The House met at 2 p.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. Rooney of Florida).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE
The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC, February 8, 2016.

I hereby appoint the Honorable Thomas J. Rooney to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

PAUL D. RYAN,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE
The SPEAKER pro tempore led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE
The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Clerk of the House of Representatives:

OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
WASHINGTON, DC, February 8, 2016.

Hon. Paul D. Ryan,
Speaker, House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Pursuant to the permission granted in Clause 2(h) of Rule II of the Rules of the U.S. House of Representatives, the Clerk received the following message from the Secretary of the Senate on February 8, 2016 at 1:17 p.m.:

Appointments:
4254. A letter from the Director, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Department of Agriculture, transmitting the Department’s final rule — Importation of Orchids in Growing Media From Taiwan [Docket No.: APHIS-2014-0041] (RIN: 0775-AE01) received February 5, 2016, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 801(a)(1)(A); Added by Public Law 104-121, Sec. 251; (110 Stat. 868); to the Committee on Agriculture. 4295. A letter from the Director, Regulations Policy and Management Staff, FDA, Department of Health and Human Services, transmitting the Department’s final rule — Current Good Manufacturing Practice, Hazard Analysis, and Risk-Based Preventive Controls for Human Food; Technical Amendment [Docket No.: FDA-2011-N-0920] (RIN: 0910-AG36) received February 5, 2016, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 801(a)(1)(A); Added by Public Law 104-121, Sec. 251; (110 Stat. 868); to the Committee on Energy and Commerce.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.
Under clause 2 of rule XIV, executive communications were taken from the Speaker’s table and referred as follows:

BILLS PRESENTED TO THE PRESIDENT
Karen L. Haas, Clerk of the House, reported that on February 4, 2016, she presented to the President of the United States, for his approval, the following bills:

H.R. 515. To protect children and others from sexual abuse and exploitation, including sex trafficking and sex tourism, by providing advance notice of intended travel by registered sex offenders outside the United States to the government of the country of destination, requesting foreign governments to notify the United States when a known sex offender is seeking to enter the United States, and for other purposes.

H.R. 4188. To authorize appropriations for the Coast Guard for fiscal years 2016 and 2017, and for other purposes.

ADJOURNMENT
The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the House stands adjourned until noon tomorrow for morning-hour debate.

There was no objection. Thereupon (at 2 o’clock and 3 minutes p.m.), under its previous order, the House adjourned until tomorrow, Tuesday, February 9, 2016, at noon for morning-hour debate.

Karen L. Haas,
Clerk of the House of Representatives.

PETITIONS, ETC.
Under clause 3 of rule XII,
45. The SPEAKER presented a petition of Mr. Gregory D. Watson, a citizen of Austin, TX, relative to urging Congress to propose, for ratification by special conventions held within the individual states, an amendment to the United States Constitution which would establish a procedure by which members of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate may be involuntarily removed from office by means of a recall election; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.
The Senate met at 2 p.m. and was called to order by the President pro tempore (Mr. HATCH).

PRAYER
The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:
Let us pray.
Precious Lord, always faithful and always true, use our lawmakers today as ambassadors of reconciliation and renewal. Open their minds to the counsel of Your eternal wisdom as You fill them with Your peace. Lord, increase their hunger and thirst for right living and lead them nearer to You. As they seek to be agents of Your peace, help them to honor You both in spirit and deeds. Inspire them to reach decisions based on truth, wisdom, compassion, and fairness for all.

Watch over, O God, and care for the men and women in our military, surrounding them with the shield of Your protection and favor.

We pray in Your mighty Name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE
The President pro tempore led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:
I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

RECOGNITION OF THE MINORITY LEADER
The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mrs. CAPITO). The Democratic leader is recognized.

ZIKA VIRUS
Mr. REID. Madam President, I was encouraged this morning to hear that President Obama is aggressively responding to the Zika virus. Anyone who has heard the news about this terrible mosquito bite over the last several weeks has heard about the spread of Zika. This virus is primarily spread by mosquitoes in Central America, South America, the Caribbean, and the Pacific islands. Zika has been linked to birth defects in children, as well as other health problems. To date, there have been no confirmed cases of Americans getting Zika from mosquitoes in the continental United States, but we must not lower our guard. Instead, we must take action.

The President has taken action, and I appreciate that very much. That is why last week the entire Senate Democratic caucus sent a letter to President Obama urging quick action responding to the Zika virus. To his credit, that is exactly what President Obama has done. Today the President announced that he is asking Congress for $1.8 billion to combat the outbreak. This funding will, among other things, further research of the virus and a potential vaccine; improve mosquito control methods here at home; create rapid-response teams in the United States; enhance treatment for those who are infected; help deploy prevention and education strategies to key populations, including pregnant women and their partners; support international aid activities in affected areas; and train health care workers in affected countries.

It is critical that we approve the funds now, immediately, and give our government the resources it needs to fight the virus. We also need to make sure our Nation’s response to the virus includes increasing access to contraceptives for women in Zika-affected regions—for those who choose to use them.

We in the Congress must follow President Obama’s direction and aggressively combat Zika. So I call on my colleagues to support this important funding.

I have been called to the White House tomorrow afternoon at the same time the Republican leader has called a briefing on the Zika virus. I am going to send staff to that meeting. I can’t be at the White House and that briefing at the same time, but I will get a thorough, detailed account of what takes place at that briefing. I appreciate Senator McCONNELL arranging that meeting, and I apologize for not being able to be there.

AFFORDABLE CARE ACT
Mr. REID. Madam President, last week marked the end of an open enrollment for the health exchanges created by the Affordable Care Act. The numbers are in, and once again millions of Americans signed up for quality health care. Normally—it is normal now, and each year it keeps going up—nationally almost 13 million Americans selected their plans through health insurance marketplaces. In Nevada, almost 90,000 people enrolled in Nevada’s health exchange. That represents a 20-percent increase over 2015 enrollment numbers.

These numbers are further evidence that the Affordable Care Act—ObamaCare—is working. The law is helping Americans get access to quality health care, many for the first time in their entire lives. That is why it is particularly frustrating to watch Republicans continue banging their heads when it comes to ObamaCare. Last Tuesday—Groundhog Day, fittingly—House Republicans voted for the 63rd time to repeal or undermine the Affordable Care Act. That is 63 times House Republicans have ignored all the evidence that proves the Affordable Care Act is helping their constituents.

It seems as if every day my friend the Republican leader comes to the floor and rails against ObamaCare. He has led Senate Republicans in voting to repeal or defund the Affordable Care Act 17 different times. Yet more than 10 percent of the Republican leader’s own constituents are benefiting from the Affordable Care Act. Madam President, 500,000 Kentucky residents use ObamaCare—half a million people.

Last week an Associated Press article highlighted the fact that Kentucky has seen the largest drop in the percentage of its uninsured. I will read from the AP story:

Kentucky and Arkansas had the largest drops in the percentage of people without health insurance in the country, according to the Gallup-Healthways survey. In 2013, more than 30 percent of Kentuckians did not have health insurance. By the end of 2015, after the State expanded its Medicaid program and created a health-insurance exchange, that figure had dropped down to 7.5 percent.

There it is in black and white. In 2013, 20 percent of Kentuckians didn’t have health insurance, and now it is down to 7.5 percent. That is a remarkably strong decrease of the uninsured. If my friend the Republican leader had his way and repealed ObamaCare, all progress in Kentucky would be gone.

Sadly, Kentucky’s tea party Gov- ernor is following in Senator McCON- nell’s footsteps. Gov. Matt Bevin wants to tear apart his State’s health exchange, regardless of the impact on his constituents. I will read again from the AP article:

Bevin, a Republican, has already given the order to dismantle Kynect, Kentucky’s state-based exchange. And he plans to repeal Kentucky’s Medicaid expansion and replace it with something else that [would] mean fewer people would be eligible and the ones who stay eligible would have to pay a small premium. If he has the approval of the fed- eral government to do that. If he does not get it, Bevin has said he would repeal the expansion entirely.

It is time for Republicans to accept the fact that ObamaCare is here to stay. It is not going anywhere. Once and for all, it has moved past repeal. Start making the Affordable Care Act work even better for the American people.

RECOGNITION OF THE MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The ma- jority leader is recognized.

ZIKA VIRUS

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, I recently asked Secretary Burwell to come to the Senate to brief committee chairs, ranking members, and leaders in both parties on the administration’s response to the Zika virus. I appreciate her team working with us to schedule that briefing for tomorrow. Here are the two areas in which we want to get an understanding at the briefing:

No. 1, what preparations are being made to protect Americans?

No. 2, what are the administration’s funding priorities given limited Fed- eral resources?

Concern about the Zika virus is growing in our country, and protecting constituents, especially children, from a communicable disease is a high prior- ity for all of us. I am looking forward to hearing more tomorrow about both the administration’s proposed response and its priorities for combatting this disease.

ENERGY POLICY MODERNIZATION BILL

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, the legislation currently before us—the Energy Policy Modernization Act—is the product of a year’s worth of con- structive and collaborative work. In the Energy Committee, it passed over- whelmingly with the support of both parties. Here it has been subject to an open amendment process, with input from both sides. More than 30 amendments from both Democrats and Republicans have already been adopted. The Senator from Alaska re- cently sought consent to continue that progress by getting several more amendments pending. It is unclear why any colleague would object to her ef- fort or why they would effectively block consideration of their own amendments, but that is what happened. It is disappointing for our country.

We are hoping our friends will recon- sider. Remember, the Energy Policy Modernization Act is broad bipartisan legislation designed to help Americans produce more energy, pay less for en- ergy, and save energy, all while helping strengthen our long-term national se-urity. We should pass it.

I am asking colleagues to take yes for an answer and allow the open amendment process to continue so that we can pass it, which is so important to helping our country prepare for the energy demands of today and the en- ergy opportunities of tomorrow.

RESERVATION OF LEADER TIME

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the leadership time is reserved.

MORNING BUSINESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will be in a period of morning business until 5 p.m., with Senators permitted to speak therein for up to 10 minutes each.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Madam President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. NELSON. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

HEEDING HURRICANE WARNINGS

Mr. NELSON. Madam President, hur- ricanes can be deadly. We are accus- tomed to them in Florida. They are part of our lifestyle. We know enough about hurricanes and the ferociously and strength of Mother Nature to know that when a hurricane starts bearing down, you better be prepared, and that is especially so with regard to boats. Hurricanes cause giant-sized waves and strong winds that make it impossible to navigate a boat. So when the fore- cast calls for a hurricane, boats ought to get out of the way.

Sadly, last year the El Faro, a cargo vessel that sailed from Jacksonville to Puerto Rico and back, along with its cargo, sailed right into the hurri- cane off the Bahamas. As a result, the last call to shore, although the cap- tain’s voice was calm, was to report that they had lost power and were therefore listing, which meant that something had breached and water was coming into the ship. That was the last we heard from the captain. We now know that that ship is 5 miles below the surface of the Atlantic, on the eastern side of the Bahama Islands. Thirty-three people lost their lives, and a number of whom were from the Jackson- ville, FL, area. The National Transporta- tion Safety Board is conducting an investigation, and the question is whether or not they are going to put down another U.S. Navy submersible so they can continue their search for the recorder that would give them the complete data from the ship.

I am bringing this up again because the very same thing almost happened yesterday, only this time a 4,000-pas- senger cruise ship, sailing from the New York area to Port Canaveral, FL, and then on to other destinations in the Caribbean, sailed right into a hur- ricane that had winds topping 100 miles per hour.

I wish I had a blowup of the image of these hurricanes to show the Senate. Yesterday’s storm was right off the coast of North and South Carolina. When these two images are compared side by side, we can see how yester- day’s storm is similar to Hurricane Is- abel. They look menacingly similar. The thing about yesterday’s storm is that it was forecasted for days. So why in the world would a cruise ship with thousands of passengers on it go sailing right into it?

Some of the passengers have made comments, including Robert Huschka, executive editor of the Detroit Free Press, who was a passenger on the cruise. He said: ‘‘I am not going to lie. It was truly terrorizing’’.

Passengers talked about how the water was coming into the upper decks. The pictures that were taken by the passengers on the ship speak for them- selves. I am sure there was a courage- ous crew on board, but the question is: Why, after what happened to the El Faro last year, did it sail into the storm? Even if they were surprised by the change of the direction of the storm, which is what happened with the hurricane last year, why in the world would a cruise ship sail so close to where the hurricane could be, par- ticularly as the storm starts to cross the warm waters of the Gulf Stream, and, therefore, gets all the more fuel for the counterclockwise rotation of the winds from the warm water?
February 8, 2016

I want the National Transportation Safety Board, over which the Senate Commerce Committee has some jurisdiction—which I have the privilege of being the ranking member—to come up with a quick report.

Now, thank goodness, that so far only four passengers were reported injured and no one was killed. That ship is now returning to port back in the New York area. Thank goodness there was not much damage, and that it is seaworthy. But the question is, When there is a storm brewing, why are mistakes made just like what happened to the El Faro? Before it left the Port of Jacksonville, they knew that a hurricane was coming.

We need to know what happened in this case as well so we can prevent these kinds of accidents that could be so tragic in the future.

The Senate Commerce Committee has oversight of the National Transportation Safety Board, and I want them to come up with answers very quickly and make an admonition to Americans that when a storm is brewing, you don't go out of port.

I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. Cassidy). The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. ISAkSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. COATS). Without objection, it is so ordered.

CONCLUSION OF MORNING BUSINESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Morning business is now closed.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

The EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will proceed to executive session to consider the following nomination, which the clerk will report:

The legislative clerk read the nomination of Rebecca Goodgame Ebinger, of Iowa, to be United States District Judge for the Southern District of Iowa.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, there will now be 30 minutes of debate equally divided in the usual form.

