POM-295. A resolution adopted by the Council of the City of Upland, California, urging the California congressional delegation to support postal reform that would: secure the continuance of 6-day mail delivery; stabilize the Postal Service’s finances by reforming or eliminating future retiree health financing policies that are crippling the Postal Service’s finances; strengthen and protect the Postal Service’s invaluable mail processing, retail, and last-mile delivery networks that together comprise a crucial part of the nation’s infrastructure; retain door-to-door delivery for 30 million plus households and businesses; to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs.

POM-296. A resolution adopted by the Council of the City of Redlands, California, urging the California congressional delegation to support postal reform that would: secure the continuance of 6-day mail delivery; stabilize the Postal Service’s finances by reforming or eliminating future retiree health financing policies that are hindering the Postal Service’s finances and growth opportunities; strengthen and protect the Postal Service’s invaluable mail processing, retail, and last-mile delivery networks that together comprise a crucial part of the nation’s infrastructure; retain door-to-door delivery for 30 million plus households and businesses; to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs.

POM-297. A resolution approved by the Electors of the City of Lake Mills, Wisconsin, supporting the passage of an amendment to the United States Constitution stating: only human beings—not corporations, limited liability companies, unions, non-profit organizations, or similar associations and corporate entities—are endowed with Constitutional rights, and spending money is not speech protected by the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and, therefore, regulating political contributions and spending is not equivalent to limiting political speech; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

POM-298. A resolution adopted by the City Commission of Miami, Florida, urging the President of the United States and members of the Congress of the United States to grant temporary protective status to Venezuelans living in the United States and to suspend any further deportations of unauthorized Venezuelan individuals with no serious criminal history, to extend Deferred Action to all eligible undocumented members of Venezuelan immigrant families, to end the firing of Venezuelan undocumented workers by ending the I-9 audits and the use of E-Verify System, and to encourage the Secretary of Homeland Security to approve TPS for Venezuelans whose immigration status has expired; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

POM-299. A resolution adopted by the City Council of Big Spring, Texas, calling upon the Texas congressional delegation to affirm the rights of citizens under the Second Amendment and that all federal acts, laws, executive orders, agency orders, and rules or regulations of any kind that confiscate any firearm, ban any firearm, limit the size of a magazine for any firearm, impose any limit on the ammunition that may be purchased for any firearm, special taxation on any firearm or ammunition, or require the registration of any firearm or ammunition therefore, infringes upon the right to bear arms in direct violation of the Second Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

POM-300. A resolution approved by the Electors of the Town of Waterloo, Wisconsin, supporting the passage of an amendment to the United States Constitution stating: only human beings—not corporations, unions, limited liability companies, non-profit organizations, or similar associations and corporate entities—are endowed with Constitutional rights, and money is not speech, and therefore regulating political contributions and spending is not equivalent to limiting political speech; to the Committee on the Judiciary.
