEY “SCOTT”
ANDERSON

HON. JASON T. SMITH

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 13, 2014

Mr. SMITH of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Stanley “Scott” Anderson, who has been a valuable asset to the Cape Girardeau County for over 29 years through his work with the Sheriff’s Office as the Maintenance Supervisor. Scott has shown his commitment to the Sheriff’s Office by working 29 years on the day-to-day maintenance operations such as vehicle maintenance, equipment maintenance and by learning new advanced information systems to secure the continued operations of the heating/cooling systems of the two-building complex of the Sheriff’s Office and Jail. By taking care of inventory, ordering, stocking and securing the most economical solutions for supplies, he enabled the day-to-day operations of the Sheriff’s Office. Scott has always upheld a professional standard when working with the public, fellow employees, outside agencies and office holders. Scott always provided jokes and stories to anyone that would listen and kept the work day lively.

It is with sincere respect and deep appreciation that I recognize and thank Scott for his loyalty and many years of dedicated commitment to Cape Girardeau County and the Sheriff’s Office. I wish him health and happiness in his future endeavors and in his retirement. He will be truly missed. I am grateful that we have such caring, hardworking members of the Cape Girardeau community; it is my pleasure to recognize his achievements before the House of Representatives.

A COMMEMORATION OF U.S.
MARINE SGT. LANCE DAVISON

HON. ANN KIRKPATRICK

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 13, 2014

Mrs. KIRKPATRICK. Mr. Speaker, Lance Clinton Davison was born on January 8, 1979, the first son of John and Desbah Davison.

In Navajo tradition, Lance is of the Hasht’ishnii Clan and born for Bilagaana.

Lance was raised in Flagstaff, Arizona, and graduated from Flagstaff High School in 1997. Upon graduation, Lance joined the U.S. Marine Corps, where he excelled and became an especially accomplished marksman and scout/sniper.

Immediately following the tragedy of Sept. 11, 2001, Lance was deployed to Afghanistan for duty in the 3rd Battalion 23rd Marines 1st Marine Division, for which he received several medals and commendations, including the Bronze Star and Purple Heart.

Like so many veterans, Lance not only served his country but he came home and helped strengthen his own community. He became a police officer with the Flagstaff Police Department and founded Raven2 O.D.G., a disabled veteran-owned business that provides enhanced training for SOCOM Operatives and agency professionals with precision marksmanship skills.

Lance’s dedication to his country and community was surpassed only by his dedication to and love for his son, Korben. Lance was a true hero.

American poet Thomas William Parsons once wrote about the men and women who sacrificed for our country: “On thy grave, the rain shall fall from the eyes of a mighty nation.”

Sgt. Lance Davison, a valiant Marine and devoted father, is one of the reasons our nation is mighty.

We remember, honor and mourn him—Lance left us far too soon.

Lance and all of our veterans deserve a community and a country that stand up for our soldiers when they come home. These men and women have served honorably, but they may also struggle mightily.

For years, I’ve kept a quote on my desk—it was given to me by a veteran, and it says: “Because they have already paid the price, fight for veterans with all of your might.”

Fight for veterans with all of your might. This is how we will honor Lance.

MAC HOPPER

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 13, 2014

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Mac Hopper for receiving the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. Mac Hopper is a 7th grader at Mandalay Middle School and received this award because his determination and hard work have allowed him to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Mac Hopper is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Mac Hopper for winning the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of his future accomplishments.