The Senator from Georgia.

Mr. ISAkSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to speak as in morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

TRIBUTE TO RICHARD ANDERSON

Mr. ISAkSON. Mr. President, on Friday of last week as I was getting ready to leave to go home to the State of Georgia, the United States of America, and the aviation industry received notice that Richard Anderson, CEO of Delta Airlines, will retire after a career of over 25 years in the aviation industry, but in particular a great career at Delta in the past two decades. I rise to memorialize on the floor of the Senate how much my State and the aviation industry owes to Richard Anderson.

Richard took over Delta at a very critical time. In fact, Delta was in desperate straits. Because of his work at Delta, he revitalized the culture of the company, he revitalized the aviation industry in Georgia, and he made it a market for all of us to be proud of. In fact, in 1 year, 2 years ago, Delta was one of the 50 most admired companies in the United States of America and led the world in terms of aviation as stated by Aviation Magazine, but most importantly Richard Anderson came to Washington, D.C., and the aviation industry was in trouble. He was then with Northwest. Delta was having difficulties. He worked with the U.S. Senate, worked with the Finance Committee, worked with me, Mike Enzi, and others to reform the pension performance act of 2005, and change the way pensions were calculated in order to save the pensions of Delta Airlines and many other airlines in the United States of America. His hands-on effort to revitalize that company led to the greatest prosperity in the history of 2016, and the most prosperous decade it had in the last 10 years.

So as he announces he is leaving Delta Airlines and the aviation industry for other things to do, I want to, on the floor of the Senate, commend him for all he has done to make Delta Airlines in the State of Georgia great, all he has done for the aviation industry, and all he has done for the economy of the greatest country on the face of this Earth—the United States of America.

I yield back the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, today the Senate will vote on the nomination of Judge Ebinger from Iowa. I am very pleased to be here to support her and to urge all my colleagues to also support her nomination.

I am very happy to work with my colleague Senator Ernst and I have done to fill the vacancies in Iowa’s district courts by putting forward two exceptionally talented and qualified nominees, Judges Ebinger and Strand. I said this in committee, but for the benefit of all Members of the Senate, the Iowa nominees are two of the best judicial candidates the President has nominated during his Presidency.

To fill the vacancies in Iowa, I set up a Judicial Selection Committee and invited all interested Iowa lawyers to apply. The applicants were vetted by highly qualified members of the Iowa legal community. After spending hundreds of hours reviewing the applications, the Commission interviewed all 39 applicants. Eleven candidates of the thirty-nine were then selected for a lengthy second round of interviews. At the end of the process, the Commission sent their recommendations to me. In consultation with the fellow Iowa Senator, I was proud to recommend Judges Strand and Ebinger to the White House. Judges Strand and Ebinger have the highest credentials and character and will serve the State of Iowa with honor and with distinction.

I would like to say a little bit more about Judge Ebinger because she is the one of the two we are voting on today. Judge Ebinger received her undergraduate degree in 1997 from George-town University School of Foreign Service and her law degree from Yale Law School in 2004. She then served as a special assistant U.S. attorney in the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the Northern District of Iowa in Cedar Rapids. There, she prosecuted criminal cases involving narcotics, firearms offenses, and violent crimes. She then clerked for Judge Michael Melloy on the Eighth Circuit for 2 years, also in Cedar Rapids, IA.

Following her clerkship, she moved to the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of Iowa as an assistant U.S. attorney. During this time, her practice shifted primarily to white-collar crime. She also handled intake for all child support enforcement cases and sex offender registry violations.

Judge Ebinger received a number of awards for her work with the U.S. Attorney’s Office. In 2012, she was appointed to serve as a district judge in Iowa State court and was retained as a district judge in the 2014 election. As a State court judge, she presided over a great deal of general jurisdiction, handling civil law and equity, criminal, and family court proceedings. She has presided over 40 cases that have gone to verdict or trial.

Judge Ebinger is a highly qualified, well-respected judge already, and I urge my colleagues to support her nomination today.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, today we will vote on the nomination of Rebecca Ebinger to fill a judicial vacancy in the Federal district court in the southern district of Iowa.

Ms. Ebinger is a highly qualified nominee who has devoted her legal career to public service. Since 2012, she has served as a district judge in Iowa State court. Prior to joining the bench, Judge Ebinger served as a prosecutor at the Federal and State levels in Iowa, including in the U.S. attorney’s offices for the southern and northern districts of Iowa. During her tenure as a Federal prosecutor, she was the lead attorney on cases involving violent crimes against women. Judge Ebinger has the strong support of her home State Senators, Chairman Grassley of the Judiciary Committee and Senator Ernst.
With her qualifications, I can understand why Chairman Grassley recommended her to the President for this nomination. What I cannot understand is why moneyed Washington interest groups are calling on Republican Senators to oppose confirmation of any judicial nominee, regardless of nominee’s merit or qualifications. Judicial nominees like Judge Ebinger have worked hard to build admirable legal careers that have put them at the top of their profession. When judicial nominees submit themselves to the nominations process, they do so expecting and deserving to be considered by Senators exercising their own independent judgment.

Judicial nominees not only deserve our independent and considered judgment, it is our constitutional obligation as Senators to provide it. The duty to provide advice and consent on the President’s nominees is our own and cannot be abdicated to Washington political action committees. This is especially true when such political action committees are advocating that we turn our backs on the American people by completely shutting down the judicial confirmation process.

Too many Americans who have sought justice in our Federal courts since last year have instead found delays and empty courtrooms because of Senate Republicans’ obstruction on judicial nominations. Over the course of last year, Senate Republicans allowed confirmation votes on just 11 judicial nominees—and judicial vacancies soared across the country. When Senate Republicans took over the majority in January of last year, there were 43 judicial vacancies. Since then, vacancies have dramatically increased to 77—an increase of more than 75 percent. Furthermore, the number of judicial vacancies deemed to be “emergencies” by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts because caseloads in those courts are unmanageably high has nearly tripled under Republican Senate leadership—from 12 when Republicans took over last year to 32 today. Refusing to confirm any judicial nominees for the rest of this year would make the high number of vacancies in our Federal judiciary even worse.

In addition to the vote on Judge Ebinger’s confirmation today, we have agreed to allow a full week of debate and questioning of the nominees by the fruit of the floor. In 2008, when I was chairman of the committee with a Republican President, we worked to confirm judicial nominees as late as September of the Presidential election year. In fact, Senate Democrats helped ensure confirmation of the President’s judicial nominees in a single day under unanimous consent on September 26, 2008. This was similarly true in 2004, when I was ranking member of the committee with a Republican President, and we worked to confirm nominees as late as September of the Presidential election year.

There are 19 judicial nominees awaiting confirmation on the Senate floor. The number of nominees pending when we return from the President’s Day recess will be Waverly Crenshaw, an exceptional African-American district court nominee from Tennessee who has the support of his Republican home State Senators, Senators Alexander and Corker. I hope the Senators from Tennessee will be able to convince their majority leader to schedule the Tennessee nominee’s vote to occur this month. This is an emergency judicial vacancy in their State, so it is clear that this position is sorely needed for Tennesseans to receive swift justice in the middle district of Tennessee.

I urge my fellow Senators to vote to confirm Judge Ebinger and look forward to working with my fellow Senators to ensure timely confirmation of the other judicial nominees pending before the Senate.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I yield back time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, all time is yielded back.

The question is, Will the Senate advise and consent to the Ebinger nomination?

Mr. GRASSLEY. For the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There appears to be a sufficient second.

The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. CORNYN. The following Senators are necessarily absent: the Senator from Missouri (Mr. BLUNT), the Senator from Arkansas (Mr. COTTON), the Senator from Texas (Mr. CRUZ), the Senator from South Dakota (Mr. GRAMM), the Senator from Nevada (Mr. HELLER), the Senator from Wisconsin (Mr. JOHNSON), the Senator from Arizona (Mr. MCCAIN), the Senator from Florida (Mr. RUBIO), the Senator from Nebraska (Mr. Sasse), the Senator from North Carolina (Mr. TILLIS), the Senator from Pennsylvania (Mr. TOOMEY), the Senator from Louisiana (Mr. VITTER), and the Senator from Mississippi (Mr. WICKER).

Mr. DURBIN. I announce that the Senator from California (Mrs. BOXER), the Senator from Vermont (Mr. SANDERS), the Senator from New Hampshire (Mrs. SHAHEEN), and the Senator from Rhode Island (Mr. WHITEHOUSE) are necessarily absent.

The result was announced—yeas 83, nays 0, as follows:

[ call for Vote No. 18 EX. ]

YEAS—83

The nomination was confirmed. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the President will be immediately notified of the Senate’s action.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will resume legislative session.

The majority leader is recognized.

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate be in a period of morning business, with Senators permitted to speak therein for up to 10 minutes each.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Minnesota.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUESTS—EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

Ms. KLOBUCHAR. Mr. President, I rise today for the fifth time to ask unanimous consent for a vote for the Ambassador to Norway and Sweden. Ambassador Cruz has been objecting to this. I appreciate the bipartisan support for these nominees. They made it through the committees without any objections.

These are the 11th and 12th biggest investors in the United States of America. They are our allies. They are our allies in our fight against Russian aggression. Norway shares a border with Russia. Yet every major European country has an ambassador except Norway and Sweden.

I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to executive session to consider the nomination of Samuel D. Heins, Calendar No. 283; that the Senate proceed to vote without intervening action or debate on the nominations; that if confirmed, the motion to reconsider be considered made and laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. LANKFORD). Is there objection?

There is no objection.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, on behalf of the junior Senator from Texas, Mr. CRUZ, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

The Senator from Minnesota.

Ms. KLOBUCHAR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to executive session to consider the following nomination that is to the country of Sweden: Azita Raji, Calendar No. 148; that the Senate proceed to vote without intervening action or debate on the nomination; that if confirmed, the motion to reconsider be considered made and laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

The majority leader.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, on behalf of the junior Senator from Texas, Mr. CRUZ, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

The Senator from Minnesota.

Ms. KLOBUCHAR. Mr. President, as I said, this has been a bipartisan effort to get these two nominees confirmed. There is no one holding up the vote on these nominations except for Senator CRUZ. We asked him to remove these holds. He has not voiced any concerns about these individual nominees. He has voiced concerns about unrelated foreign policy issues. There have been other holds in the past, but everyone has lifted their hold. I note that even Senator COTTON from Arkansas has said that there are no issues with the qualifications of these nominees and that these nominees should proceed to a vote.

As I said, this is the fifth time I have come to the floor. I have also been joined by Senator CARDIN, Senator SHAHEEN, and Senator FRANKEN. This is something we need to get done.

Listen to these numbers: Sam Heins has been waiting for 293 days to be confirmed as the U.S. ambassador to Norway. Azita Raji has been waiting 474 days to be confirmed as the first female U.S. ambassador to Sweden. Both of these nominees were voted out of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee without controversy and with significant bipartisan support. Not a single Senator has questioned the qualifications of Sam Heins or Azita Raji. That is because both are both qualified to take these jobs.

We have an ambassador in France. We have an ambassador in England. We have an ambassador in Italy. We have an ambassador in Germany. We have an ambassador to nearly every European nation but not these two Scandinavian countries.

More than 1,200 refugees seek asylum in Sweden single day. I cannot tell my colleagues how many times I have heard people on both sides of the aisle talk about how during this refugee crisis we need a strong and unified Europe, and we need to be their allies, and they need to be our allies. While both sides may have disagreements on how to solve all of the refugee crises, we have to at least give support to our allies who are taking in these refugees.

Sweden accepts more refugees per capita than any other country in the European Union. Norway expects to take in as many as 25,000 refugees this year. It has already provided more than $6 million to Greece to help respond to the influx of refugees seeking a way to enter Europe. All of us on both sides have talked about this. Yet, right now, no Ambassadors are in those two critical countries.

I would note they have Ambassadors from China in those countries. They have Ambassadors from Russia. They have Ambassadors. So the people of their countries who love the United States, who respect the United States, who travel to the United States, they want to know: How come every major nation has an ambassador to our country but not the United States of America?

We also understand the important economic contributions Sweden and Norway make to our country. These diplomatic relations are 200 years old. That is why we have widespread support for these nominees. Yet one Senator—how can one Senator stand in the way of a vote affecting relations that are 200 years old?

Our engagement with these countries is enormous. Sweden supports over 330,700 American jobs across 50 States. In the case of Norway, our trade partnership is $16 billion—$7 billion in exports, $9 billion in imports. Leaving these countries without a U.S. Ambassador is a slap in the face to their governments, their people, and all of the American workers who are supported by Swedish and Norwegian investment in the United States. That is happening today.

In addition to Sam Heins and Azita Raji, there are other nominees who are vital in our fight against terrorism; however, I am going to focus today on these two nominees.

We have two countries, Norway and Sweden, that are members of NATO, that have joined us in the fight against Islamic extremists, that have joined us in the fight against ISIS. This is no way to treat them.

I would also add, in kind of a combination of national security interests and economic interests, that Norway has now signed to purchase 252 fighter planes—22 just recently—from Lockheed Martin. Those fighter planes are made in America. The country of Norway could have decided to buy those fighter planes from any nation in the world. They could have bought those fighter planes from Europe. Where did they buy those fighter planes from? They brought them from the United States, from Lockheed Martin, and that company is located in Texas. Those fighter planes are made in Fort Worth, TX, Senator CRUZ’s home State.

What do we say to Norway when they invest? We can do the math—nearly $200 million a plane, 22 planes. So they have strong national security, as we see Russian aggression and Islamic extremism and as they join with us in fights across the world. What do we say? You are not worthy of an ambassador? Because one Senator—the Senator from the State where those fighter planes are made, from Fort Worth, TX—has decided to hold this up?

