

As a former member of the House Armed Forces Committee, I understand well the complexity of this conflict. By creating this assessment for our intelligence and defense agencies we will provide them with the proper tools to fight ISIS and current terrorist threats. We must continue to update our intelligence as the war against ISIS goes on and forces hide, recuperate, and go underground. Some terrorist fighters have been believed to migrate to neighboring countries, others have relocated to their homes, and members of this group might even be seeking to return to Europe or the U.S. Keeping track of this terrible enemy will be of the utmost importance and H.R. 4564 will help us assess this threat and will bolster our arsenal to combat terror abroad.

VICTOR LOVELADY'S SPIRIT LIVES ON

HON. TED POE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 16, 2018

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, on this day, five years ago, one of my constituents—Mr. Victor Lovelady—was brutally killed at the hands of al-Qaeda-linked terrorists in Algeria. Victor was killed not just for who he was, but also for what he represented. He was killed because he was an American. Before his death, Victor displayed some of the very best qualities of the American spirit: courage, conviction, and compassion. This is the American spirit that terrorists seek to kill. But today and every day, we let Mr. Lovelady's spirit live on. I would like to take a moment to tell you his story.

Like many Americans, Victor Lovelady was a hard worker who put in long hours to provide for his family of four. As an industrial engineer and master electrician, he worked most of his life in his hometown of Nederland, Texas. Victor never had a pension plan and always had to pay his family's insurance by himself. So, when given the opportunity to work overseas for British Petroleum, Victor knew a few years of hard work would provide him with enough money to retire. He made a sacrifice for his family.

On January 9, 2013, Victor arrived in a remote area of Algeria to begin his new job at the BP Gas facility. Seven days later, Victor and several other workers were in the cantina having tea when a colleague walked in with a gunshot wound to his stomach. Al Qaeda-linked terrorists had stormed their facility and were indiscriminately killing innocent employees.

In the ultimate show of heroism, Victor disregarded the sound of gunfire and instead began cleaning and dressing his colleague's wound. Victor then hid him in a food container for his safety. Even as the sound of gunshots grew louder, Victor selflessly continued to lift the other men into the cantina's false ceiling, hiding them from the attackers. Moments later, the terrorists stormed in, captured Victor, and held him hostage. Victor's selfless and heroic actions saved four lives that day. Sadly, Victor was killed when U.S. and Algerian forces attempted to rescue the hostages.

Victor Lovelady was a true American hero. He represented the very best of America; he represented selfless courage and sacrifice. He was there to work hard to provide an honest living for his family and when he encountered the evil of terrorism, thought first to protect others instead of himself. For his actions, I have requested that Victor be recognized with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, our nation's highest civilian honor to recognize individuals who have made "an especially meritorious contribution" to our society. Victor undoubtedly exceeded that standard.

While we continue to mourn their loss we should, to quote General George Patton: "Thank God that such men lived."

Mr. Speaker, courage like this should be praised and remembered. We should all take a moment today to reflect on the heroism of Victor Lovelady. He was a great man and his legacy continues through his family: his wife, Maureen, his two children, Erin and Grant, and his brother, Mike. May we continue to honor the sacrifice that Victor Lovelady made as a courageous husband, father, and American. And that's just the way it is.

Mr. ADERHOLT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to recognize Judge Johnny Rogers on the occasion of his retirement as Probate Judge of Lamar County, Alabama. I am proud to recognize Judge Rogers for his many years of public service to Lamar County and to the state of Alabama. He is truly a man who embodies the American principles of hard work, dedication, and devotion to one's community.

Judge Rogers is a native of Lamar County and was educated in the Lamar County school system. After operating Rogers Auto Parts, a successful automotive business in Sulligent, Alabama, for twenty-seven years, he decided to enter public service. He was first elected as Probate Judge, which also serves as Chairman of the County Commission, in 2000, and re-elected in 2006 and again in 2012. His re-election in 2006 was the first time a Probate Judge had been re-elected in Lamar County in over 30 years.

During his term in office, Judge Rogers committed himself to working hard for the citizens of Lamar County, conducting the Probate Judge's office and the County Commission in an effective, efficient and courteous manner and striving to improve the quality of life for all citizens of Lamar County. He created the "Existing Manufacturing Program" to help retain Lamar County's manufacturing jobs by offering incentives and abatements to local businesses. He also worked tirelessly with the local economic development authority on industrial expansions by Nacco Material Handling, Weyerhaeuser, and Steel Dust Recycling, resulting in a capital investment of over $250 million and the addition of hundreds of jobs.

Another goal of Judge Rogers was to expand the availability of county water. Since he took office he has secured $2.4 million in Community Development Block Grant funds to provide county water to 282 homes and constructed over 51 miles of new waterlines.

Judge Rogers is highly respected by the people of Lamar County for his honesty and

100TH BIRTHDAY OF NATHAN DRAYER

HON. DANIEL M. DONOVAN, JR.

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, January 16, 2018

Mr. DONOVAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the 100th birthday of World War II veteran, Dr. Nathan Drayer.

Nathan Drayer was born on January 8, 1918, in Brooklyn, New York. It was in Brooklyn where Nathan met his future wife, Sylvia. After marriage, they went on to raise their four outstanding children, Carol, Barry, Gerald, and Dennis. When the call to serve came, however, Dr. Drayer immediately answered. As a licensed optometrist with a degree from Columbia University, he was made a U.S. Army medic, serving stateside during World War II. After the war ended, Dr. Drayer opened his own optometry practice in Brooklyn. He treated patients for over 40 years until he retired in 1990.

Residing in Island Shores for the past four years, Nathan has loved spending time with friends and fellow residents. Moreover, he treasures every moment he spends with his loving children, six grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. He is very popular at Island Shores, with a great sense of humor and an ingenious wit.

Mr. Speaker, I wish Dr. Nathan Drayer a happy 100th birthday. I cannot thank him enough for his contributions to his country. When the war broke out, he stepped up when he was needed most in order to vanquish the evil of fascism. He is a shining example of a true American hero. I am immensely proud to represent him in Congress. I hope he has the happiest of birthdays, and I thank him for his service.
