

HOW BOUT DEM DAWGS—IN TRIB-UTE TO SPECIALIST SAMUEL
ISAAC WALLEY OF THE 82ND AIRBORNE

HON. ROB WOODALL

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2014

Mr. WOODALL. Mr. Speaker, the following poem was written by Bert Caswell to honor a great Georgian, Specialist Samuel Isaac Walley of the United States Army's 82nd Airborne Division, who nearly lost his life defending our nation in Afghanistan.

HOW BOUT DEM DAWGS
(By Albert Carey Caswell)

How . . .
How bout dem Dawgs!
And from that Great Georgian State, have but come all of those Freedom Fighters and Patriots whose hearts await . . .
So await that call!
Men like a King among men,
Dr. King who the cause of Freedom his life would take!
And all of those magnificents who so go off
to war!
Freedom Fighters whose hearts so chose to go Airborne,
to fight the fight our hearts adore!
Who so hear that most noble of all calls . . .
That call to freedom and to death!
Who this our Nation do so bless!
Who just like them Georgia Bull Dawgs, are so very tenacious!
Who so live and die by such a code,
and do not ask why as they so bear the load!
And in any battle . . .
And in any fight . . .
There are but all of those men of faith who bring their light!
Who are but such Men of Might!
Men of Strength In Honor who all those wrongs they right!
Men who all for us are but Airborne this night!
Who jump high out of planes,
all in the dark and light!
Who throughout all the darkness of war battle bright!
Yea, these are Bull Dawgs . . .
who all for God and Country fine hearts ignite!
As all of those wrongs they right!
As these are the Men of The 82nd Airborne, who but bring their light!
Who have so helped win all those wars with their might!
Dropping from up in the skies,
as this force of nature is so on the rise!
As all for country tis of thee,
these brave hearts are so willing to lay down their lives!
The Bull Dawgs who fight the fight!
Who stand tall in all their light!
And one such man,
a true Son of the South!
Who is a Georgia Bull Dawg throughout!
Now that's what Samuel is all about!
Rouuuughhhh . . . Rouuuughhhh as his heart pounds loud!
And when you meet SPC Walley,
you've met a real American hero no doubt!
For it was while out on patrol,
when we almost lost this brave soul . . .
As he stepped on an IED,
while moments away from death was he!
But Bull Dawgs do not run,
and Bull Dawgs do not hide!
As this fine man cheated death to somehow reach deep down inside . . .
As he so wiped away all of those tears from his eyes!

As he chose life,
as this Bull Dawgs heart went Airborne on the rise!
Watching his courage,
the Angels too up in Heaven cried!
As his heart went Airborne and began to climb!
His climb to recovery!
Going Airborne reaching for the skies!
You see,
this young man from Georgia has got a life
to lead!
And so many people To So Teach!
And so many people To So Reach!
And so many souls To Beseech!
And so many people To Inspire, making all hearts Airborne bringing them higher!
For he leads and does not follow!
As high above all of the rest he so towers!
Throughout all of that heartache and pain
throughout the hours!
Yes arms and legs we all need,
but we can get by!
But, without a heart like Samuel's we will all so surely die!
And that's all that Samuel so needs to get by!
Because pity is a town where he does not reside!
As this Bull Dawg fights the fight!
As his courage brings smiles to faces bright!
How bout that Dawg,
who so marches on with all his might!
As he's the kind of soldier,
that General Lee would have been proud with him to ride!
And when his recovery is done,
its going to be hard to keep with this one!
Because The Army he's staying in my son!
Because, this Man Is Away Strong!
And to them this Hero's Heart does so belong!
And for that good old U.S. Army beats loud and long!
Because in a uniform is where this Bull
Dawg belongs!
And if you looked up the word's "Bull Dawg"
in the dictionary . . .
You'd see a picture of Walley in uniform looking quite fierce and scary!
As an American who makes us all so proud to be!
And if ever I had a son,
Dawg gone it I wish that he could be half as strong as this one!
And How About That Dog!
Georgia Bred and Georgia born!
And get on your knees,
and give thanks to all of these who so fight
on!
Rouuuughhhh . . . Rouuuughhhh!
Samuel, How About That Dog!

RECOGNIZING THE
CONTRIBUTIONS OF BOB POE

HON. ALAN GRAYSON

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2014

Mr. GRAYSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Pride Month, to recognize Bob Poe. Bob is a successful entrepreneur, accomplished artist, and longtime political operative.
Throughout his adult life, Bob has been involved in nearly every aspect of the political arena: at age 26, he ran for the Florida Senate; he was Chairman of the Florida Democratic Party in the 2000 and 2002 election cycles; and in 2012, he was Central Florida Finance Chair for the Obama campaign. He has also raised money for many other federal, state, and local campaigns. Currently, Bob serves as Chairman of Charlie Crist for Florida—the national fundraising Political Committee supporting Charlie Crist for Governor.

Bob has been in business for nearly 30 years, managing strategic planning and implementation for several start-up companies in a variety of business segments. He has held various positions in the broadcasting industry and is probably best known for his innovative achievements at WMMO (FM), which was recognized by Billboard Magazine as Radio Station of the Year in 1991. He was also a part of the management team that started the Orlando Magic, Central Florida's NBA franchise.

Most recently, Bob was President of Emergency Communications Network, Inc. (ECN)—the nation's leader in critical communications infrastructure allowing municipal governments to rapidly communicate with their residents in times of emergencies. Bob and his business partners sold ECN in 2011.

Due to his background in creative fields and his drive to discover and imaginatively use innovative products, Bob began experimenting with iPhone photography as soon as it came on the market in 2007. His spontaneous and thought-provoking photographs sparked interest from collectors and gained him international recognition for his groundbreaking art.

Bob and his partner, Ken Brown, live in Orlando, Florida and Beverly Hills, California.

I am happy to honor Bob Poe, during LGBT Pride Month, for his contributions to the Central Florida community.

INTRODUCTION OF THE PROTECT
STUDENTS FROM FAILING INSTI-TUTIONS ACT

HON. JANICE HAHN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. HAHN. Mr. Speaker, this past January, students attending a local for-profit college, Career Colleges of America (CCA), in my district showed up to class only to find the doors of their school locked. CCA's longtime financial troubles had finally overcome the business and it was forced to close, abandoning its students and faculty.

The result was a nightmare for the over 800 students enrolled at the three CCA branches in Southern California. Many of these students are low-income and had taken out up to $30,000 in federal loans and Pell Grants to put toward an education they thought would lead to a career in the health care industry. These students were working to better themselves, but through no fault of their own are now saddled with a financial headache and no degree to show for it.

Unfortunately, stories like this are not unique. We have seen this happen before in which irresponsible institutions take advantage of their students, aiming to profit off of them rather than educate them, and upon closure, leave their students in financial ruin. More often than not, credits cannot transfer and these students are forced to start over completely at a new institution.

There are steps we can take to make these students whole again. Fortunately, many of