What are we doing when we say to a major company in the United States that got a major deal with a foreign government that that government is not worthy of having an ambassador? What kind of encouragement do we give when we don’t even let them have an ambassador?

This is one of many examples of what is going on and why the people are so angry. We have heard from the Foreign Minister. We have seen comments from people of Norwegian descent and Swedish descent who do not understand how this could be going on right now, given everything Europe is confronting.

It is my hope that we will be able to work these things out. We have been given various reasons from letters that have been written, to streets in front of embassies, for this hold. But we are hopeful that somehow we are going to be able to work this out. This is because of one Senator who is not even here this Congress, day after day after day when I return to put these names in for Ambassador.

We are not stopping. Senator SHAHEEN and I are going to come to this floor every single day and make the case for these countries. I am hopeful we will be able to resolve this.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Alaska.

Mr. SULLIVAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to enter into a colloquy with the junior Senator from Montana for 20 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

EQUAL JUSTICE UNDER THE LAW

Mr. SULLIVAN. Mr. President, I rise today to speak about a very important issue for our Nation’s judicial system and two bills that I and my colleague from Montana introduced. The bills’ primary focus is what all of us in the Senate want, and that is equal justice under the law.
One of the bills would split the dysfunctional and unwieldy U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. The other bill would form a commission to evaluate the court and make recommendations based on its findings.

Like my colleagues from Washington I like to get out and try to get a run in in the morning and look at the beautiful monuments, memorials. Oftentimes I run past the U.S. Supreme Court, and I often look at the inscription etched on the beautiful Court there that says simply “Equal justice under law.” I think of Supreme Court Justice Lewis Powell’s famous quote restated:

Equal justice under the law is not merely a caption on the facade of the Supreme Court building: it is perhaps the most inspiring ideal of our society. It is one of the ends for which our entire legal system exists.

I also think of the thousands of lawyers and judges and clerks, past and present, who have lived their lives attempting to fulfill its important ideal and how our democratic system of government is dependent on striving for this ideal.

We should do everything in this body to make sure that simple common—equal justice under the law—is a reality for all Americans. All Americans should feel assured that when we seek justice, the burdens we encounter, the time we encounter to achieve justice won’t be smaller or greater depending on the part of the country in which we live.

Unfortunately, that is not the case. Unfortunately, if you are a citizen of the United States and you live in one of the States over which the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has jurisdiction over your legal issues in the administration of justice, one in five Americans do not get equal justice under the law. What our bills are focused on doing is rights that wrong because the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit is simply too large, its scope is too wide, and it has long passed its ability to provide equal justice and to contribute as a functional court system in the U.S. court of appeals Federal court system in our country.

This is no surprise. We have known this for decades. Dividing the Ninth Circuit is not a new idea. In fact, not doing it is radical. If you look at the history of the United States, when Federal courts of appeals have grown in terms of population, what has happened every time for decades, for well over 100 years, is that when the court grows too big and the administration of justice grinds to a halt, the court is split so that you have that justice. That is the usual course of American history. What is not usual is the refusal to do this.

To give a few examples, in 1973 a congressional commission recommended to this body that for the administration of justice for American citizens, the Ninth Circuit should be split. It actually recommended that the Fifth and Ninth Circuit should be split. The Fifth Circuit was eventually split, but according to the Commission, the Ninth Circuit, which it said had serious difficulties with backlog, delay, and justice for Americans, was not split, and it has only gotten worse.

To give a few facts, there are 65 million people living within the boundaries of the Ninth Circuit. That represents 20 percent of the total population of the United States—one in five Americans. As many people as there are in the next biggest circuit in the U.S. court of appeals system, and it is almost three times the average population of all the other circuits combined. It is not just the size of the court.

The caseload is what is inhibiting justice for Americans in the Ninth Circuit. At the end of a 12-month period last year, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals had almost 14,000 pending appeals; the next largest court of appeals had about 4,700. Justice delayed is justice denied.

In previous hearings in the Senate, we found that it takes, on average, for the Ninth Circuit, almost 40 percent longer to dispose of an appeal than in any other circuit. This is simply a function of a court that is too big and too unwieldy. Because of the size and inefficiency of the court, the court has started to come up with creative shortcuts—questionable procedural shortcuts which I believe are shortchanging justice for tens of thousands of Americans every year in this court of appeals.

Let me give you a few examples. Every court in the U.S. Federal system, in order to have uniformity of law, when they have difficult issues, they meet as a court in what they call an en banc meeting. This provides uniformity in all the courts. There is only one court that doesn’t do that. Because it happens to be the largest court of appeals in the United States—any other court—the Ninth Circuit does not meet as a whole court; therefore, limiting its ability to address intracircuit conflicts, with no uniformity in the law in the Ninth Circuit, and it is seen again and again and again. Further, and perhaps most alarming—again because of its size—the Ninth Circuit is the only court of Federal appeals where a nonelected, nonappointed, nonparticulate II judge called an appellate commissioner rules on matters by the thousands, which should be handled by article III life-tenured judges—not an appellate commissioner who is none of those things.

In a 2005 congressional hearing, one of the Ninth Circuit judges testified that the appellate commissioner resolved 4,600 motions that would otherwise have been heard by judges.” This is fast-food justice for one in five Americans who are part of the Ninth Circuit.

This Senator plans to come down to the floor over the next several weeks and speak to my experience on the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. I had the opportunity—the honor—to be a judicial law clerk for one of the most esteemed judges, Judge Kleinfeld of Fairbanks, AK, many years ago, but I did see firsthand how the unwieldy size of this court of appeals limits justice, not just for Alaskans but for any citizen who is under the jurisdiction of this court.

Chief Justice Warren Burger warned in 1970 that “a sense of confidence in the courts is essential to the fabric of ordered liberty for a free people.” He cautioned that inefficiency and delay in our courts of appeals could destroy that confidence. Unfortunately, as it is currently constituted, the Ninth Circuit is inefficient, it delays, and therefore denies justice for millions of Americans, and we cannot allow the confidence in our system of justice to be undermined by continuing a court of appeals that is so large and atoms. Our No. 1 job is to represent a senator from Alaska and I intend with our bills to bring equal justice for all Americans.

I turn to my colleague from Montana for his views on this very important issue.

Mr. DAINES. I thank the junior Senator from Alaska, and I appreciate him joining me in this most important effort and also for the leadership he has demonstrated on this issue. As the junior Senator from Alaska knows, the Ninth Circuit Court is broken. It is overburdened and is unable to provide quality service and expeditious justice for the Americans it is supposed to serve.

When we offer the Pledge of Allegiance, we close with “and justice for all.” As I frequently tell my staff, we in public service are ultimately in the customer service business. As U.S. Senator from Montana and a law professor who is served in the Ninth Circuit. It is not just about the geographical size of Alaska will sometimes remind us, if they divide Alaska in two, Texas is the third largest State in the Nation. It is not just about the geographical size of the West. Look at the number of people who are served in the Ninth Circuit. It includes Montana, Alaska, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona, California, and Hawaii, not to mention several U.S. territories, Guam, and the Northern Mariana Islands. That alone amounts to 20 percent of the Nation’s population.

Let’s put this in context. That is 85 percent larger than the next largest circuit which serves just 34.8 million people, and that this chart illustrates that well. Needless to say, the Ninth Circuit’s caseload is significantly greater than any other circuit, and that means backlogs and that means delays. Not only is it disproportionate absolutely later. On average, the Ninth Circuit has more than 32 percent of all cases pending nationally. As the junior Senator from Alaska mentioned, it currently has over 14,000 cases pending. As you can see in this next chart behind me, there are more than the next closest circuit, the Fifth Circuit, which has around 4,700 cases pending. Processing all these cases takes time; in fact, the average, over the last 5 years, nearly 15 months from appeal to determination.

It is time to take a serious look at how our court system can better serve the American people, and that is why Senator SULLIVAN and I have introduced two separate bills to address these challenges. Our bills would bring much needed reform, not just to the Ninth Circuit but also to the entire Federal circuit courts of appeals system. The Circuit Court of Appeals Re- structuring and Modernization Act would split the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals into two circuits, providing a more manageable balance of population and geography for both circuits so western Americans can be better served by our courts.

The Circuit Court of Appeals Modernization Act would establish a commission to study the Federal circuit courts of appeals system and identify changes needed to promote an expeditious and effective disposition of the Ninth Circuit caseload. Keep this in mind. When we split the circuits into a new Ninth and the Twelfth Circuits, the Ninth Circuit would still have a larger caseload than any other circuit. In the new Ninth Circuit’s jurisdiction, there would be 40.8 million people. It would maintain its status as first in population. In the Twelfth Circuit’s jurisdiction, this new circuit we would establish, there would be 24.3 million people, which makes it the seventh largest in population among the circuits. It is just a little bit below the average. Those numbers alone should make it clear reforms are needed.

It is worth remembering that the challenges facing the Ninth Circuit have been longstanding, and the efforts to find solutions are bipartisan. In fact, two prior Commissions—one in 1973 and the other in 1988, which, by the way, was championed by California Senator DIANNE FEINSTEIN—both determined that the Ninth Circuit had an overly burdensome size and scope and suggested that changes be made with the structure of the Federal courts of appeals.

It is time to move forward with concrete solutions to address this problem. The bills introduced by the junior Senator from Alaska and I will do so.

I was trained as an engineer. As an engineer, one identifies a problem and most importantly finds a solution. We have a capacity constraint which can be alleviated. In thinking about our communities, as our communities grow, we need to add more schools, add more teachers, and add more police officers.

We need to ensure that all Americans have access to the justice they deserve. It is time to split the Ninth Circuit.

I want to thank the junior Senator from Alaska for championing this important issue, and I look forward to working with him to find a resolution.

Mr. SULLIVAN. I thank my colleague from Montana and for his point in particular. The charts make a very compelling case, but I think his point in particular about constraints—when things get too large, they become an organization that cannot function.

I think when you look at the debate that has occurred previously about the Ninth Circuit, somehow we have gotten to the point of some radical idea to split the Ninth Circuit. But if you look at the history of our country, the radical idea is actually not splitting the Ninth Circuit. The outlier position is not to take a court either that has this many cases pending or send it to the jurisdiction of so many people.

When your court that you are subject to procedural shortcuts, not a lot of which are known—and we are going to talk about some of those over the next several weeks and no other court does that, you start to see that one in five Americans is burdened by this and burdened by the lack of what the Supreme Court says: “Equal Justice Under Law.”

I again thank my colleague from Montana. I know he has some views on what would happen again if this doesn’t happen in his State or in my State. But this isn’t just about the West; this is about all Americans. We all deserve the same justice.

Just by looking at these two posters, cases pending; as I talked about earlier, and the time it takes to get appeals completed and the enormous population of just one circuit, what is clear to me is that the Congress needs to act.

I am honored to be working with my good friend from Montana where we are offering Congress a variety of different ways to approach this—a commission, a bill to split the circuit.

But I want to emphasize that this is not a radical idea; the radical idea that is out of step with American history is to not do something about this.

Every time in America’s history since the Judiciary Act of 1789 when this type of situation occurred, Congress has acted, and they acted because they knew equal justice under the law was at stake.

Mr. DAINES. I remember as we were raising our four children, sometimes it would be late at night with a sick child, and I would turn on “Sesame Street” with the child. I remember there was that “One of These Things (Is Not Like the Others)” song. As I look at that chart, this could be a child at the age of 11 years old. I was about “Sesame Street” age then. At that point they said the Ninth Circuit had an overly burdensome size in 1973. Yet again in 1998, I am grateful that California Senator DIANNE FEINSTEIN was championing that Commission. She looked at this same issue 18 years ago and determined that the Ninth Circuit was overly burdened and suggested changes be made to the structure of the Federal courts of appeal.

So I look forward to working with my colleague from Alaska as we have identified this problem and now move forward to a solution. If there is something we hear over and over again from the American people, it is this: You are not solving the problems facing this country.

We have a problem. We have a solution. I look forward to vigorous discussion of the continuing information, and I look forward to the alternatives. We think this is the best solution—to split the Ninth, add the Twelfth Circuit. Even after that is done—you take the Ninth and create the Twelfth Circuit. Even after that is done, the Ninth Circuit will still be the largest circuit by population in the United States.

I again thank the junior Senator from Alaska for taking the lead in this effort and look forward to continuing this discussion.

Mr. SULLIVAN. I appreciate my colleague’s efforts as well. We will continue to be focused on this.
I will end by mentioning—my colleague mentioned the Sesame Street adage “One of these things is not like the other.” But one other area where this is the case, as I mentioned before, is in the en banc procedures. That is when the courts of appeal—every one of them in the country with the exception of one—when they have difficult issues, they sit together. All the active judges sit together. This provides uniformity and predictability in these courts. But one of these courts is not like the others. The Ninth Circuit cannot do this. It is too big. So they have developed what is called a limited en banc review, which by definition is incorrect and an oxymoron because “en banc” means the whole court. So that is why you have so many opinions in this court that are not uniform, that are problematic, and that undermine the administration of justice for the one in five Americans who is subject to this court’s jurisdiction.

I look forward to working on this with my good friend the Senator from Montana and Members on both sides of the aisle. This should be a bipartisan issue for every Member of this body who wants to make sure their citizens have equal justice under the law. I yield the floor.

BUDGETARY REVISIONS

Mr. ENZI. Mr. President, I previously revised allocations, aggregates, and levels in the budget resolution pursuant to section 4306 of S. Con. Res. 11, the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 2016, for H.R. 3762, the Restoring Americans’ Healthcare Freedom Reconciliation Act of 2015. On January 6, 2016, the House of Representatives passed H.R. 3762, which had been amended by a complete Senate substitute. On January 8, 2016, the President vetoed the measure. On February 2, 2016, the House was unable to override the President’s veto. As such, I am reversing my previous adjustments for this legislation.

I ask unanimous consent that the accompanying tables, which provide details about the adjustment, be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

REMEMBERING FORREST R. JARVIS

Mr. MANCHIN. Mr. President, today I wish to honor Forrest R. “Dick” Jarvis, a beloved native of north central West Virginia who passed away on January 27, 2016.

Dick was a remarkable community leader, veteran, family man, and friend; and he left a tremendous legacy throughout my home State. Put simply, Dick stood out among others. He was the epitome of what West Virginians are all about, with his hospitable nature and unwavering commitment to helping those in need.

Upon graduating from Riviseville High School in 1948, Dick enlisted in the U.S. Navy, where he reported aboard the Destroyer USS Brownson DD 868 during the Korean war. His selfless service to our State and Nation is truly admirable and will never be forgotten.

Once discharged, he returned to West Virginia and entered the insurance business, where he retired as a sales manager after more than 25 years of service.

Dick was an outstanding community leader and was also a member of numerous organizations. He was president of the Morgantown Life Underwriters Association and the West Virginia Association of Life Underwriters and was a Life Underwriter Training Council Fellow. He was active in the Democratic Party of Monongalia County and served two terms as county Democratic chairman. He served five terms on Star City Council and was president of the Monongalia County Volunteer Fire Companies Association for 10 years.

Among his many accomplishments, Dick was instrumental in starting the MECCA 911 emergency dispatch center in Monongalia County and served as chairman of the policy board for more than 8 years. He was a lifetime member of the VFW Post 548, the USS Brownson DD 868 Association, and the Tin Can Sailors Association.

It is a very special individual who can sacrifice so much for our Nation, only to return to West Virginia and continue the tradition of giving back to our communities. Dick led by example and treated his neighbors as friends and his family as he instilled. This same loyal community service mindset throughout his family. He leaves behind his loving wife, Willa; his daughter Rebecca and her husband Reverend Mark Combs; his grandchildren, Matthew and Alexander; and his dear brother Robert.

Dick was a beloved family man, friend, and inspiration to the Star City community. His glowing smile and positive attitude were contagious and will live on in the memories and hearts of all those who had the privilege of knowing him. Dick’s service was greatly appreciated and will certainly never be forgotten.

TRIBUTE TO STEVE PRINGLE

Mr. MORAN Mr. President, agriculture is the backbone of our country. It is a significant economic driver, and perhaps more importantly, it offers our citizens a way of life that is unique in today’s world. Within agriculture, I often encounter thoughtful, committed men and women who work every day to raise their families, run their businesses, serve their neighbors, and provide a better future for the next generation.

These qualities are found in Steve Pringle, who has served on behalf of Texas Farm Bureau for over 25 years. Under Steve’s leadership, the organization has influenced agricultural policy, promoted rural values, and worked to show an increasingly urban populace how food is produced.

I met Steve many years ago, and over those years, we grew to be friends. As agricultural issues repeatedly came to the forefront of debate in Washington—from trade and energy, to the economy, overregulation, and the farm bill—he was always someone whom I could count on to give me trustworthy advice and counsel.

Steve is a veteran, a husband, and a father. His long and distinguished career includes stints at the House Agriculture Committee, Texas A&M University, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. For over a quarter century, however, Steve has been the face of Texas Farm Bureau. Steve’s passion for improving the lives of farmers and ranchers and advocating for the future of rural America has always impressed me.

Steve Pringle embodies many traits we can all admire, including a deep gratitude for rural families who provide the food, fuel, and fiber Americans rely on. Texas farmers and ranchers found in Steve Pringle a true public servant who worked hard to make certain their voices were heard on Capitol Hill. These traits have earned Steve the respect of his peers in Texas, in my home State of Kansas, and from across the country.

Steve, we are grateful for your service and wish you and your wife, Linda, well in the next chapter of your life.

STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS
By Mr. Hatch (for himself and Mr. Leahy):
S. 2510. A bill to encourage and facilitate international participation in the performing arts and for other purposes; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Leahy. Mr. President, today, Senator Hatch and I are reintroducing the Arts Require Timely Service Act or ARTS Act. This bipartisan measure would assist nonprofit arts organizations in obtaining visas for visiting foreign artists. For many renowned artists abroad hoping to share their talent with American audiences, our visa system is often inconsistent and unreliable. Although current law establishes a specific processing period for artist visas, petitioners regularly confront prolonged and uncertain wait times. This delay and uncertainty greatly carries costs for the nonprofit arts organizations that seek to bring foreign artists to American audiences.

While expedited visa processing is available, many of these organizations are unable to afford the fees, and the resulting delays in regular processing lead to interruptions and cancellations in performance schedules. Ultimately, the inefficiencies in obtaining foreign artist visas stifle the promotion of international cultural exchange and impede the mission of great American cultural institutions.

The ARTS Act addresses these challenges by requiring the Secretary of Homeland Security to provide expedited processing services, without a fee, if an O-1 or P-1 artist visa is not adjudicated within a 14-day time frame, and the petition is filed by or on behalf of a nonprofit organization. The legislation ensures that nonprofit arts organizations do not have to choose between making adjustments to their programming and incurring additional unexpected costs. We should be encouraging international participation in the performing arts, not thwarting it. That is why more than 80 national organizations consisting of musicians, orchestras, museums, performing artists, and local arts organizations such as the Vermont Symphony Orchestra, support the ARTS Act.

I have long been a supporter of the arts and am proud of the great contributions the arts community has made in my home state of Vermont. Organizations such as the Vermont Symphony Orchestra, Vermont Performance Lab, and Burlington City Arts enrich our State's dynamic cultural landscape, and integrate, and ensure that all communities benefit from the remarkable power of the arts. The ARTS Act acknowledges the unique challenges that nonprofit arts organizations confront with our visa system and would assist them in their effort to bring international arts and culture to our communities.

SUBMITTED RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION 365—DESIGNATING FEBRUARY 2016 AS ‘‘AMERICAN HEART MONTH’’ AND FEBRUARY 5, 2016, AS ‘‘NATIONAL WEAR RED DAY’’

Ms. MIKULSKI (for herself, Ms. BALDWIN, Ms. FEINSTEIN, Ms. HEITKAMP, Ms. WARREN, Ms. KLOBUCHAR, Mrs. MURRAY, Ms. MURkowski, Mrs. CAPITO, Ms. AYOTTE, Ms. CANTWELL, Mrs. BOXER, Mrs. FISCHER, Mrs. SHAHEEN, Ms. STABENOW, Ms. COLLINS, Mr. DURBIN, and Ms. MIKULSKY) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions:

S. RES. 365

Whereas heart disease affects men, women, and children of every age and race in the United States;

Whereas, between 2003 and 2013, the death rate from heart disease fell nearly 40 percent, but heart disease continues to be the leading cause of death in the United States, taking the lives of approximately 379,000 individuals in the United States and accounting for 1 in 7 deaths nationwide;

Whereas congenital heart defects are the most common birth defect in the United States, as well as the leading cause of death in the United States, and 20 percent of infants with birth defects;

Whereas, every year, an estimated 750,000 individuals in the United States have a heart attack, of which an estimated 116,000 individuals die;

Whereas cardiovascular disease and stroke account for $316,000,000,000 in health care expenditures and lost productivity annually;

Whereas cardiovascular disease and stroke will account for $1,339,000,000,000 in health care expenditures and lost productivity annually by 2030;

Whereas individuals in the United States have made great progress in reducing the death rate for coronary heart disease, but this progress has been more modest with respect to the death rate for coronary heart disease for women and minorities;

Whereas many people do not recognize that heart disease is the number one killer of women in the United States, and 20 percent of women who observe this holiday a happy and prosperous new year.

Whereas many religious and ethnic communities use lunar-based calendars;

Whereas Lunar New Year began in China more than 4,000 years ago and is widely celebrated in East and Southeast Asia;

Whereas the Asian diaspora has expanded the Lunar New Year celebration into an annual worldwide event;

Whereas Lunar New Year is celebrated by millions of Asian Americans, and by many non-Asian Americans, in the United States;

Whereas Lunar New Year is celebrated with community activities and cultural performances;

Whereas participants celebrating Lunar New Year travel to spend the holiday reuniting with family and friends; and

Whereas the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute of the National Institutes of Health, the American Heart Association, and many other members of Congress have declared “National Wear Red Day” during February by “going red” to increase awareness about heart disease as the leading killer of women; and

Whereas, every year since 1964, the President has issued a proclamation designating the month of February as “American Heart Month”;

Whereas the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute of the National Institutes of Health, the American Heart Association, and many other members of Congress have declared “National Wear Red Day” during February by “going red” to increase awareness about heart disease as the leading killer of women; and

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) recognizes the cultural and historical significance of Lunar New Year;

(2) in observance of Lunar New Year, expressing its deepest respect for Asian Americans and all individuals throughout the world who celebrate this significant occasion; and

(3) wishes Asian Americans and all individuals who observe this holiday a happy and prosperous new year.

(i) all or part of which lies within the coastal zone of the State (as defined in section 304(e) of the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 (16 U.S.C. 1453)); and

(ii) the closest coastal point of which is not more than 200 nautical miles from the geographical center of any leased tract in the Alaska outer Continental Shelf region; or

(bb) that is determined by the Secretary to be a significant staging area for oil and gas servicing, supply vessels, operations, suppliers, or workers.

(B) QUALIFIED REVENUES.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—The term ‘qualified revenues’ means all revenues derived from all rentals, royalties, bonus bids, and other sums due and payable to the United States from energy development in the Alaska outer Continental Shelf region.

(ii) EXCLUSIONS.—The term ‘qualified revenues’ does not include revenues generated from leases subject to section 8(g).

(C) STATE.—The term ‘State’ means the State of Alaska.

(D) DISTRIBUTION.—Paragraphs 207–201.—For each of fiscal years 2027 through 2031, the Secretary shall deposit—

(A) 62.5 percent of qualified revenues in the general fund of the Treasury, of which 12.5 percent shall be allocated to the Tribal Resilience Fund established by section 310(e) of the Energy Policy Modernization Act of 2016; and

(B) 25 percent of qualified revenues in a special account in the Treasury, to be distributed by the Secretary to coastal political subdivisions and Indian tribes to support resilience efforts.

(E) ALLOCATION AMONG COASTAL POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.—Of the amount paid by the Secretary, 90 percent shall be allocated in amounts (based on a formula established by the Secretary by regulation) that are inversely proportional to the respective distances between the point in each coastal political subdivision that is closest to the geographical center of the applicable leased tract and not more than 200 miles from the geographical center of the leased tract; and

(F) TRIBAL RESILIENCE PROGRAM.—An Indian tribe receiving a grant under paragraph (3) may only use grant funds for 1 or more of the following eligible activities:

(A) Development and delivery of adaptation training;

(B) Adaptation planning, vulnerability assessment, emergency preparedness planning, and monitoring;

(C) Capacity building through travel support for training, technical sessions, and cooperative management forums;

(D) Travel support for participation in ocean and coastal planning.

(E) Development of science-based information and tools to enable adaptive resource management and the ability to plan for resilience.

(F) Relocation of villages or other communities experiencing or susceptible to coastal or river erosion.

(G) Construction of infrastructure to support emergency evacuations.

(2) By adding at the end the following:

“(B) DISTRIBUTION OF REVENUE TO ATLANTIC STATES.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—In this subsection:

(A) ATLANTIC STATE.—The term ‘Atlantic State’ means any of the following States, which are adjacent to the South Atlantic planning area:

(i) Georgia.

(ii) North Carolina.

(iii) South Carolina.

(iv) Virginia.

(B) QUALIFIED REVENUES.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—The term ‘qualified revenues’ means all revenues derived from all rentals, royalties, bonus bids, and other sums due and payable to the United States from energy development in the Atlantic planning area.

(ii) EXCLUSIONS.—The term ‘qualified revenues’ does not include revenues generated from leases subject to section 8(g).

(C) SOUTH ATLANTIC PLANNING AREA.—The term ‘South Atlantic planning area’ means the area of the outer Continental Shelf (as defined in section 2 of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1331)) that is located between the northern lateral seaward administrative boundary of the Commonwealth of Virginia and the southernmost lateral seaward administrative boundary of the State of Georgia.

(2) DEPOSIT.—For each of fiscal years 2027 through 2031, the Secretary shall deposit—

(A) 62.5 percent of any qualified revenues in the general fund of the Treasury, of which 12.5 percent shall be split equally among, and allocated to, or deposited in, as applicable—

(bb) the National Park Service Critical Maintenance and Revitalization Conservation Fund established by section 104908 of title 54, United States Code, for use in accordance with subsection (d) of that section; and

(C) the Secretary of Transportation to administer and award TIGER discretionary grants and

(D) 25 percent of any qualified revenues in a special account in the Treasury from which the Secretary shall disburse amounts to the Atlantic States in accordance with paragraph (3).

(3) ALLOCATION TO STATES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraphs (B) and (C), effective for fiscal year 2027 and each fiscal year thereafter, the Secretary shall allocate the qualified revenues described in paragraph
SA 3292. Mr. REID (for Mrs. SHARER) submitted an amendment intended to be proposed to amendment SA 2953 proposed by Ms. MURKOWSKI to the bill S. 2012, to provide for the modernization of the energy policy of the United States, and for other purposes which was ordered to lie on the table; as follows:

Title II—Heat Efficiency Through Applied Technology

Section 2501. Short Title

This subtitle may be cited as the “Heat Efficiency through Applied Technology Act” or the “HEAT Act”.

Section 2502. Findings

Congress finds that—

(1) combined heat and power technology, also known as cogeneration, is a technology that efficiently produces electricity and thermal energy at the point of use of the technology;

(2) by combining the provision of both electric and thermal energy in a single step, combined heat and power technology makes significantly more-efficient use of fuel, as compared to separate generation of heat and power, which results in significant economic and environmental advantages;

(3) waste heat to power is a technology that captures heat discarded by an existing industrial process and uses that heat to generate power with no additional fuel and no incremental emissions, reducing the need for electricity from other sources and the grid, and associated emissions from fossil fuel; and

(4) waste heat or waste heat to power is considered renewable energy in 17 States; (5) a 2012 joint report by the Department of Energy and the Environmental Protection Agency estimated that by achieving the national goal outlined in Executive Order 13624 (77 Fed. Reg. 57749) (September 5, 2012) of deploying 40 gigawatts of new combined heat and power technology by 2020, the United States would increase the total combined heat and power capacity of the United States by 50 percent in less than a decade; and

(5) additional efficiency would—

(i) save 1,000,000,000,000 BTUs of energy; and

(ii) reduce emissions by 150,000,000 metric tons of carbon dioxide annually, a quantity equivalent to more than 25,000,000 cars.

(6) a 2012 report by the Environmental Protection Agency estimated the amount of waste heat rejected in certain energy- and industrial or commercial process; or

(7) distributed energy generation, includ-

(b) E STABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM.—The Administrator shall establish a tribal resilience liaison program, to be known as the “Tribal Resilience Fund”, (1) Tribal Resilience Fund.—

(1) Establishment.—There is established in the Treasury a fund, to be known as the “Tribal Resilience Fund” (referred to in this subsection as the “Fund”).

(2) The Fund shall consist of the following:

(A) Amounts made available through an appropriation Act for deposit in the Fund.

(B) Amounts deposited into the Fund under subsection (b)(2)(A) of section 9 of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1338) as added by subsection (b)(2)(B).

(c) APPROPRIATIONS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—In addition to the amounts estimated by the Secretary to be deposited in the Fund under paragraph (2), there are authorized to be appropriated annually to the Fund out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated such amounts as are necessary to make the income of the Fund not more than $200,000,000 for fiscal year 2027 and each fiscal year thereafter.

(B) AMOUNTS AVAILABLE TO DEPARTMENTS.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—Amounts deposited in the Fund under this paragraph shall remain available until expended, without fiscal year limitation

(ii) USE.—Amounts deposited in the Fund under this paragraph and made available for obligation or expenditure from the Fund may be obligated or expended only to carry out the Tribal Resilience Program under subsection (d).

(F) EFFECT.—Nothing in this section or an amendment made by this section opens for leasing any area on the outer Continental Shelf that is subject to a moratorium under section 104 of the Gulf of Mexico Energy Security Act of 2006 (43 U.S.C. 1331 note; Public Law 109–433).

(1) Administrator.—The term “Administrator” means the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency.

(2) Combined Heat and Power Technology.—The term “combined heat and power technology” means the generation of electric energy and heat in a single, integrated system that meets the efficiency criteria in clauses (i) and (ii) of section 48(o)(3)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, under which heat which is conventionally rejected is recovered and used to meet thermal energy requirements.

(3) Output-Based Emission Standard.—The term “output-based emission standard” means a standard that relates emissions to the electrical, thermal, or mechanical productive output of a device or process rather than the heat input of fuel burned or pollutant concentration in the exhaust.

(4) Qualified Waste Heat Resource.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The term “qualified waste heat resource” means—

(i) exhaust heat or flared gas from any industrial process;

(ii) waste gas or industrial tail gas that would otherwise be flared, incinerated, or vented;

(iii) a pressure drop in any gas for an industrial or commercial process; or

(iv) any other form of waste heat resource as the Secretary may determine supports resilience.

(B) EXCLUSION.—The term “qualified waste heat resource” does not include a heat resource from a process the primary purpose of which is the generation of electricity using a fossil fuel.

(5) State.—The term “State” has the meaning given that term in section 302 of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7492).

(6) Waste Heat to Power Technology.—The term “waste heat to power technology” means a system that generates electricity through the recovery of a qualified waste heat resource.

(b) Establishment of Program.—The Administrator shall establish a program under which the Administrator shall provide to each State that elects to participate and that submits an application under subsection (c) a grant for use by the State in accordance with subsection (d).

(d) Use of Funds.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A State shall use a grant provided under this section—

(A) to update any applicable State or local air permitting regulations under this subtitle to incorporate environmental regulations relating to output-based emissions in accordance with part 2 of subtitle D of title 40 of United States Code, as applicable at such time, in such manner, and containing such information as the Administrator may require.

(B) OUTPUT-BASED EMISSION STANDARDS.

(1) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(a) Administrator.—The term “Administrative” means the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency.

(b) Combined Heat and Power Technology.—The term “combined heat and power technology” means the generation of electric energy and heat in a single, integrated system that meets the efficiency criteria in clauses (i) and (ii) of section 48(o)(3)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, under which heat which is conventionally rejected is recovered and used to meet thermal energy requirements.

(c) Output-Based Emission Standard.—The term “output-based emission standard” means a standard that relates emissions to the electrical, thermal, or mechanical productive output of a device or process rather than the heat input of fuel burned or pollutant concentration in the exhaust.

(d) Qualified Waste Heat Resource.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The term “qualified waste heat resource” means—

(i) exhaust heat or flared gas from any industrial process;

(ii) waste gas or industrial tail gas that would otherwise be flared, incinerated, or vented;

(iii) a pressure drop in any gas for an industrial or commercial process; or

(iv) any other form of waste heat resource as the Secretary may determine supports resilience.

(B) EXCLUSION.—The term “qualified waste heat resource” does not include a heat resource from a process the primary purpose of which is the generation of electricity using a fossil fuel.

(C) STATE.—The term “State” has the meaning given that term in section 302 of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7492).

(D) WASTE HEAT TO POWER TECHNOLOGY.—The term “waste heat to power technology” means a system that generates electricity through the recovery of a qualified waste heat resource.

(e) Tribal Resilience Fund.—

(1) Establishment.—There is established in the Treasury a fund, to be known as the “Tribal Resilience Fund” (referred to in this subsection as the “Fund”).

(2) The Fund shall consist of the following:

(A) Amounts made available through an appropriation Act for deposit in the Fund.

(B) Amounts deposited into the Fund under subsection (b)(2)(A) of section 9 of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act (43 U.S.C. 1338) (as added by subsection (b)(2)(B)).

(3) APPROPRIATIONS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—In addition to the amounts estimated by the Secretary to be deposited in the Fund under paragraph (2), there are authorized to be appropriated annually to the Fund out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated such amounts as are necessary to make the income of the Fund not more than $200,000,000 for fiscal year 2027 and each fiscal year thereafter.

(B) AMOUNTS AVAILABLE TO DEPARTMENTS.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—Amounts deposited in the Fund under this paragraph shall remain available until expended, without fiscal year limitation

(ii) USE.—Amounts deposited in the Fund under this paragraph and made available for obligation or expenditure from the Fund may be obligated or expended only to carry out the Tribal Resilience Program under subsection (d).

(f) EFFECT.—Nothing in this section or an amendment made by this section opens for leasing any area on the outer Continental Shelf that is subject to a moratorium under section 104 of the Gulf of Mexico Energy Security Act of 2006 (43 U.S.C. 1331 note; Public Law 109–433).
transmission networks to which the units and the distribution and waste heat to power technology) while ensuring the best practices that are used to model outage assumptions and contingencies to determine the fees or rates; (b) the appropriate duration, magnitude, and usage of demand or usage rate schedules; (c) the benefits to the utility and rate-payers, such as increased reliability, fuel diversification, enhanced power quality, and reduced environmental impacts from the use of combined heat and power technology and waste heat to power technology by a qualifying facility; and (d) alternative arrangements to the purchase of supplemental, backup, or standby power by the owner of combined heat and power technology and waste heat to power technology generating units if the alternative arrangements do not compromise system reliability and are nondiscretionary and nonpreferential.

(2) Determination by states and utilities.—

(i) In general.—Not later than 90 days after the date on which the Secretary completes the standards required under subparagraph (B), each State regulatory authority (with respect to each electric utility for which it has ratemaking authority) and each nonregulated electric utility shall—

(aa) take into consideration each standard established by subparagraph (B); and

(bb) make a determination concerning whether it is appropriate to implement that standard; or

(ii) set a hearing date for consideration under subparagraph (I).

(2) Procedural requirements.—

(I) Consideration.—The consideration under clause (i) shall be made after public notice and hearing.

(II) Determination.—A determination under clause (i)(1)(bb) shall be made—

(aa) in writing;

(bb) based on findings included in the determination and evidence presented at an applicable hearing; and

(cc) available to the public.

(III) Deadlines for compliance.—Not later than 2 years after the date on which the Secretary completes the standards required under subparagraph (B), each State regulatory authority (with respect to each electric utility for which the authority has ratemaking authority) and each nonregulated electric utility shall—

(I) complete the consideration under clause (i);

(II) make the determination referred to in clause (I)(1)(bb) with respect to each standard (or a comparable standard) for the electric utility, has conducted a proceeding after December 31, 2013, to consider implementation of the standard (or a comparable standard) for the electric utility; or

(III) the State legislature has voted on the implementation of the standard (or a comparable standard) for the electric utility.

(b) Guidance and standards.—

(I) Establishment.—In this section, the term ‘generation with nameplate capacity up to 20 megawatts using all fuels’ means the Secretary of Energy.

(II) Nonpreferential.

If, before the date of enactment of this paragraph, the State regulatory authority has ratemaking authority, the Tennessee Valley Authority has ratemaking authority, the Tennessee Valley Authority.

(III) Secretary.—The term ‘Secretary’ means the Secretary of Energy.

(IV) Other terms.—The terms ‘combined heat and power technology’ and ‘waste heat to power technology’ have the meanings given those terms in section 2504.\(a\) of the Heat Efficiency through Applied Technology Act.

(B) Guidance and standards.—

(I) Establishment.—Not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this paragraph, the Secretary, in consultation with the Commission and other appropriate agencies, shall establish—

(A) for generation with nameplate capacity up to 20 megawatts using all fuels—

(aa) guidance for technical interconnection standards that ensure interoperability with existing Federal interconnection rules; (bb) model interconnection procedures, including appropriate fast-track procedures; and (cc) model rules for determining and signing interconnection costs; and

(B) model rules and procedures for determining commitments for supplemental power, backup or standby power, maintenance power, and interconnect power supplied to facilities that operate combined heat and power technology and waste heat to power technology that appropriately allow for adequate cost recovery by an electric utility but are not excessive.

(II) Requirements.—The standards established under clause (I)(1) shall reflect, to the maximum extent practicable, current best practices (as demonstrated in model codes and standards adopted by States) to encourage the use of distributed generation (such as combined heat and power technology and waste heat to power technology) while ensuring the sustainability, reliability of the interconnecting units and the distribution and transmission networks to which the units connect.

(III) Factors for consideration.—In establishing model standards, rules, and procedures under clause (i), the Secretary shall take into consideration—

(A) the extent consistent with otherwise applicable State law.

(B) Implementation.—

(I) In general.—The State regulatory authority for the electric utility (for which the authority has ratemaking authority) or nonregulated electric utility, to

SEC. 2504. UPDATED INTERCONNECTION PROCEDURE AND TARIFF SCHEDULE; SUPPLEMENTAL, BACKUP, AND STAND-
SEC. 106. SEMIANNUAL REPORT ON IRAN AND NORTH KOREA NUCLEAR AND BALLISTIC MISSILE COOPERATION.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, and every 180 days thereafter, the President, in coordination with the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of State, and the heads of other relevant agencies, shall submit to the appropriate committees of Congress a report on nuclear and ballistic missile cooperation between the Government of Iran and the Government of the Democratic People's Republic of North Korea, including the identity of Iranian and North Korean persons that have knowingly engaged in or directed the provision of material support or the exchange of information between the Government of Iran and the Government of the Democratic People’s Republic of North Korea on their respective nuclear programs.

(b) FORM.—The report required under subsection (a) shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may contain a classified annex.

(c) APPROPRIATE COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS DEFINED.—In this section, the term ''appropriate committees of Congress'' means—

(1) the Committee on Foreign Relations, the Committee on Armed Services, and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate; and

(2) the Committee on Foreign Affairs, the Committee on Armed Services, and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives.

APPOINTMENT

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair, on behalf of the Vice President, pursuant to the order of the Senate of January 24, 1901, appoints the Senator from Delaware, Mr. COONS, to read Washington’s Farewell Address on Monday, February 22, 2016.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT AGREEMENT—EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that on Tuesday, February 9, at 2:15 p.m., the Senate proceed to executive session to consider the following nomination: Calendar No. 464; that the Senate vote without intervening action or debate on the nomination; that if confirmed, the President be immediately notified of the Senate’s action and the Senate then resume legislative session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

RECOGNIZING THE CULTURAL AND HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE OF LUNAR NEW YEAR

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 366, submitted earlier today.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 366) recognizing the cultural and historical significance of Lunar New Year.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. McCONNELL. I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be agreed to, the preamble be agreed to, and the motions to reconsider be considered made and laid upon the table with no intervening action or debate. The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 366) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

(Submitted Resolutions.)

ORDERS FOR TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2016

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that it stand adjourned under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 6:40 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, February 9, 2016, at 11 a.m.

CONFIRMATION

Executive nomination confirmed by the Senate February 08, 2016:

THE JUDICIARY

REBECCA GOODGAME EBINGER, OF IOWA, TO BE UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF IOWA.
HONORING MARINE SERGEANT
ADAM C. SCHOELLER

HON. LOU BARLETTA
of Pennsylvania
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. BARLETTA. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I honor my constituent, Marine Sergeant Adam C. Schoeller of Boiling Springs, and to express my deepest condolences to his family and friends.

On January 14, 2016, Sgt. Schoeller and 11 of his fellow patriots went missing off the coast of Oahu during a late night training session when the two CH–53E Super Stallion helicopters they were travelling in crashed. These honorable Marines tragically lost their lives while in the line of duty, and the American people are forever grateful for the service they provided to their country.

Sgt. Schoeller graduated from Boiling Springs High School in 2008 and enlisted to serve his country with the United States Marine Corps immediately afterward. Deployed during Operation Enduring Freedom, Sgt. Schoeller’s leadership and bravery distinguish his outstanding service to our nation, as evidenced by the over 200 people who attended a vigil in his honor held at the Boiling Springs Clock tower and Veterans Memorial. Sgt. Schoeller received various honors such as the Air Medal, National Defense Service Medal, and the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal—decorations which are indicative of his dedication to our country.

Sgt. Schoeller is survived by his wife, Samantha Wickel-Schoeller, whom he recently married on July 4, 2015. Samantha, his father Ralph, his mother Laurie, sister Shannon, and brother Collin were all able to travel to Hawaii for an October 8, 2015 homecoming celebration. Samantha and Ralph, his mother Laurie, sister Shannon, and brother Collin were all able to travel to Hawaii for an October 8, 2015 homecoming celebration.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in honoring the life and service of Sgt. Adam C. Schoeller, for his selfless heroism and dedication to his family, community, and country.

RECOGNIZING THE LUNAR NEW YEAR

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE
of Texas
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Lunar New Year and to applaud the contributions made by Chinese Americans to American life and culture.

Today, February 8, marks the first day of the “Year of the Monkey.”

The Lunar New Year, or “Nian,” is a tradition that has existed for more than a thousand years by the Chinese and other persons of Asian ancestry.

The Lunar New Year is cause for celebration in communities all across our country but might I say that no city does it better than my home city of Houston, which will be hosting the Annual Lunar New Year Houston Celebration this coming weekend.

Celebrants will be treated to a variety of festivities, including parades, festivals, art exhibits, and musical performances.

Mr. Speaker, Americans of Asian Pacific ancestry have positively influenced our country through their strong commitment to family, faith, hard work, and service.

They have enhanced and shaped our national character with centuries-old traditions that reflect the multiethnic and multicultural customs of their communities.

Asian Americans have enriched our culture and economy and made significant contributions in every area of American life from the arts and humanities to the natural and social sciences, to business and the economy, in government, sports, the military, and technology and innovation.

Notable Chinese Americans who have distinguished themselves in the field of the arts and humanities include the two-time Academy Award-winning cinematographer, James Wong Howe; Ang Lee, the Academy Award-winning director; Maya Lin, the architect who designed the iconic Vietnam Veterans Memorial; I. M. Pei, the famous architect and designer of the Louvre Pyramid; Amy Tan, the best-selling author of The Joy Luck Club; Yo-Yo Ma, the world-renowned cellist; and the legendary Bruce Lee, who revolutionized the martial arts film genre.

In the field of business, American life has been enriched by the contributions of Steve Chen, the co-founder of YouTube; Jen-Hsun Huang, the co-founder and CEO of NVIDIA, the computer graphics card company; Min H. Kao, co-founder of Garmin, the GPS software giant; William Wang, the founder and CEO of Vizio; and Jerry Yang, cofounder of Yahoo.

Mr. Speaker, Connie Chung made history as the first Chinese American woman to co-anchor a major network’s national news broadcast, as did Norman Bay, the first Chinese American United States Attorney; and Thomas Tang, the first Chinese American federal judge.

Many contemporary Chinese Americans have risen to occupy some of the most important positions in the nation, including my colleagues, Judy Chu and Grace Meng, the first and second Chinese-American woman elected to the U.S. House of Representatives; Dr. Steven Chu, Nobel laureate in Physics and United States Secretary of Energy from 2009–2013; Hiram L. Fong, the first U.S. Senator of Chinese ancestry; Ed Lee, the Mayor of San Francisco; and Gary Locke, former Secretary of Commerce, Ambassador to China, and only Chinese American ever to serve as a Governor.

Mr. Speaker, Kurt Lee was the first Asian American Marine Corps officer and he was followed by John Liu Fugh, the first Chinese American officer to be promoted to the rank of Major General in the United States Army and Coral Wong Pietsch, the first female Chinese American Army General; and it is a source of great pride that the Congressional Medal of Honor was awarded to Francis Wai, so far the only Chinese American to have been so honored.

In the fields of science, engineering, and medicine, Chinese Americans have made significant contributions that have fundamentally changed the way we live and work, including those of Min Chueh Chang, the co-inventor of the first birth control pill; Charles Kao, the 2009 Nobel laureate in Physics who pioneered the development and use of fiber optics in telecommunications; Yuan-Cheng Fung, the founder of modern biomechanics; and NASA astronauts Leroy Chiao and Edward Lu.

Mr. Speaker, according to most recent data reported by the Census Bureau, there are more than 423,609 businesses owned by Chinese Americans generating $142.8 billion in economic output towards the U.S. economy, along with creating over 780,000 jobs.

As the Member of Congress from the 18th Congressional District of Texas, I am honored to represent a district rich in cultural and ethnic diversity and with a vibrant Chinese-American community.

Mr. Speaker, there are more than four million Chinese-Americans in the United States and Texas is home to more than 167,000 of them; of this latter number, approximately 25 percent, or 43,940, Chinese-Americans live in Harris County, making it the tenth largest community of persons of Chinese heritage in the nation.

Mr. Speaker, Chinese-Americans have made much progress in the United States since May 10, 1860, the date the first transcontinental railroad was completed.

The massive construction project transformed our country for the better and could not have been completed had it not been for the labor of Chinese immigrants.

Despite the enormous progress made challenges still remain for persons of Chinese ancestry, particularly the nation’s antiquated immigration system which needs to be reformed to make it fairer and more humane.

Celebrating the Lunar New Year helps us to remember how much our country has benefited from the energy, creativity, and service of Chinese Americans.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. GENE GREEN
of Texas
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. GREEN of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to state that I was unable to vote on Thursday, February 4, 2016 due to district events our office is hosting in Houston and Harris County, Texas. If I had been able to vote, I would have voted as follows:

On the Democratic Motion to Recommit H.R. 766, I would have voted “Yea.”

On final passage of H.R. 766, the Financial Institution Customer Protection Act, I would have voted “No.”

This “bullet” symbol identifies statements or insertions which are not spoken by a Member of the Senate on the floor.

Matter set in this typeface indicates words inserted or appended, rather than spoken, by a Member of the House on the floor.
I encourage all Americans to take part in activities marking this important occasion.

HONORING CARLETON ZEISZ UPON THE OCCASION OF HIS RETIREMENT FROM PUBLIC SERVICE

HON. BRIAN HIGGINS
OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. HIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to recognize Carleton Zeisz as he is honored by the City of Tonawanda Democratic Committee upon his retirement from public service. Carl’s career spans an impressive twenty-four years of service.

Carl began his tenure with the City of Tonawanda as an Alderman in 1992 and 1993. He became the Common Council President in 1994, and held the post for twenty-two years, until 2015. In 2009, Carl earned the Outstanding Public Service Award from the Conservative Party.

Many major projects in the City of Tonawanda have benefited from Carl’s efforts as he worked throughout the years together with the Mayor and Common Council. His efforts include the development of Gateway Park, the Niawanda Park Pavilion, the implementation of Central Dispatch, the development of Kibler High, closing the Tonawanda Landfill, the Niagara Street and Young Street development, and a multitude of other infrastructure projects. Carl’s greatest asset was his ability to get many to work together for the good of Tonawanda.

In addition to his career in public service, Carl has worked in General Cinema theaters for twenty-four years at eight different locations, with twenty-one years in the position of General Manager. In 1994, Carl began his tenure with the City of Tonawanda. He has devoted himself to the Church, becoming a mission church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, the church was originally established to serve the Italian immigrants of Hazleton’s south side.

Since then, the church has continually engaged with the community at large and is regarded as one of the most welcoming organizations in the region. To celebrate the church’s 100th Anniversary, the congregation has embraced a theme of remembering the past, celebrating the present, and preserving the future.

Actively involved in the community, the Holy Rosary Parish of Hazleton hosts an annual Mass in honor of the Hazleton Fire Department, which includes a September 11th memorial service. The church property includes a 9–11 Memorial and actual steel from the World Trade Center in commemoration of the brave men and women who responded to that day’s tragic events. The congregation also routinely engages with their homebound parishioners—whether it is a priest providing Holy Communion, or a youth group member bringing a poinsettia at Christmas time. With an eye to the future, the church is also implementing a collaborative outreach effort with the purpose of providing evening meals and nightly shelter to the community’s homeless population during the winter months.

Mr. Speaker, it is my pleasure to honor the Holy Rosary Parish of Hazleton, Pennsylvania as it celebrates its 100th anniversary, and I commend its congregation, both past and present, for their tireless efforts to preserve its longstanding legacy.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. BILL HUIZENGA
OF MICHIGAN
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. HUIZENGA of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I rise today regarding missed votes on Thursday, February 4, 2016 due to an important family matter. Had I been present for roll call vote number 62, the Democrat Motion to Recommit H.R. 766, I would have voted “nay.” Had I been present for roll call vote number 63, H.R. 766, the Financial Institution Customer Protection Act of 2015, I would have voted “yea.”

PATRICIA SPENCER
HON. KATHY CASTOR
OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Ms. CASTOR of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and to honor the life of an extraordinary leader and passionate advocate for freedom and justice, Ms. Patricia Spencer.

Growing up in Montgomery, Alabama in the 1930s, Patricia Spencer followed in her mother and grandmother’s footsteps, becoming a member of the NAACP at the age of seven, a group of which she was still a member 72 years later. At the age of nineteen, while serving as secretary of the local NAACP branch, Ms. Spencer received the position of mentor on the NAACP Youth Council, Rosa Parks, was arrested while riding the Montgomery bus. Ms. Spencer immediately started churning out fliers urging others to boycott the bus. During this time Ms. Spencer also babysat Yolanda King, the first eldest child of Martin Luther King, Jr.

Ms. Spencer attended Alabama State University and then moved to Orlando, FL to take a position as an operator with Southern Bell, the first African American to hold this position. From there she moved to Detroit and served 13 years on the local school board. In recognition of her service to the Detroit area, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Honorary Theatre and swimming facility at Charles Kettering High School bear her name. In the mid 1990s she moved to Tampa, FL. Once settled in she immediately started to volunteer with the Hillsborough NAACP branch, where she used her vast knowledge of the organization’s rules to mentor members and secure funding for the branch. She served as Membership Chair and Area Director for the NAACP’s state conference as well as Secretary of the Hillsborough County branch. She will forever be remembered for her constant efforts to boost NAACP membership.

As a notable NAACPer, Ms. Spencer also co-chaired the Afro-Academic, Cultural, Technologic and Scientific Olympics. This program recruits high school students to compete in science and visual arts competitions. Though she gave countless hours to the organization as a volunteer, she still had time to serve others. She was affiliated with other local organizations as well. At WUSF Radio Reading Service, she was a reader for the visually impaired listeners tuned in to the station. She was a Board Member of Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI–USF), a non-degree-seeking program at the University of South Florida and she also served on the Board of the Early Learning Coalition. The American Red Cross was one of her favorite charities and she was the Vice President of Sisters Network, Inc., Tampa Chapter. She also was Chair of the Hillsborough County Public Schools—School Choice Committee.

In 2007, Governor Charlie Crist appointed her as a member of the Hillsborough County Civil Service Board.

Ms. Spencer will forever be remembered as a leader in the Tampa Bay community for her unequivocal support of justice and fairness. On December 14th, 2015, she passed away two days following her 79th birthday. Mr. Speaker, I join the Tampa Bay community in honoring Ms. Patricia Spencer for her lifelong commitment to service.
Ms. DelBENE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Ms. Harriet Spannel, who recently passed away at the age of 77.

Harriet served in the Washington State Legislature for more than two decades, representing Northwest Washington with immense dedication and conviction.

Harriet had an intense passion for making her community a better place. She served on many local boards and committees, and took a hands-on approach to what she saw as her civic responsibility.

So it was no surprise that when Harriet decided to run for office and was elected to the state House, and then the Senate, she jumped in head first without hesitation.

Throughout her political career, Harriet was a strong presence for her constituents, sticking up for the local fishing economy and for the preservation of some of our state’s most beautiful lands.

She was a constant advocate for her community, always fighting for what she believed would make a positive difference, however large or small.

My heart goes out to all her family and friends. Harriet will be greatly missed by the friends. Harriet will be greatly missed by the pay tribute to Ms. Harriet Spanel, who recently and its members for their tireless service to the community and unwavering commitment to accessible education.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF MRS. JULIA AARON HUMBLES

HON. CEDRIC L. RICHMOND
OF LOUISIANA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. RICHMOND. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Julia Aaron Humbles, a New Orleans native and a lifelong civil rights activist. Mrs. Humbles passed away on January 26, 2016, at the age of 72.

In the 1960’s, Mrs. Humbles was among a group of young activists from New Orleans that organized sit-ins, and challenged unjust laws on buses traveling across the Deep South. Mrs. Humbles and her companions were arrested more than 30 times for their civil rights work.

In 1961, Mrs. Humbles received national attention because of a photo of her and fellow activist David Dennis sitting on the front seat of a bus next to a soldier armed with a rifle and bayonet. Soldiers had been ordered to protect the Freedom Riders as they rode across the Deep South, determined to desegregate bus stations.

By the age of 18, Mrs. Humbles was already very active in the New Orleans chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and was selected to be on the first Freedom Ride bus.

Two New Orleanians, Mrs. Humbles and Jerome Smith, were selected for the first Freedom Ride bus, which ultimately was firebombed outside Anniston, Alabama. Fortunately, the two were not on that bus: they were in Orleans Parish Prison for picketing outside the segregated Woolworth stores on Canal Street.

Mrs. Humbles graduated from the Charity Hospital School of Surgical Technology in New Orleans and worked as a surgical technician for 30 years. In 1988, after the death of her husband, Joseph Lee Humbles Sr., she moved to Atlanta for a job at Northside Hospital.

Mrs. Humbles’ legacy will forever be a part of the city and her dedication to justice embodies the spirit of New Orleans. Stories like hers will inspire generations of Americans to fight for their dreams. She will be sorely missed by her family, her friends, and all those who are able to pursue their dreams because of her courage.

Mr. Speaker, as a beneficiary of Mrs. Humbles courage, commitment and sacrifice, I celebrate her life and legacy, because she has made America a more perfect union. With that, I yield back the balance of my time.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. SUSAN W. BROOKS
OF INDIANA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mrs. BROOKS of Indiana. Mr. Speaker, I was unavoidably detained and missed the following votes. Had I been present, I would have voted:

‘‘Yea’’ on roll call number 46, regarding H.R. 2187—‘‘Fair Investment Opportunities for Professional Experts.’’

‘‘Yea’’ on roll call number 47 regarding H.R. 4168—‘‘Small Business Capital Formation Enhancement Act.’’

‘‘Yea’’ on roll call number 48, the previous question for H. Res. 594.

‘‘Yea’’ on roll call number 49 regarding H. Res. 594—‘‘Providing for consideration of the bill (H.R. 3700) to provide housing opportunities in the United States through modernization of various housing programs, and for other purposes.’’

TRIBUTE TO RUTH BERMAN AND CONSTANCE KURTZ

HON. PATRICK MURPHY
OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. MURPHY of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I along with Representatives Ted Deutch and Lois Frankel rise to recognize Ruth Berman and Constance Kurtz on the occasion of receiving the SAGE Pioneer award this Saturday, February 6, 2016.

Ruth Berman and Constance Kurtz, affectionately known to all as Ruthie and Connie, are fierce, unyielding advocates and activists who have changed hearts and minds on LGBT rights, marriage equality, and women’s rights. Since falling in love and coming out in the 1970s, Ruthie and Connie have risen to national prominence, successfully winning domestic partner benefits for City of New York employees in 1988. Additionally, through television appearances on The Phil Donahue Show, interviews with Geraldo Rivera and Bill Boggs, and their 2002 documentary “Connie and Ruthie: Every Room in the House,” they have connected with individuals worldwide and shown the personal impact of changing social climates.

That commitment to the personal impact of love and acceptance continues through their work as certified counselors. In that capacity, they founded The Answer is Loving Counseling Center, where they have served for over twenty years. Additionally, they founded branches of Parents, Friends and Family of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG) in Florida and New York. In 2000, they began serving as co-chairs of the New York State National Organization for Women (NOW) Lesbian Rights Task Force.
I was privileged to introduce a bill this session with my colleagues SUZANNE BONAMICI and TED DEUTCH to expand the Older Americans Act (OAA) to improve services available for older LGBT adults. This legislation recognizes LGBT seniors as a vulnerable population, which will open the door for improved health and social services for elders in the LGBT community.

I, along with Representatives DEUTCH and FRANKEL, have known Ruthie and Connie for many years. They are my constituents and my inspiration for the bill. For decades, their advocacy and leadership in the LGBT community has not wavered as they have aged, but the services available to them and other aging LGBT adults are profoundly unequal to those of other American populations. Their living message inspired the Ruthie and Connie LGBT Elder Americans Act of 2015 (H.R. 3793).

For these reasons and more, it is with great pleasure that we join SAGE (Services & Advocacy for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgender Elders) to recognize Ruthie and Connie for their lifetime of love and service.

LOUISIANA MUNICIPAL ASSOCIATION

HON. GARRET GRAVES
OF LOUISIANA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. GRAVES of Louisiana. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise to commemorate the 90th anniversary of the Louisiana Municipal Association.

Since January 28, 1926, the LMA has represented over 305 villages, towns, cities, and parishes across the state of Louisiana.

The three-fold mission of the LMA has been one of education, advocacy and service and includes advocacy at the national level.

At the state level, they work to fight blight, promote the work of law enforcement and public safety efforts, and encourage economic growth.

The LMA exemplifies the cooperation necessary to move our state forward. I’d like to recognize the accomplishments of the LMA over the last 90 years and thank them for their ongoing efforts.

HONORING NEW ORLEANS’ FIRST AFRICAN AMERICAN FIREFIGHTER

HON. CEDRIC L. RICHMOND
OF LOUISIANA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. RICHMOND. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 50th year since the City of New Orleans hired its first African American Firefighter.

George Mondy was the first African American to join the paid department as a professional firefighter with the New Orleans Fire Department. Firefighter Mondy opened the doors to professional firefighting in February 1965. As he worked diligently to overcome racial barriers of the times, his persistence and perseverance paid off. Firefighter Mondy was promoted to Fire Apparatus Operator to drive and operate the fire trucks. He retired in 1991, after 26 years with the department. Shortly after his retirement, Operator Mondy applied and was rehired as a fire supply technician. Firefighter Mondy was a trailblazer on whose shoulders many firefighters stand today. I believe it was his can do attitude and the manifestation of competence and fortitude the department knew it was depriving itself and the City of New Orleans by not hiring African Americans.

The late George Mondy’s name has been written in the history of the New Orleans Fire Department. Today, I submit Firefighter Mondy’s name to be written in the U.S. CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

Mr. Speaker, as a beneficiary of the courage, commitment and sacrifice of Firefighter Mondy, I celebrate his life and legacy, because he helped make America a more perfect union. With that, I yield back the balance of my time.

REMEMBERING PHIL NEIGHBORS, COMMUNITY SERVANT

HON. K. MICHAEL CONAWAY
OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. CONAWAY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and service of Phil Neighbors. Phil was a pillar in the San Angelo community, and I had the pleasure of working with him frequently over the last decade.

Phil dedicated his life to three things: to God, his family, and his community.

He and his wife, Susan, had two children together, and four grandchildren. It wasn’t uncommon for Phil to run straight to a city event from his grandsons’ ball games—he seemed to make time for everyone while placing the truly important things in life first.

Phil was deeply ingrained in Angelo. A graduate of Angelo State University, he led the San Angelo Chamber of Commerce for the last 10 years. In this role, he strengthened the community and helped Angelo become a better place to live and raise a family. He dedicated his life to this calling, taking on many duties, none of which were too small or large, for the betterment of the community.

One example was the bridge he helped build between the Goodfellow Air Force Base and the Angelo community. He established a strong and lasting bond for the betterment of both. He embraced our service-members, and was always willing to support them and our military in any way that he could.

As a deacon in the Baptist church, Phil led the church’s college program and many mission trips to Mexico. He was a selfless servant, a trait that extended beyond the city, state, and country’s borders. Everyone felt and knew Phil’s warmth and thoughtfulness of others. His guidance and quiet diligence was reassuring to those around him and helped shape a community that is exemplary in Texas and the nation. Phil had no small part in creating such a community.

We lost Phil far too soon, just days after his 64th birthday. His loss will be felt across the community and his service will not be forgotten. Please join me in remembering and celebrating the extraordinary life of our friend Phil Neighbors.

RECOGNIZING THE OUTSTANDING SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY OF TACOMA OF DR. DUNG XUAN NGUYEN

HON. DEREK KILMER
OF WASHINGTON
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. KILMER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Dr. Dung Xuan Nguyen of Tacoma, WA. Dr. Nguyen has served his community with dedication and compassion through his medical practice and his outreach and support to local immigrant families.

Dr. Nguyen has practiced in the Lincoln District of Tacoma for forty years, offering medical service and strong advocacy for the uninsured and homeless in Tacoma’s Vietnamese-American community.

Mr. Speaker, for the past seven years, Dr. Nguyen has served as the President of the Vietnamese-American Community of Tacoma-Pierce County, which provides information and advocacy to the Vietnamese-American community in the Tacoma region.

Dr. Nguyen’s office is often a clearinghouse for ride-share services, community outreach and gatherings, and other essential services for new residents of the neighborhood.

Mr. Speaker, Dr. Nguyen has even dedicated his time to help create public art to memorialize the fallen soldiers of the Vietnam War—both U.S. and South Vietnamese servicemen. He designed and donated a black monolith memorial to the Vietnamese Cultural Center in Seattle in 2012 with the inscription “The Nation Will Always Remember Those Who Sacrificed.”

Dr. Nguyen has shown dedication to community and advocacy for those who need it. He has lived up to the values of our nation, welcoming immigrants to his community and honoring his adopted home through his work in the Tacoma community.

Mr. Speaker, I’m proud to express my gratitude for Dr. Dung Xuan Nguyen’s inspirational medical care and volunteerism to the lives of Tacoma’s citizens and their families today in the United States Congress.

HONORING THE REVEREND DR. NOAH SPENCER SMITH

HON. KEITH ELLISON
OF MINNESOTA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. ELLISON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of Reverend Dr. Noah Spencer Smith and to recognize his decades of service to the citizens of Minneapolis.

Born in Marion, Indiana in 1908, Reverend Dr. Smith’s parents enriched his childhood through music, art, and a lasting devotion to the African Methodist Episcopal church. After graduating high school in 1927, Reverend Dr. Smith’s love of music led him to drum in a jazz band, touring and composing songs for many years. He later took a job as a railroad dining car waiter to support his family.

Eventually settling in Minneapolis and joining St. Peter’s AME Church, Reverend Dr. Smith was active in choir, Sunday school, and the Order of Service before answering his deeper calling to enter the ministry. In 1960, Reverend Dr. Smith was ordained as an Itinerant Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, receiving a pastorate at St. Mark’s Church in Duluth, MN. He returned to Minneapolis in 1988 to serve the congregation of St. James’ Church, the oldest black congregation in Minneapolis, until retiring the mandatory retirement age of 90.

Reverend Dr. Smith was among the oldest graduates from three separate Minnesota colleges. He earned an Associate of Arts degree from Minneapolis Community College at age 74, a Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies from Macalester College at age 78, and a Master of Divinity degree from United Theological Seminary at the age of 81. An exceptional student, Reverend Dr. Smith received the Sidney Barrow Award in Religion during his time at Macalester, and in 2013 was bestowed an honorary Doctorate of Ministry from United Theological Seminary at 105 years old.

Reverend Dr. Smith was widely admired and respected both in the Minneapolis community and in the African Methodist Episcopal Church worldwide. After his retirement from St. James’ at 90, he tirelessly worked for 16 more years as a member of the Wayman Church ministerial staff where he continued to preach, helped found the Wayman Church Bible Institute, taught Bible studies, and mentored many members of the clergy. Reverend Dr. Smith’s final ministerial act was September 6, 2015, giving a scripture lesson during service at Lily of The Valley Church in Apple Valley, Minnesota. Lily of the Valley African Methodist Episcopal Church is a church that he not only helped found, but was also the first African Church to open in Minnesota in nearly 80 years.

Reverend Dr. Noah Spencer Smith passed away on September 24, 2015 at the age of 107. At the time of his death, Reverend Dr. Smith was the oldest active minister in the United States. His memory stands as an example for all in Minneapolis never to cease your calling. Through a deep dedication to his faith, he fostered a community that will blossom for years to come.

2015 PERSON OF THE YEAR: LISA KRUSE

HON. RICHARD M. NOLAN
OF MINNESOTA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. NOLAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Lisa Kruse of McGregor, Minnesota for being named 2015 Person of the Year by the Aitkin Age for her outstanding service to her community.

As Director of Community Education Lisa works tirelessly to promote wellness to all people in her community. She has brought activities to McGregor for all ages, from indoor recreation, to an ice rink at the High School, and to fitness classes for seniors.

The programs Lisa helps bring to her community go beyond physical health. Recently she attended training to educate others in her community on the impacts of Adverse Childhood Experiences. She obtained grants to make McGregor schools a Reading Corps site where additional reading help is available for struggling students to promote literacy to early readers in kindergarten through third grade.

Her assistance to McGregor’s Early Childhood program helped it earn Parent Aware’s highest rating of four stars.

In addition to all she does to promote education and wellness Lisa was instrumental in bringing the Governor’s fishing opener to Aitkin County for the past 25 years ever. After four years of hard work by Lisa the 2016 Governor’s Fishing Opener will be held at Big Sandy Lake nearby her hometown. She is a great example of what it means to be an active citizen.

Once again I would like to thank Lisa Kruse for all she does for her hometown of McGregor, Minnesota.

DELANO STEWART
HON. KATHY CASTOR
OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Ms. CASTOR of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of an extraordinary leader and pillar of the Tampa Bay legal community, Mr. Delano Stewart.

Delano Stewart retired in July 2015 after an illustrious 50-year legal career in the state of Florida. A graduate of Hillsborough County public schools, Mr. Stewart went on to matriculate from Morehouse College and Howard University Law School. His memorable career began as the first African-American Assistant Public Defender in Hillsborough County’s history. In 1970, he went on to open the first integrated law firm in the state of Florida. In addition to his legal work, Mr. Stewart was the first African-American elected to the Board of Directors of the Hillsborough County Bar Association, and the first African-American member of the Rough Riders civic club.

Mr. Stewart’s memorable career was shaped by many stalwart figures in the civil rights movement. At the age of 12, inspired by a visit from Thurgood Marshall, who was in Tampa as an NAACP attorney assisting in the African-American teachers’ campaign for equal pay, Mr. Stewart desired to become a lawyer. His passion for the civil rights movement was further stoked upon traveling to Washington, DC for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s “I Have a Dream” speech. Additionally, Mr. Stewart is proud to champion Garland Stewart, the first African-American administrator in Hillsborough County school district history who played a key role in integrating the district, as the greatest influence on his life.

Beyond his legal career, he founded The Delano S. Stewart Diversity Award which is given each year to an individual for lifetime achievements in improving the lives of African-Americans and promoting diversity in the legal profession.

During this new chapter of his life, Mr. Stewart plans on spending more time with his wife and their six children and eight grandchildren as well as working on his novel. In Delano Stewart’s own words he is not retiring, rather he is finding new ways to help people with his specialized legal training. Mr. Stewart, I join the Tampa Bay community in honoring Mr. Delano Stewart for his lifelong commitment to fairness and justice for all.

NATIONAL SCHOOL COUNSELING WEEK
HON. LINDA T. SÁNCHEZ
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Ms. LINDA T. SÁNCHEZ of California. Mr. Speaker, earlier this week I introduced a resolution recognizing February 1–5th as National School Counseling Week. This resolution is an important one; school counselors are critical to the success of our students, particularly the ones who are at a high risk of dropping out.

We ask much of our counselors. The recommended counselor to student ratio is one to 250, while the national average is almost double that; one to 482. Each year, only 80% of students are graduating from high school. Schools desperately need more counselors who can put students on the path to success by ensuring they have the tools they need to graduate.

In the spirit of properly recognizing hardworking school counselors across the country, today I wish to honor the work of an incredible school counselor and administrator from Montebello Unified School District, Andy Costello. Recently retired, he spent much of his career working for Montebello Unified, and has become a pillar of our community.

Mr. Costello has a passion for supporting and uplifting students and their families. Always going above and beyond to make sure families received the best guidance and support possible. Now retired, Andy continues to be engaged with the community. Mr. Costello is involved in counseling associations, and the college access program, College Bound Today, at Montebello Unified.

It is important to recognize leaders like Mr. Costello. The true heroes of our community. The ones that help make our future brighter, by uplifting the next generation. He has had an immense impact on our community.

IN HONOR OF PAT HOSFORD’S 80TH BIRTHDAY
HON. KEVIN BRADY
OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. BRADY of Texas. Mr. Speaker, born into an American energy family, Patrick Eugene Hosford arrived on February 6, 1936 in Seminole, Oklahoma where his father was working for what was then known as Gulf Oil. Eugene and June Hosford’s oldest son, like his father, would go on to graduate from the University of Oklahoma and immediately put his engineering degree to work in the energy industry.

For many years, Pat worked for Pan American, which became Amerco. Then Pat ventured out on his own forming his own energy companies and making his mark as an independent oilman. Pat even formed a manufacturing company to make pupil joints for the energy industry.

A quarter century ago Pat, and his lovely wife of 59 years, Colleen, whom he met on the campus at the University of Oklahoma, made The Woodlands their home. Their three sons all earned engineering degrees from the University of Texas, which makes the annual Snooners-Longhorn match-up quite the event in the Hosford house.

All three of Pat’s sons have made their mark on domestic energy production. Jim, John, and Mike, their wives, 9 children and two great-grandchildren, have the privilege of spending time and joy. Not tired, Pat feels being a grandfather to be as great a rush as striking oil.

I had the privilege of being in the same Woodlands office building with Pat for years. Seeing Pat frequently meant I benefitted from his experience and insight into our area’s top business sector. His service on the Woodlands-South Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce was a great help in the early days of The Woodlands when we were working to attract new energy companies to our community. Pat served whenever and whenever he was needed with a smile on his face, a faithful heart, and an open door for anyone who needed solid advice or help. A man of strong faith, Pat has always been active in his local church.

One of my funniest, if not strangest, memories of Pat was seeing him, and other Woodlands leaders, dressed up bizarrely and jokingly offering folks a chance to make a donation or kiss a pig. Their over the top stunts made us laugh while raising a lot of money for the local United Way.

Thank you will never be enough, Pat. Cathy and I are blessed to have you and Colleen as friends, as sounding boards and supporters since I first ran for office as a Texas State Representative. Today it is my privilege to honor Patrick Eugene Hosford on his 80th birthday and to wish him 80 more.

A LIFE-SAVING ACT OF KINDNESS

HON. RICHARD M. NOLAN
OF MINNESOTA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. NOLAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Minnesota State Trooper Glen Bihler and Mary Dinger of Aitkin, MN for their selfless acts of kindness toward a fellow Minnesotan in need of shelter on a cold winter night.

Winters in Minnesota tend to be cold but the temperature on January 19th was particularly cold at 15 degrees below zero. Mary Dinger was driving along Highway 169 in Aitkin County, Minnesota. At mile marker 249 Mary saw a man lying down on the side of the road. Although we are all taught not to stop and pick up strangers—particularly on dark rural roads late at night—Mary stopped to help and let the man warm up in her car while she called 911 and waited for a state Trooper to arrive. After Trooper Bihler picked up the man and confirmed he did not have frostbite, Bihler brought him to a fast-food restaurant for a hot meal.

Mary and Pat Dinger learned that the man was driving to Lakeland, Florida to visit his parents and to see relatives for his birthday and to wish him 80 more.

On Roll Call 58, I would have voted yea (Amendment No. 6, H.R. 1675).

On Roll Call 59, I would have voted yea (Amendment No. 7, H.R. 1675).

On Roll Call 60, I would have voted yea (On Motion to Recommit with Instructions, H.R. 1675).

On Roll Call 61, I would have voted no (H.R. 1675).

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. JOHN LEWIS
OF GEORGIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. LEWIS. Mr. Speaker, I was unable to cast roll call votes on Monday, February 1, 2016. Had I been present, I would have cast the following votes:

I would have voted Aye on roll call vote 46; and I would have voted Aye on roll call vote 47. In addition, on Tuesday, February 2, 2016, I would like to clarify for the record that I strongly opposed the amendment under consideration and intended to vote Nay on roll call vote 50 during consideration of H.R. 3700.

HONORING THE LIFE OF HAWAI’I STATE SENATOR GILBERT KAHELE

HON. TULSI GABBARD
OF HAWAII
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Ms. GABBARD. Mr. Speaker, on January 26, 2016, the Aloha State lost the Honorable Gil Kahele, a U.S. Marine, a Hawaii State Senator, and a loving husband and father. His life was extraordinary from beginning to end, and he will be sorely missed.

Hawaii Island State Senator Gilbert Kahele was born to Peter and Rebecca Kahele, both of Hawaiian descent, in a grass shack by the sea on May 15, 1942 at Kailihi, just south of the Hawaiian fishing village of Miloli’i in South Kona. His parents valued education, so in 1947, they moved the family to Hilo, 90 miles away when Gil was five years old. It was a big change for the Kahele family because Hilo was a bustling town after recovering from World War II and the 1946 tsunami. It was full of commerce and dedications, sporting events, and multiple nationalities, a far cry from the isolated fishing village of Miloli’i on the other side of the island.

I recently saw Gil in Washington, DC, where as always, he was ready with a smile, a hug, a heart full of aloha. My heart is with the Kahele family (ohana), and all of Hawai’i Island, Gil, you are missed. Thank you (Mahalo nui loa) for dedicating your life to serving others and for demonstrating how much we can achieve when we work together in the spirit of aloha. God bless you (Ke Akua me ke Aloha).
INTRODUCTION OF THE “RIGHTS FOR TRANSPORTATION SECURITY OFFICERS ACT OF 2016”

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON OF MISSISSIPPI
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Mr. Speaker, today, I join with Representative НИТА LOWEY (D–NY) to introduce the “Rights for Transportation Security Officers Act of 2016,” legislation to ensure that the dedicated men and women that serve on the frontlines of our Nation’s airports have receive the rights and protections afforded to their counterparts within the Department and the Federal government.

When the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) was established in 2002, in response to the September 11th attacks, Congress acted swiftly to transfer responsibility for security screening at airports from the private sector to the Federal government. We did so with the expectation that a system-wide approach would be taken to protect our Nation’s vital aviation sector and the passengers that are its lifeblood. Over the years, Congress has come to realize that some of the flexibilities that were given to TSA when it was established were too broad and warranted refinement. For instance, when Congress recognized that TSA’s exercise of acquisition flexibilities was not yielding the outcomes that TSA and the flying public need, TSA was required to comply with the Federal Acquisition Regulation, just like every other Federal agency. Now we are introducing the “Rights for Transportation Security Officers Act of 2016,” because we believe that the time has come for TSA’s personnel and labor management systems to be brought into compliance with the longstanding Federal systems and protections afforded to Federal workers under Title 5.

TSA has had its fair share of challenges, particularly with respect to its personnel services. Repeatedly, there have been instances where TSA’s personnel system at attracting, retaining, and developing talent has fallen short. And with respect to labor management, the promise of the 2011 determination by then-TSA Administrator John Pistole has not lived up to its promise, insofar as the labor union that was elected as the exclusive representative for the Transportation Security Officer workforce can only bargain and represent workers in limited cases and issues in dispute that may be raised to a neutral third party are limited.

The fight for basic worker protections for Transportation Security Officers has been a long one. These dedicated individuals serve honorably on the front lines, protecting us from those who want to do us harm through our aviation sector. Back in 2007, we came close to ensuring that Transportation Security Officers would be put under Title 5 but a veto from then-Presidential Bush all but closed the door to getting the fix. When President Obama took office, the TSA workforce and many of us in Congress were hopeful that under new leadership, workers would get the rights and protections that had been denied to them. However, now that there has been successive TSA Administrators fail to address longstanding unsettled workforce issues, it is imperative that Congress come together and enact legislation that will grant the workforce rights and benefits that they deserve.

I hope that other Members will join myself and Representative LOWEY and support this important legislation.

INTRODUCTION OF SEAT EGRESS IN AIR TRAVEL (SEAT) ACT

HON. STEVE COHEN
OF TENNESSEE
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, today, I introduce the Seat Egress in Air Travel (SEAT) Act. This bill would direct the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) to establish minimum seat size standards for passenger seats on aircrafts operated by carriers in the U.S. for the health and safety of passengers.

Consumers are tired of being squeezed—both physically and fiscally. The average distance between rows of seats has dropped from 35 inches before airline deregulation in the 1970s to about 31 inches today. The average width of an airplane seat has also shrunk from 18 inches to about 16 1/2.

This isn’t just a matter of comfort. It is about safety and health. The FAA requires that planes be capable of evacuation in 90 seconds or less, but the FAA hasn’t conducted emergency evacuation tests on airlines with a distance between rows of less than 29 inches. Some airlines fly with rows as close as 28 inches apart. Furthermore, doctors warn of deep vein thrombosis which can affect passengers who don’t move their legs enough on longer flights.

Moreover, average seat sizes have been shrinking while the average size of Americans has been growing. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the average man in 1960 weighed 166, and the average woman weighed 140 pounds. Now the average man is 196 pounds and the average woman is 166 pounds—and both are about an inch taller.

This just doesn’t make any sense. I hope that Congress will quickly act on this bill to direct the FAA to establish minimum seat size standards to provide appropriately for the safety and health of airplane passengers.

INTRODUCTION OF THE “MAKING YOUR RETIREMENT ACCESSIBLE ACT” OR THE “MYRA ACT”

HON. JOSEPH CROWLEY
OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, February 8, 2016

Mr. CROWLEY. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to introduce, along with Congressman KEITH ELLISON, the “Making Your Retirement Accessible Act,” also known as the “myRA Act,” to help address the savings and retirement security crisis in America.

Here are a few startling facts:

According to a 2015 Federal Reserve Report, 31 percent of non-retired individuals said they have no retirement savings or pension whatsoever.

Among workers who do not participate in a 401(k) or other defined contribution plan, 42 percent say that is because their employer does not offer one.

For part-time workers, it can be even more difficult, as a 2015 BLS Economic Release found that 62 percent of part-time workers don’t have access to a retirement plan at work.

To address this looming crisis, the Obama Administration recently launched the myRA program to help workers who face obstacles to saving, such as by not having access to an employer-sponsored retirement plan or not having enough in personal funds to purchase and contribute to their own IRA.

The myRA program allows workers to open their own retirement savings account with as little as $1, and gives them the ability to make automatic payments every pay period.

Employers would only be responsible for setting up a payroll deduction for employees to create and deposit funds into their individualized myRA accounts.

myRA accounts not only encourage workers to build a nest egg for their future, but also give workers peace of mind that they can access these funds in emergencies.

Under the myRA program, participants can withdraw funds from their account tax-free and penalty-free—so these funds can be used as an emergency rainy-day fund as well as a future retirement account, further breaking down the barrier against savings.

The funds invested go solely into U.S. Government savings bonds, ensuring these accounts remain stable, not at risk in the market.

Further, the accounts do not have any associated maintenance charges or fees, which means every dollar that is invested will be returned—plus interest—to the account holder.

Recognizing most Americans will have a number of jobs in their lifetime; myRA accounts are also portable, allowing employees to change jobs while still being able to easily maintain their accounts.

The Administration has taken an important step forward by using their existing legal authority to create this program. I salute them for their actions in creating this program.

The myRA program represents an important savings tool, and as such it should be welcomed as more than just an administrative program—it should be codified into law.

Today, Congressman ELLISON and I are taking that next step to ensure this worthwhile program can continue, allowing everyone in our country to plan ahead for a secure retirement for themselves and their families.

SENATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS
Title IV of Senate Resolution 4, agreed to by the Senate on February 4, 1977, calls for establishment of a system for a computerized schedule of all meetings and hearings of Senate committees, subcommittees, joint committees, and committees of conference.
